ON THE COVER

The cover of the 2000 Kansas City Chiefs Media Guide honors the finest fans in the National Football League and the late Derrick Thomas through a pair of photographs by Chiefs team photographer, Hank Young. The featured photo captures a scene from the '99 home opener vs. the Denver Broncos, as 78,683 raucous fans loudly proclaimed Arrowhead Stadium as "The Home of the ... CHIEFS!" during the National Anthem. Adding to the pageantry were a quartet of A-10 aircraft from Whiteman Air Force Base in Knob Noster, Missouri. That game marked the first regular season win in the head coaching career of Gunther Cunningham, as the Chiefs registered a convincing 26-10 victory over their AFC West foes. Following the game, Thomas presented Cunningham with the game ball. "He hasn't come back down to Earth yet," D.T. said of Cunningham following the game. "As soon as he comes back down, I'll let you know how he's doing." After Thomas tragically departed from this Earth on February 8, 2000, it was Cunningham who provided a most fitting tribute to his fallen friend, proclaiming that, "Derrick Thomas will hang over this stadium forever." Indeed, Thomas' spirit and memory will always be a part of the Kansas City community, as he keeps a watchful eye over the Chiefs and Arrowhead for years to come.

FOUNDER

LAMAR HUNT

As the National Football League enters the new millennium, one figure remains a constant in the everchanging world of professional football, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, who begins his 41st year of involvement with the game in 2000.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the American Football League in the late '50s, playing a pivotal role in the AFL-NFL merger in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise during the past three decades, there is little question that few other individuals have helped positively change the face of America's favorite game as much as Hunt over the past 40-plus years.

As the organizer of the American Football League — which celebrated its 40th Anniversary along with the Chiefs in '99 — Hunt brought together the famed "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners in '59, and helped the fledgling league take foot on the field for the '60 season. On June 8th of '66, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15th of '67, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. Although the two leagues were not fully fused until the '70 season, Hunt's continuing efforts have long been recognized as having an important role in the ongoing development, design and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

As the Founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, while winning the '69 World Championship in Super Bowl IV. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport is the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

Hunt's participation in the organization of the AFL was recognized when he became the first AFL figure to be honored with enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame at Canton, Ohio. That honor was extended in the summer of '72, remarkable considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier.

During the fall of '59, Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 38th year in Mid-America in 2000. He was deeply involved in the construction of Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which celebrates its 29th year of service in 2000 and is still considered among the finest sports venues in the world.

The early days of the league were problem-filled but Hunt saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both '66 and '69. By winning the '66 AFL title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In '82, Hunt was singled out by the NFL Alumni Association to receive the prestigious Leather Helmet Award. In February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club for continuing positive contributions to the game.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in the game and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being the chief negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old AFL rule that was finally implemented by the NFL in '94. Last season, along with Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson, Hunt earned the distinction of becoming just the fourth Owner/General Manager combination to preside over a franchise for all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99.

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional athletic ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, while the Hunt family also serves as investor-operators of both the Kansas City Wizards and the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer, which is in its fifth season.

Over 30 years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those entities are now defunct; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis (located Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In addition, Hunt was also inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in '97. In '99, World Soccer Magazine named Hunt one of its "100 Most Influential People" after he received two more rare distinctions for his contributions to that sport. Last year the U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt Open Cup" as Hunt received the U.S. Soccer Federation's National Soccer Hall of Fame's prestigious Medal of Honor.

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, and has actively worked on the development of the international aspects of the sport, including his service on the Board of Directors of the NFL Europe League.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron, Clark and Daniel, as well as 10 grand-children. Together, the entire Hunt family shares a great enthusiasm for the Chiefs "Red and Gold."

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

JACK W. STEADMAN

In 2000, the Kansas City Chiefs began their 41st season as a pro football franchise under the leadership of Jack Steadman, Chairman of the Board.

A recognized leader among pro football administrators, Steadman has structured the Chiefs organization to meet the challenge brought about by growth of the business of pro football over the years.

As the Chiefs begin their 38th season in Kansas City, and their 29th in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, Steadman can look with pride at a list of football and administrative accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the '63 season in the old American Football League.

It was Steadman who conceived the idea of Kansas City building the dual Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which houses the Chiefs in the 79,000-seat Arrowhead, and Royals baseball in the 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium. The complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world.

Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive Vice President and General Manager in '66; in August of '76 he was named President of the Chiefs in charge of all operating parations; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board operations; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful business man with the Chiefs, Steadman later joined Lamar Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun. The 165-acre family entertainment complex opened in '73 and drew over 800,000 guests during its first season of operation.

In '82, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. In '95, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun were sold to Cedar Fair.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Co., an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves on the Board of Directors of Commerce Bank and is the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Committee.

Actively involved within the community since arriving in Kansas City, Steadman is a tireless worker and detailed organizer in many civic and service projects. He is past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way, and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association, Starlight Theatre Association, Full Employment Council, and Private Industry Council. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a member of the Civic Council. In '88 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citian of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, III., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University. Steadman and his wife, Judy, reside in Mission Hills, Kansas.

PRESIDENT/GM/CEO

Carl D. Peterson

As the Chiefs enter the 2000 season, no individual is more qualified, more prepared or more enthusiastic about leading Kansas City's NFL franchise into the challenges of the new century than team President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, Carl Peterson.

Peterson, who enters his 12th season as the Kansas City Chiefs top executive in 2000, unquestionably serves as the driving force of the organization and is regarded as the person most responsible for the club's return to prominence both on and off the field during the past 11 years.

Since coming to Mid-America in late December of '88, he has not only transformed the Chiefs into a model National Football League organization, but has also built the Kansas City franchise into one of pro sport's finest entities. Under his continued guidance, the club maintains one of the most loyal national fan followings and strongest season ticket bases of any professional sports team. Boasting individual season-ticket accounts from an astonishing 41 different states and the territory of Puerto Rico, the Chiefs once again built upon their long-standing reputation for supremacy in the area of season ticket renewals, as a remarkable 99.8 percent of the club's 72,000 season tickets were renewed for the 2000 NFL campaign.

Despite his many accomplishments in steering the overall fortunes of the franchise, at his essence, Peterson still remains a quintessential football man. During the decade of the '90s, few teams could match the level of success exhibited on the playing field by the Chiefs. From '90-99, Kansas City posted a stellar 102-58 (.638) record, making Kansas City just one of seven teams in NFL history to record 100 or more wins over the course of a single decade. Even more impressive was the fact that Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Peterson became just the fourth Owner/General Manager tandem to preside over a team for all 10 years of a 100-win decade.

Peterson can obtain another rare distinction during the 2000 campaign by getting his 200th career regular season win as a professional football executive. Dating back to the '77 season when he served as the Director of Player Personnel for the Philadelphia Eagles, teams whose personnel operations have been overseen by Peterson have produced a 198-108-2 (.643) mark. During that 19-season span which also includes tenures as the top executive for the Chiefs and USFL's Stars, his teams have produced winning records 17 times and made the playoffs on 14 occasions.

During the '90s, Kansas City finished first or second in the AFC West nine times, made seven playoff appearances, won three AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history. But perhaps the greatest achievement of the previous 10 years under Peterson was the establishment of the unparalleled fan support the club currently enjoys in Kansas City. Over the past decade, no NFL team enjoyed a more impressive homefield advantage than the one boasted by the Chiefs at Arrowhead Stadium. Kansas City posted a league-best 65-15 (.813) regular season record at their raucous home in the '90s and is regarded as having one of the best and loudest gameday atmospheres in the entire league. Including four postseason contests, the team has sold out 76 consecutive contests at Arrowhead. In '99, Kansas City enjoyed a franchise-best regular season home attendance of 629,545 to lead the entire NFL for the sixth consecutive season. In addition, over one million fans per year witnessed the Chiefs compete in regular season action at home and on the road for 10 consecutive seasons during the '90s.

Those successes are in large degree attributable to the tremendous talent Peterson has put on the field and in the front office since taking over the Chiefs franchise. However, his eye for achievers isn't limited to those two areas. Perhaps Peterson's greatest talent has been hiring some of the most successful head coaches to roam the pro football sidelines in recent memory. On January 22nd of '99, he ushered in a new era in franchise history when he hired another lifelong football man, Gunther Cunningham, as the eighth head coach in team annals. Cunningham didn't disappoint by producing a 9-7 record in '99, the best record of any rookie NFL head coach a year ago and the best mark by any first-year coach in Chiefs history. Cunningham has given all indications of living up to the lofty standards set by Peterson's previous two head coaching hires, Marty Schottenheimer (Chiefs) and Jim Mora (USFL Stars) - who currently serves as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts - are two of just of 27 coaches in NFL annals to own 100 or more career wins.

"We have a great organization in Kansas City, built on outstanding tradition and talented people," Peterson observed. "We expect to win here and I feel we have everything necessary to win - solid ownership, first-class facilities, an outstanding support staff and what I believe are the greatest fans in the entire National Football League. Plus, I have every confidence in Gunther Cunningham as a head football coach. I'm personally very excited about him leading this football team into the new millennium."

Of course, making shrewd decisions on coaching talent is nothing new to this football executive who broke into the NFL ranks himself coaching wide receivers and tight ends for Dick Vermeil's Philadelphia Eagles in '76. Upon Peterson's arrival in Kansas City, his first move to restructure the Chiefs came on January 25th of '89 when he hired Schottenheimer as the club's seventh head coach. In his 10 seasons guiding the the club on the gridiron, Schottenheimer posted a franchise-best .631 winning percentage, producing a 101-58-1 mark from '89-98.

As President and General Manager of the Philadelphia Stars of the newly-formed United States Football League in '82, Peterson tabbed Jim Mora to lead that club. In the USFL's three seasons of existence, Mora posted a 41-12-1 (.760) regular season record, which was by-far the league's best mark, and a pair of USFL titles in '83 and '84.

Throughout his distinguished football career, Peterson has established clear-cut goals for the organizations he has guided, efficiently using all of his available resources in unison to meet his objectives. That simple formula has been at the foundation of Peterson's and the Chiefs successes since his arrival in Kansas City.

"My administrative philosophy is very simple," Peterson explained. "Hire the most talented, most creative, most innovative people possible. Give them a goal and all the support possible. Then get out of the way and let them do what they do best. Overall, my job is to create an environment that is conducive to allowing individual and collective excellence to emerge."

Under Peterson's leadership the past 11 years, the Chiefs have evolved into a habitually successful franchise. When Peterson took over the Chiefs, the franchise was struggling, on the field and off, and was without any kind of national presence. Simply put, the club's reversal of fortunes under Peterson since that time have been dramatic. Dating back to his first season with the club in '89, the Chiefs own a 110-65-1 record, good for a solid .625 winning percentage. And during the '90s, only San Francisco 113-47 (.706) and Buffalo 103-57 (.644) could top the 102-58 (.638) mark established by Kansas City.

Over that 10-year span from '90-99, the Chiefs won three AFC West titles ('93, '95 and '97). In '93 the Chiefs captured their first AFC Western Division title since '71 and made their first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance. In both '95 and '97, the Chiefs put together league-best 13-3 records and went undefeated at home. The Chiefs also dominated play within the NFL's toughest division during the '90s, the AFC West. Kansas City won more division contests than any other team during the decade, producing a 55-25 (.708) ledger in division games, a figure which trailed only San Francisco 51-19 (.729) for the best intradivision winning percentage in the entire league during that timeframe.

In the '90's, no NFL club could top Kansas City's 65 regular season home wins with San Francisco a close second at 64 victories. But under Peterson, action at Arrowhead wasn't confined to the playing field as the entire infrastructure of the stadium complex underwent vast changes. Long regarded as one of the finest home bases for any NFL team, the addition of new grass practice fields, a much-needed indoor practice complex and weight-training facilities in '92 bolstered that reputation. In '94 the Chiefs played their home games on grass for the first time since '71, the team's last season at Municipal Stadium.

The improvements continued in '95-96 when the club refurbished all the team's meeting rooms, locker rooms, training and equipment rooms, as well as new video and player personnel offices. A new Arrowhead Club was also completed, in addition to a $3.0 million concession stand renovation, plus the construction of 33 new luxury field boxes which brought the facility's capacity up to 79,451. In '98, the club added a pair of new, state-of-the-art ArrowVision replay screens in both end zones. In '99 the team replaced all 33,975 seats in the upper deck of Arrowhead Stadium, while all 35,277 lower level seats were replaced in 2000 and the club's training room was also extensively refurbished. All of these improvements, which also include a third locker room under construction for additional special events at the stadium, have allowed the venue to remain one of the finest in the NFL.

In recent years, Kansas City has also been among the league leaders in merchandise sales and national-television appearances (54 times, including 18 on ABC's Monday Night Football, the past eight years), as well. In 2000, the club will return to Monday Night Football with a pair of prime-time contests, including a home match-up with the Seattle Seahawks on October 2nd.

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," said team founder Lamar Hunt, who promoted Peterson to Chief Executive Officer in May of '94. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase - front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The team's football and administrative successes have not gone unnoticed around the league. Several of the team's top coaches and administrators have received promotions to other NFL clubs, including five former Chiefs staff members who are Vice Presidents with other teams, two who are Directors of Player Personnel, plus two former Kansas City assistants who are current NFL head coaches (Bill Cowher - Pittsburgh and Tony Dungy - Tampa Bay). "The greatest form of flattery (and respect) is when other teams come after your people," Peterson remarked.

But whether on the field, on the sidelines, or in the front office, the area where Peterson has always truly excelled in is unearthing talent. He and the outstanding player personnel department he has built in Kansas City have used the college draft, trades and the free agent market to build the Chiefs talent pool. No matter the round, Peterson and his scouting staff have discovered major contributors each year in the draft, including notable performers such as: late nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas (1st round - '89), 2000 Pro Bowl center Tim Grunhard (2nd round - '90), five-time Pro Bowl guard Will Shields (3rd round - '93), 2000 Pro Bowl tight end Tony Gonzalez (1st round - '97), starting offensive tackles Victor Riley (1st round - '98) and John Tait (1st round - '99), starting linebacker Donnie Edwards (4th round - '96) and all-pro guard Dave Szott (7th round - '90).

In '93, it was Peterson who pulled the trigger on the trade with the 49ers that brought Hall of Fame quarterback Joe Montana to Kansas City. That same year he also made one of the best acquisitions in the history of unrestricted free agency, signing another future Hall of Famer, running back Marcus Allen. In '95, he inked CB James Hasty from the N.Y. Jets, who has since gone on two make two Pro Bowl appearances. In '98, Peterson added a pair of impact players through free agency in WR Derrick Alexander (Baltimore) and four-time Pro Bowl DT Chester McGlockton (Oakland).

In '99, it was Peterson who signed another fellow UCLA alum, LB Marvcus Patton, as an unrestricted free agent and Patton responded by being named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player a year ago. Kansas City continued its productive forays into unrestricted free agency again in 2000 by adding DE Duane Clemons (Minnesota), C Aaron Graham (Arizona), G Brenden Stai (Pittsburgh), G Jeff Blackshear (Baltimore), P Todd Sauerbrun (Chicago), DT Steve Martin (Philadelphia) and long snapper Kendall Gammon (New Orleans). The club also raided the roster of division rivals San Diego, picking up longtime Chargers LB Lew Bush. In addition, Peterson has continued to explore crafty trade opportunities, such as the ones which landed K Pete Stoyanovich from Miami in '96 and TE Mitch Jacoby in '99.

In total, the Chiefs have produced 45 Pro Bowlers during Peterson's 11-year tenure with the club, 14 more than the club tallied in the 11 years prior to his arrival. Peterson first displayed his knack for discovering and developing young players long before he came to Kansas City, though. His reputation as one of football's top executives began in '77 as Director of Player Personnel of the Eagles.

With the Eagles, he found Pro Bowl running back Wilbert Montgomery in the sixth round, claimed linebacker Jerry Robinson, the '79 Rookie of the Year, with the 21st pick of the first round, and stole five-time Pro Bowl receiver Mike Quick with the 20th pick in round one of '81. In addition, several of his USFL acquisitions went on to become Pro Bowlers in the NFL ranks, including linebacker Sam Mills (Saints, Panthers), defensive end William Fuller (Eagles, Chargers) and center Bart Oates (Giants, 49ers).

As the man chiefly responsible for the acquisition of talent for the Eagles, he helped Vermeil - who guided the '99 St. Louis Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV - take an Eagles team which had not produced a winning season in 12 years and helped transform it into a playoff participant his final four seasons. The highlight of those four years came in '80, when Philadelphia won the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After his rapid success with the Eagles, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and General Manager, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 48-13-1 overall record during regular (41-12-1) and postseason play (7-1) was easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

In 2000, Peterson has brought together for the first time three top executives who were integral parts of Peterson's player personnel teams with the Eagles or Stars. Vice President of Football Operations Lynn Stiles, who comes to Kansas City from the Super Bowl Champion St. Louis Rams, worked with Peterson at UCLA and succeeded him as Director of Player Personnel with the Eagles in '82 when Peterson departed for the USFL. He also served as the Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel from '92-96. Current Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel Terry Bradway, who served as Assistant Director of Player Personnel with the USFL's Stars, is now entering his ninth year in the Chiefs personnel department and begins his 12th year working with Peterson. Bill Kuharich, who served as Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel for the Stars, begins his first season as Kansas City's Director of Pro Personnel. He is reunited with Peterson after spending 14 seasons with the New Orleans Saints, including the past three as that club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career as an assistant at two California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Cal-State at Sonoma in '69, then was named head coach in '70. He spent two years there before returning to his alma mater in '72. He served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant when Vermeil became the school's head coach in '74. Peterson was with Vermeil for two years at UCLA, winning the '76 Rose Bowl, before the two made their move to the NFL, where he coached the Eagles receivers and tight ends in '76.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholars Organization. He serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner. He was a member of the Kansas City chapter of the Young President's Organization and is currently a member of the International World President's Organization. He also serves on the Board of The Third and Long Foundation, which was founded by the late Derrick Thomas. The Greater Kansas City Sports Commission presented Peterson with the 1998 Special Achievement Award for Professional Athletics.

Peterson also serves on the following NFL's Committees: College and Pro Relations, NFL Europe League Working Executives and the Youth Football Funding Board.

Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy in West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in '66, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in '67 and later earned a Doctorate in Administration in Higher Education at UCLA in '70.

He is married to the former Lori Larson of Kansas City, who is an interior design architect with H.O.K. Sports Architects. Carl has one daughter Dawn, who is married and is currently working in real estate in Edinburgh, Scotland. The Petersons make their home in Kansas City, Missouri.

DENNIS THUM

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/ ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 27 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since '89. In February of '96, he added the role of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chiefs Executive Officer, in overseeing the football side of the Chiefs operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

The 48-year-old Thum is heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, is active in the negotiations of all player contracts, monitors the salary cap, and services the coaching staff, player personnel staff, trainers, as well as the club's equipment and video staffs. He is also in charge of all training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel. In a '97 USA Today story, Thum was named one of the NFL's top 11 salary cap managers in a poll of league administrators.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City 11 years ago. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri, native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City.

Born November 14, 1951, Denny and his wife, Carmen, live in Kansas City, Missouri, with their two daughters, Megan and Lindsay.

DENNIS WATLEY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Dennis Watley, now in his 11th year with the Chiefs, was promoted to the post of Senior Vice President in March of '99 after serving three years as the club's Vice President of Administration. Watley oversees the team's sales, marketing, advertising, promotions, data processing, development and stadium operations of the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team.

He joined the club in 1990 as Director of Sales and Marketing and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in '95 and Vice President of Administration in '96. Under his direction, the Chiefs have been the NFL's home attendance leader the past six seasons and have become a model for all pro sports franchises. Last season, Kansas City extended its string of consecutive regular season and playoff sellouts at Arrowhead Stadium to 76 games. Watley has also been instrumental in developing the club's VIP tent and corporate tailgate parties which have added to the Chiefs enjoyable pre-game atmosphere.

Over the past 10 seasons, the Chiefs have emerged as one of the best-run franchises in sports, and NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue has stated that the Chiefs game production and overall football atmosphere is "the best in the NFL."

For 16 years prior to joining the Chiefs, the 52-year-old Watley was employed by National Steel Service Centers, a one-billion-dollar metals distribution company serving eight states in the Midwest. He left National Steel in 1985 as President of the Midwest Division and joined D.W. Newcomer's Sons in Kansas City.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Watley attended William Jewell College on an athletic scholarship, majoring in Business and Marketing, with additional studies in Iowa and Houston, Texas. Dennis and his wife, Carolyn, have four children - Shelby, Lori, Matt and Ellen. The Watleys reside in Lee's Summit. Missouri.

LYNN STILES

VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Lynn Stiles rejoined the Chiefs football family on February 29th of this year when he was named the club's Vice President of Football Operations. Stiles, who served as Kansas City's Vice President of Player Personnel from '92-96, spent the last three seasons ('97-99) in St. Louis as that club's Vice President of Football Operations, helping lead the Rams to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV last season. He also coached the Rams tight ends in '98-99.

A veteran of 21 NFL seasons, Stiles will report to Chiefs President Carl Peterson and assist the club in three primary areas. He will assist Terry Bradway with player personnel, he will assist Denny Thum with player contracts and he will assist Gunther Cunningham with football operations. A member of three Super Bowl champion squads, the 58-year-old Stiles earned championship rings from Super Bowls XXIII and XXIV with San Francisco, in addition to his most recent championship with St. Louis. He was also a member of the '80 Philadelphia Eagles staff which advanced to Super Bowl XV.

In total, as either an NFL coach or administrator Stiles has been involved with three World Championship teams and four Super Bowl appearances. He has also been associated with six conference championship game appearances and a grand total of 24 postseason games in his 21 pro seasons. With that wealth of experience to his credit, Stiles should be a valuable asset to a Chiefs organization which is striving to return to postseason prominence in 2000. Stiles was also instrumental in the formation of player development programs in both Kansas City and St. Louis, working with Lamonte Winston of the Chiefs and Kevin Warren of the Rams.

Stiles began his longtime association with Peterson when the two worked together at UCLA from '72-75. Peterson served as the Bruins receivers coach from '72-74 under Pepper Rodgers before serving in that same role under head coach Dick Vermeil in '75, while Stiles was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bruins from '70-75. The trio of Vermeil, Peterson and Stiles helped cap UCLA's '75 season by defeating #1 ranked Ohio State in the Rose Bowl in January of '76.

From '76-78, Stiles served as head coach at San Jose State where his squads won two league championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of QB Steve DeBerg, who was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. In '79, Stiles was reunited with Vermeil and Peterson in Philadelphia as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, while Vermeil was Head Coach and Peterson served as the Eagles Director of Player Personnel. Philadelphia produced a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 as the Eagles claimed the NFC Championship and advanced to Super Bowl XV.

When Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '82, Stiles became the Eagles Director of Player Personnel from '82-86. During that span Philadelphia acquired Pro Bowl performers such as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons and Keith Byars. The Kermit, Texas, native then joined Bill Walsh's coaching staff with the San Francisco 49ers as that club's special teams coach in '87. The next season, the 49ers claimed a 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII. In '89, Stiles was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach by head coach George Seifert as San Francisco went 14-2 and produced a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV. He also served as the team's assistant offensive line coach in '91 before originally joining the Chiefs in '92.

A two-time all-Nevada selection as a prep player at Reno High School, Stiles enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Utah playing guard and linebacker, earning all-academic and all-conference honors, in addition to a berth in the All-American bowl after his senior season in '62. He embarked on his coaching career at his alma mater in '63 and serving as an assistant at lowa from '64-69 before joining the staff at UCLA in '70.

Stiles and his wife, Marigene reside in Leawood, Kansas. They have four children - daughters Staci and Tiffanny and sons Shon and Blake, in addition to two grandchildren.

HEAD COACH

On January 22, 1999, Kansas City Chiefs President Carl Peterson ushered in a new era of Chiefs football by appointing Gunther Cunningham as the eighth head coach in the illustrious 41-year history of the franchise. A native of Munich, Germany, he is just the fourth foreign-born head coach in NFL annals.

In 2000, the 54-year-old Cunningham enters his second year as Kansas City's head coach, his 19th season in the National Football League and his 32nd year overall in the coaching profession. In total, 16 of his 19 seasons as an NFL coach have been spent in the AFC West, giving him by far the most AFC West coaching experience of any current head coach in the division. Cunningham ascended to the head coaching position after spending four years ('95-98) as Kansas City's defensive coordinator.

Renowned for his insatiable desire to succeed, Cunningham's boundless passion for the game and tireless work ethic have electrified Arrowhead Stadium and invigorated the entire Kansas City community. A year ago he guided the Chiefs to a 9-7 record, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history, making him the only one of the NFL's six first-year head coaches with a winning record in '99. In fact, none of the eight other NFL coaches in their first year with a new club last season could top Cunningham's 9-7 record, a mark tied by only Seattle's Mike Holmgren.

An unmatched motivator, this fiery German returned Kansas City to its smash-mouth roots in '99. reinstilling a punishing ground attack and reviving the team's opportunistic defense. The Chiefs ranked fourth in the league in rushing with a 130.1 yards-per-game average and set a team record with nine TDs on defense a year ago. The team also regained its scoring punch, producing 390 points, the third-highest total in team history, while posting an NFL-best +21 turnover ratio.

Throughout his 32-year coaching career Cunningham has earned the admiration of his troops with a fiercely demanding, yet honest and up-front demeanor. His aggressive, in-your-face style has earned him the respect of both his players and his adversaries, alike. Regarded as one of the most talented tacticians and teachers in the NFL today, he is a staunch disciplinarian who wasted no time in putting his stamp on the Chiefs. A vehement pigskin purist, his "old school" mentality has restored the organization's pride and put Kansas City back on the winning track.

"Gunther has taken us back in the direction we need to go," explained Chiefs President Carl Peterson. "I wanted to get back to our consistency in winning. We pride ourselves on that. It's something we've done for 11 seasons and Gunther has done that. He has gotten this team to respond to discipline. Our players are as hard of a working group of professional athletes that I've ever seen. I am very pleased and proud of what Gunther and his staff has accomplished to date."

Perhaps the most telling indication of Cunningham's impact on the Chiefs in '99 was the club's substantial reduction in the penalty column. After the team set dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304) in '98, Kansas City enjoyed a 21.3% reduction in penalties and a 29.3% decrease in penalty yardage under Cunningham's regime last season when his insistent mantra of "Respect the Game," firmly took hold. That philosophy dictates an aggressive, hardhitting approach utilizing an up-tempo, high-precision attack, both in practice and on gameday. But above all else, his doctrine means upholding the dignity and the tradition of not only the Chiefs, but also of the NFL and the game itself, a philosophy his troops truly took to heart a year ago.

"I think the most important thing we were able to accomplish last year was to get our self-respect and the respect of our opponents back," Cunningham observed. "And I think we got it back in a big way. We established ourselves as a tough, disciplined team. We rekindled what needed to be rekindled in this football program. Last year we regained our confidence, now it's time to win."

Throughout his coaching career, Cunningham's squads have always "shown up" in the win column, frequently doing so in dramatic fashion. During his four-year reign as Kansas City's defensive coordinator, possibly no other defense in the National Football League consistently wreaked more havoc upon opposing offenses than his. In four seasons as a coordinator with Kansas City, Cunningham helped the Chiefs post a 42-22 regular season record (.656) from '95-98, including a pair of AFC West crowns and a remarkable 23-9 (.719) record against their division foes.

During those days as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, no NFL defense was better at preventing opponents from putting points on the board. Under his guidance, the Chiefs led the NFL in the game's most important defensive category - scoring defense - in both '95 and '97. Counting actual points allowed by the Chiefs defenses (excluding opponents' defensive and special teams scores), his units permitted a league-low 16.4 points per game from '95-98. Including all opponents' scores, the Chiefs as a team allowed an AFC-best 17.8 points per game during that same span. From '95-98, Cunningham's squads were also opportunistic, producing an AFC-best +30 takeaway/giveaway ratio, accumulating 127 takeaways and scoring 77 points on 10 TDs and four safeties. His teams displayed a penchant for putting pressure on the passer as well, producing 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

In '97, the Chiefs broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in a string of 10 straight games. That year, Cunningham's defense led the AFC in interceptions (21), total takeaways (34) and sacks (54) and ranked second in the NFL in third-down defense, permitting first-down conversions in just 61 of 206 (31.6%) of those situations. The club also posted its first shutout since '90, a 30-0 effort which fittingly came against Kansas City's bitter division rival and Cunningham's former club, the Oakland Raiders.

His debut in Kansas City came in '95 when he brought a new defense to the Chiefs who responded by finishing the year ranked at or near the top of every major NFL statistical category. That season the team led the league in scoring defense (15.1 points per game), TDs allowed (23) and yards per play (4.3), while topping the AFC and ranking second in the league in total defense with a 284.3 yards-per-game average.

Cunningham brought his expertise to the Chiefs after spending four seasons ('91-94) with the Raiders. He served as that club's defensive coordinator in '92 and '93, in addition to tutoring the club's defensive line in '94 and the team's linebackers in '91. During both his seasons as the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL and was among the AFC's top four units in both '92 and '93. His Raider pass defense was especially stingy in '92, allowing a NFL-low 11 TD passes. As defensive coordinator in '93, the Raiders finished with a 10-6 record, making their last playoff appearance to date. In Cunningham's final campaign with the club in '94, he helped current Chiefs defensive tackle Chester McGlockton earn his initial Pro Bowl berth.

Prior to joining the Silver and Black, Cunningham spent six seasons as a mentor for the San Diego Chargers defensive line ('85-90). He was originally hired as the club's pro personnel director, spending three months in that role before being appointed defensive line coach by Don Coryell in '85. Despite working for three different head coaches during his six years with the team, the Chargers led the AFC in sacks three times, including a franchise-record 62 quarterback takedowns in '86. During his tenure coaching San Diego's defensive front, Lee Williams and current Chiefs defensive end Leslie O'Neal developed into two of the league's finest pass rushers, with both players earning a pair of Pro Bowl berths under his watchful eye.

Cunningham began his NFL career coaching the defensive line for the Baltimore Colts in '82, learning the trade under one of the league's finest defensive minds, Bud Carson, who was the team's defensive coordinator at the time. Cunningham stayed in that capacity with the club through the Colts '84 season in Indianapolis. He originally entered the pro ranks coaching defensive line and linebackers for the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger Cats in '81 before moving along with head coach Frank Kush to the NFL ranks the following year.

Owning a degree in anthropology from the University of Oregon where he was a linebacker and placekicker from '66-68, Cunningham embarked on a coaching career at his alma mater the next year and tutored the Ducks defensive line for three seasons ('69-71). It was at Oregon where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive guru, current Carolina Panthers head coach George Seifert, who was a member of the Oregon staff from '67-71. During his coaching tenure with the Ducks, Cunningham worked for former L.A. Rams and current UNLV head coach John Robinson, who was the club's defensive coordinator at the time.

In '72, he moved on to the University of Arkansas, where he coached the defensive line for Frank Broyles' squad. That Razorbacks staff would include four future NFL head coaches: Cunningham - Chiefs, Joe Gibbs - Redskins, Raymond Berry - Patriots and Richard Williamson - Buccaneers. From '73-76 he coached at Stanford University for Pro Football Hall of Famer Jack Christiansen and was reunited with Seifert, who coached defensive backs for the Cardinal from '73-74. Cunningham was Stanford's freshman head coach and assistant offensive line coach in '73 before taking over the defensive line duties his final three seasons with the squad.

Cunningham made his final stop in the collegiate coaching ranks at the University of California from '77-80. He coached defensive backs for former Oakland Raiders head coach Mike White in '77. He then worked under head coach Roger Theder his final three seasons with the Golden Bears, coaching linebackers in '78 and serving as the squad's defensive coordinator and defensive line coach from '79-80. In '79, Cal earned a berth in the Garden State Bowl, the club's first postseason berth since the '59 Rose Bowl.

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College in Santa Maria, California, by former Raiders head coach and current FOX-TV NFL analyst, John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced by longtime NFL offensive guru Ernie Zampese, who was reunited with his former college player for three seasons ('85-87) in San Diego when he was the Chargers offensive coordinator and Cunningham coached the defensive line.

One of just four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history, Cunningham owns the best record of that group at 9-7 (.563). Hugo Bezdek, a native of Czechoslovakia, served as the head coach of the Cleveland Rams from '37-38 and complied a 1-13 (.071) record. Scottish-born Jock Sutherland went 13-10-1 (.542) for the Steelers from '46-47, while former Chiefs assistant Al Saunders who was born in London, England, recorded a 17-22 (.436) mark for San Diego from '86-88.

Cunningham, born June 19, 1946 in Munich, Germany, moved to Greenfield, Massachusetts at the age of 10 in '56 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham. The family moved again in '62, this time to Lompoc, California, where Cunningham met his wife, Rene, at Lompoc High School. Rene's father was serving in the Air Force at nearby Vandenberg Air Force Base at the time, as well. Rene is also a graduate of the University of Oregon, owning a bachelor's degree in cultural sociology and a master's degree in education. The Cunninghams celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary in '99 and are the parents of two children - Natalie and Adam. The Cunningham family resides in Leawood, Kansas.

Chiefs history on January 22nd. Gets first win as an NFL head coach with a 26-10 victory in the home opener vs. Denver on September 19th. Leads the club to a 9-7 record, the best mark of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the most wins of any first-year head coach in the NFL in '99. Kansas City paces the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and records a league-best and all-time franchise high nine defensive TDs. The Chiefs "maul ball" defensive attack churns out an NFL-high 521 carries and ranks fourth in the league averaging 130.1 yards per game. Kansas City sends four players to the Pro Bowl after having just one representative the previous year.

COACHING STAFF

TOM CLEMENTS

4TH YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Owning 16 years of professional experience as both a player and a coach, Tom Clements embarks on his first season as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach in 2000. A quarterback himself for 13 seasons in both the Canadian Football League and the National Football League.

Clements joins the Chiefs after a three-year stint as the quarterbacks coach of the New Orleans Saints from '97-99.

Clements brings his wealth of in-the-trenches knowledge to Kansas City, where he will be asked to help QB Elvis Grbac build on his most successful NFL season to date. In addition to grooming established Chiefs signal-callers such as Grbac, Clements will also be charged with continuing the development of talented second-year pro Ted White, who spent the spring of this year in NFL Europe playing for the Frankfort Galaxy. Familiar with the task of preparing young quarterbacks to play. Clements comes to Kansas City from New Orleans where the Saints started five different signal-callers (Jake Delhomme, Billy Joe Hobert, Heath Shuler, Billy Joe Tolliver and Danny Wuerffel) during his three-year tenure.

One of the most prolific passers in CFL history, the 47-year-old Clements was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in '94. During his storied 12-year CFL quarterbacking career with Ottawa ('75-78), Hamilton ('79, '81-82) and Winnipeg ('83-87), Clements completed 2,807 of 4,657 passes (60.3%) for 39,041 yards to go with 252 touchdowns. The league's Rookie of the Year in '75 and league MVP in '87, he led Ottawa to the Grey Cup title in '76 and also guided Winnipeg to the CFL title in '84, earning Outstanding Offensive Player honors in both of those Grey Cup contests.

A seven-time divisional CFL All-Star, Clements quarterbacked the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in '81 when Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham was that club's defensive line/linebackers coach. With Frank Kush as head coach and Clements under center, the Tiger-Cats went 11-4-1, winning the CFL Eastern Division title and posting the club's best record since '72. The McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, native also spent the '80 season as a back-up signal-caller for the Chiefs.

He originally entered the pro ranks after a stellar collegiate career at Notre Dame, where he started three seasons with the Fighting Irish ('72-74), leading the squad to a 29-5 record during his tenure, including an unbeaten National Championship season in '73. An All-America selection at Notre Dame, Clements finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior in '74. He would return to his alma mater to inaugurate his coaching career as quarterbacks coach under head Lou Holtz from '92-94. He also served as Notre Dame's assistant head coach/wide receivers coach in '95.

A licensed attorney, Clements worked in the law department of Republic Industries, Inc., in '96, a company controlled by Miami Dolphins owner, Wayne Huizenga. Clements pursued his law degree while playing in Canada and subsequently passed the Illinois bar in '87 after graduating Magna Cum Laude from Notre Dame's School of Law in '86.

Coaching Career: Notre Dame 1992-95; New Orleans Saints 1997-99; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: Notre Dame (J.D. '86, B.A. '75) Born: June 18, 1953 in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Kathe; Children - Stephanie and Tom.

JEFF FISH ASST. STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING 2ND YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Jeff Fish enters his second season as Kansas City's assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2000. He initially joined the club for the '98 season as the Chiefs strength and conditioning intern. The 34-year-old Fish assists Jeff Hurd in the implementation of Kansas City's year-round conditioning and training regiment.

Fish owns a substantial resume of experience on both the collegiate and NFL level as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. A native of Ithaca, New York, he served as a strength and conditioning intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in '97 before joining the Chiefs in that same role in '98.

Prior to entering the professional ranks, he spent eight years as a collegiate weight coach. From '95-97, he served as head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Tulsa after serving a three-year stint ('93-95) in the same capacity at Kent State University. From '91-93, Fish served as a strength and conditioning assistant at Clemson University. During his tenure with the Tigers, he worked with current Chiefs defensive lineman Chester McGlockton and a host of other NFL players including Pittsburgh linebacker Levon Kirkland.

Fish's coaching career began as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Western Michigan from '89-91, where Hurd was the Broncos head strength coach at the time. A collegiate wide receiver at Western Carolina from '86-89, Fish also served one season as a shortshop on the Catamounts baseball squad.

Coaching Career: Western Michigan University 1989-91; Clemson University 1991-93; Kent State University 1993-95; Tulsa University 1995-97; Tampa Bay Buccaneers (intern) 1997; joined Chiefs in 1998 (intern). Education: Western Michigan University (M.S. '91), Western Carolina University (B.S. '89). Born: June 6, 1966 in Ithaca, New York. Family: Single.

JIM HOSTLER OFFENSIVE ASSTAQUALITY CONTROL 1ST YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

Jim Hostler enters his first season with the Chiefs as the club's offensive assistant/quality control coach in 2000. Hostler comes to Kansas City after spending the past six seasons coaching at his alma mater. Indiana University of Pennsylvania. Hostler will be responsible for analysis and self-scouting of the club's offense, as well as the evaluation of video and computer data. He will also be engaged in compiling research on Kansas City's offensive efficiency and tendencies

The 33-year-old coach joins the Chiefs after a successful coaching career at perennial NCAA Division II powerhouse Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), which earned five NCAA playoff berths during Hostler's tenure from '90-92 and '94-99, including a national championship game appearance in '90.

The Bethel Park, Pennsylvania, native spent the '99 campaign as the Indians offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He previously coached linebackers ('97-98), running backs ('94-96), running backs/wide receivers ('91-92) and defensive backs ('90) for IUP. Hostler spent the '93 season as offensive coordinator at Juniata College in Huntingdon, Pennsylvania.

Hostler began his coaching career at his alma mater after a stellar four-year playing career as a cornerback for IUP from '86-89. A four-year letterman, he earned all-conference honors as a sophomore and following his senior year when he led the club with five INTs. During his sophomore season in '87 he was a member of the school's first-ever NCAA Division II playoff team. In total during his playing career for IUP, the school won a pair of Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference championships, qualified for three trips to the NCAA Division II playoffs and compiled a 38-9 record.

Coaching Career: Indiana University of Pennsylvania 1990-92, '94-99; Juniata College 1993; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: Indiana University of Pennsylvania (B.A. '89). Born: November 7, 1966 in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Jennifer: Child - Clint.

JEFF HURD Strength and conditioning 6th year nfl coach (3rd with chiefs)

Jeff Hurd returns to the Chiefs this season for his third campaign as Kansas City's head strength and conditioning coach. A Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Hurd owns 17 years of experience in the health and fitness field. He joined the Chiefs in '98 after spending the previous three seasons ('95-97) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars under head coach Tom Coughlin.

In his position with the Chiefs, Hurd is responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility. He also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain those off-season gains.

The 42-year-old Hurd was already a familiar face in the Chiefs weight room before joining Kansas City's coaching staff on a full-time basis in '98. He worked under the direction of former strength coach Dave Redding for three seasons ('90-92) as a strength and conditioning assistant during training camp and also served as an intern with the Chiefs strength coaches in '93 and '94.

Raised in Parker, Arizona, Hurd served as a four-year letterman on the Fort Hays (Kansas) State baseball squad, earning a degree in physical education in '81. He also received a master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays with an emphasis in exercise physiology in '84, the same year he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength coach for the Tigers. After leaving Fort Hays, Hurd served as the head strength coach for Delta State ('85-86), Western Michigan ('87-93) and Tulsa ('94), in addition to a stint as the assistant strength and conditioning tutor at Clemson ('86-87) before joining the Jaguars in '95.

Coaching Career: Fort Hays State University 1984; Delta State University 1985-86; Clemson University 1986-87; Western Michigan University 1987-93; Tulsa University 1994; Jacksonville Jaguars 1995-97; joined Chiefs in 1998. Education: Fort Hays State University (B.S. '81), (M.S. '84). Born: April 24, 1958 in Pomona, California. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Eric, Austin and Audra.

BOB KARMELOWICZ

DEFENSIVE LINE

9TH YEAR NFL COACH (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his ninth season in the NFL and his 26th overall year in the coaching profession, Bob Karmelowicz begins his fourth campaign as Kansas City's defensive line coach in 2000. Prior to joining the Chiefs staff in '97, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins ('94-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93).

A former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brings a wealth of expertise, as well as a unique and enthusiastic style to his post. Among the many novel coaching techniques utilized by the ever-crafty Karmelowicz is an off-season training regiment which includes the use of the martial arts to enhance the footwork, hand-eye coordination and the leverage abilities of his linemen.

Thanks in large part to Karmelowicz's defensive line, the Chiefs have produced 40.0 sacks apiece each of the past two seasons. The club also stiffened its run defense substantially in '99, allowing 97.3 ground yards per game, an improvement of 19.5 yards per game from the previous season. Those numbers are largely attributable to a number of Karmelowicz's players who stepped to the forefront a year ago.

Chester McGlockton returned to his dominating form in '99, recording a career-high 81 tackles and a team-high 54 QB pressures, the most quarterback hurries by any single Chief since the '96 campaign. Dan Williams returned to the club after a one-year hiatus and produced 5.0 sacks, while 14-year veteran Leslie O'Neal led all Kansas City defensive linemen with 5.5 QB takedowns, elevating his career sack tally to 132.5, tying him for sixth in NFL history along with Lawrence Taylor.

Karmelowicz has also earned a reputation for molding young players into starting performers. After joining the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in '98, Eric Hicks started all 16 games for the club at right defensive end last season. Karmelowicz also played a central role in the development of former Chiefs DT Tom Barndt who started 40 games at defensive tackle for Kansas City from '97-99 after originally being drafted by the club as an offensive line prospect in '95.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in '97, the club's revamped defensive front coached by Karmelowicz was a key element of NFL's stingiest scoring defense. The club racked up 54.0 sacks, the second-highest total in franchise history, a figure which also tied for third-best mark in the league. That pass rush was led by Williams who paced the team with a career best 10.5 sacks in just his first year with the club. The team improved in stuffing the run as well in '97, yielding just 101.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and seventh in the league.

Karmelowicz has traditionally maximized the talents at his disposal, something he has done in his previous coaching assignments. In three seasons with Washington ('94-96), he worked with the likes of tackle Sean Gilbert and defensive end Rich Owens, who led the Redskins with 11 sacks in '96, just his second pro campaign. During his three years ('89-91) coaching the defensive line at the University of Miami (Fla.), he helped produce a pair of top-three overall draft picks in Russell Maryland (first overall in '91) and Cortez Kennedy (third overall in '90). His defensive line was also a key link in a Hurricanes squad which led the nation in total defense in '89 and topped the country in scoring defense in '91.

The New Britain, Connecticut, product began his career in the professional ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93) after spending 16 seasons on the collegiate level. Prior to his three years at Miami, Karmelowicz enjoyed stints at Massachusetts ('80), Texas-El Paso ('81), Illinois ('82-86) and Washington State ('87-88). A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-American nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career under Frank Kush at Arizona State in '75 and went on to spend five seasons ('75-79) with the Sun Devils, where he worked on the same staff with current Chiefs wide receivers coach, Richard Mann.

Coaching Career: Arizona State University 1975-79; University of Massachusetts 1980; University of Texas-El Paso 1981; University of Illinois 1982-86; Washington State University 1987-88; University of Miami (Fla.) 1989-91; Cincinnati Bengals 1992-93; Washington Redskins 1994-96; joined Chiefs in 1997. Education: Arizona State University (M.A. '77); University of Bridgeport (B.A. '72). Born: New Britain, Connecticut. Family: Wife - Olga; Children - Liz, Marissa and Dave.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs finished either first or second in the AFC West nine times ('90-97, '99) in the '90s. San Francisco was the only other NFL team to match that feat.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs led the NFL in turnover ratio four times in the '90s, going +21 in '99, +12 in '95, +18 in '92 and +26 in '90.

AL LAVAN

BUNNING BACKS

18TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS) 3 YEARS NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Embarking on his 18th season in the NFL coaching ranks and his 28th year of coaching overall, Al Lavan begins his second year as Kansas City's running backs coach in 2000. He joined the Chiefs after spending three seasons ('96-98) in the same role for the Baltimore Rayens.

In '99, the Chiefs recommitted themselves to the ground game last season and Lavan's troops responded to the challenge. Despite not having a 1,000-yard rusher and only one back (Kimble Anders) with a 100-yard game last season, Kansas City still managed to churn out 2,082 rushing yards on the year, the league's fourth-highest tally. The club's 130.1 yards-per-game rushing average was even more remarkable considering Anders - the team's starting halfback - suffered a season-ending injury in just the season's second game.

But regardless of who ran the ball, Kansas City found ways to gain yards on the ground in '99 as six different running backs led the club in rushing in at least one game last year, a first in the Chiefs 40-year history. In addition to Anders, that group also included the likes of Donnell Bennett, starting FB Tony Richardson, Rashaan Shehee, who Lavan coached at the University of Washington, and Mike Cloud, who was Kansas City's second-round draft pick in '99.

Prior to joining the Ravens in '96, the 53-year-old Lavan made NFL coaching stops with San Francisco, Dallas and Atlanta. In 15 seasons as an NFL running backs coach, he has tutored some of the NFL's most talented running backs. In addition to his current pupils in Kansas City, Lavan's distinguished list of former NFL runners includes the likes of Tony Dorsett, Herschel Walker, Roger Craig and Priest Holmes, a foursome which produced a combined eight 1,000-yard seasons under his tutelage. In addition to Shehee, he also worked with Oakland Raiders 1,000-yard rusher Napoleon Kaufman during that back's collegiate career at the University of Washington.

A tutor of productive rushers no matter where he's coached, Lavan began his tenure as an NFL running backs coach in Dallas, spending nine seasons ('80-88) in that position for the Cowboys under the late Hall of Fame coach Tom Landry. During that span, Dallas produced a 1,000-yard rusher six times in Lavan's nine-year tenure. Hall of Fame back Tony Dorsett amassed five 1,000-yard campaigns under Lavan, including a career-high 1,646 yards in '81. Herschel Walker racked up a career-best 1,514 yards for Dallas in '88, totaling 2,019 combined rushing and receiving yards that season to become just the 10th player in NFL history to break the 2,000-yard barrier in that department. In '86, Walker also set a Cowboys record for running backs by posting 76 receptions.

After his stint in Dallas, the veteran coach then moved to San Francisco for two seasons ('89-90) where he helped Roger Craig produce 1,054 yards for the 49ers in '89, as George Seifert's club marched to a 14-2 regular season record. In three postseason games that year, Craig amassed another 288 yards and three TDs en route to a convincing victory for the 49ers in Super Bowl XXIV.

In '92, the Pierce, Florida, native began a four-year tenure ('92-95) at the University of Washington where he helped Kaufman become the all-time leading rusher in Huskies history with 4,041 yards. Under Lavan's guidance, the current Raiders runner became the first back in school history to post three straight 1,000-yard seasons, including 1,390 yards and nine TDs as a senior in '94. In '95, Shehee also blossomed with Lavan as his coach, producing the best season of his collegiate career with 166 carries for 957 yards and 15 TDs during his sophomore campaign.

Lavan began his coaching career tutoring wide receivers at his alma mater of Colorado State in '72, before making stops at Louisville ('73) as a receivers coach and at Iowa State ('74) coaching defensive backs. His first pro coaching assignment came as a defensive backs and special teams coach for the Atlanta Falcons from '75-76. He followed that with collegiate stops tutoring running backs and receivers at Georgia Tech ('77-78) and coaching running backs at Stanford ('79) before signing on with the Cowboys.

A collegiate defensive back and kick returner at Colorado State, Lavan was selected in the eighth round of the '68 draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. He also spent two years ('69-70) as a defensive back and return man for the Atlanta Falcons, seeing duty in 24 games for that club and producing five interceptions. A collegiate standout at Colorado State, Lavan earned the Rams prestigious Nye Award, given annually to the squad's outstanding senior athlete.

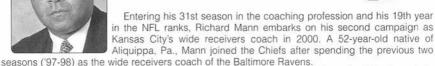

Coaching Career: Colorado State University 1972; University of Louisville 1973; Iowa State University 1974; Atlanta Falcons 1975-76; Georgia Tech University 1977-78; Stanford University 1979; Dallas Cowboys 1980-88; San Francisco 49ers 1989-90; University of Washington 1992-95; Baltimore Ravens 1996-98; joined Chiefs in 1999. Education: Colorado State University (B.S. 768). Born: September 13, 1946 in Pierce, Florida. Family: Wife - Bess; Children - sons Travis and Douglas, with one daughter, Maeleeke.

RICHARD MANN

Under Mann's guidance last season, the Chiefs enjoyed increased productivity from their passing attack boasting 22 TDs, an improvement of seven scores from the previous season. Derrick Alexander continued to prosper under Mann's watchful eye, producing four 100-yard games, the most by any Chief since '84, and becoming the only player in the league to have two of the NFL's 10 longest pass plays in '99. Third-year performer Kevin Lockett set a career-high with 34 catches, while five-time Pro Bowler Andre Rison became just the 12th player in NFL history to break the 700-catch barrier.

Before coming to Kansas City, Mann helped Baltimore boast one of the league's most potent receiving tandems. Alexander produced a career-high 65 catches for 1,009 yards and nine TDs as a member of the Ravens in '97, while teammate Michael Jackson grabbed 69 passes for 918 yards and four touchdowns that year.

But Mann has gotten maximum productivity out of his wide receivers no matter where he has coached. As receivers coach for the N.Y. Jets from '94-96, he had a hand in the development of two of the top young pass catchers in the game today, Keyshawn Johnson and Wayne Chrebet, who combined for 147 catches, 1,753 yards and 11 scores in '96. Chrebet set a Jets rookie record in '95 by grabbing 66 passes for 726 yards and four TDs. He followed that up with 84 receptions for 909 yards and three scores in '96, while Johnson added 63 catches for 844 yards and eight TDs in his rookie campaign.

With the Jets in '94, Mann helped Rob Moore make his first Pro Bowl appearance after catching 78 passes for 1,010 yards and six TDs, becoming the first Jets Pro Bowl wideout since Al Toon in '88. In addition to working with the New York receiving corps, Mann also handled Jets tight end coaching duties in '95, where he tutored first-round draft choice Kyle Brady, currently of the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Prior to his tenure with the Jets, Mann spent nine seasons ('85-93) with the Cleveland Browns, including a four-year stint under former Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer from '85-88. In six seasons ('86-91) under Mann's tutelage, Webster Slaughter hauled in 305 passes for 4,834 yards and 27 TDs for the Browns. Slaughter enjoyed a Pro Bowl season for the Browns in '89, producing 65 catches for a career-best 1,236 yards and six scores. Mann also coached Cleveland's tight ends corps from '89-93, a group that in '89 and '90 included the most proficient pass-catching tight end in NFL history and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, Ozzie Newsome, who finished his career with 662 catches for 7,980 yards with 47 TDs.

Mann began his NFL coaching career with a three-year tour of duty as receivers coach for the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts from '82-84, working under Frank Kush, who was his collegiate head coach at Arizona State. That coaching staff also included Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham, who was the Colts defensive line coach during those same three seasons.

He inaugurated his NFL tenure after spending eight years at the collegiate level, coaching at both Louisville ('80-81) and Arizona State ('74-79). During that time, he helped nurture a pair of receivers who enjoyed considerable success in the NFL ranks, Mark Clayton (Louisville) and John Jefferson (Arizona State). Clayton went on to produce 582 catches for 8,974 yards and 84 TDs in an illustrious 11-year NFL career with Miami ('83-92) and Green Bay ('93), while Jefferson totaled 315 catches for 5,714 yards and 47 touchdowns with San Diego ('78-80), Green Bay ('81-84) and Cleveland ('85). Five of Mann's six seasons ('75-79) at Arizona State were spent working with Chiefs defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz, who was also a member of the Sun Devils staff at the time.

A member of the Aliquippa (Pa.) Hall of Fame since '82, Mann was inducted into the Beaver County (Pa.) Hall of Fame last April. He began his coaching career at his prep alma mater of Aliquippa High School ('70-73) after a serving as a three-year starter at flanker and tight end for Kush at Arizona State from '66-68.

Coaching Career: Aliquippa (Pa.) High School 1970-73; Arizona State University 1974-79; University of Louisville 1980-81; Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts 1982-84; Cleveland Browns 1985-93; New York Jets 1994-96; Baltimore Ravens 1997-98; joined Chiefs in 1999. Education: Arizona State University (B.S. '69). Born: April 20, 1947 in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard and Mario.

TOM PRATT

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE

Tom Pratt, who began his professional coaching career with Chiefs in '63, embarks on his third tour of duty with Kansas City in 2000. Pratt returns to his football home this year, where he will serve as an assistant to defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz. Now in his 34th season of NFL coaching, Pratt is the most experienced coach in the NFL ranks in terms of years of service. Pittsburgh running backs coach Dick Hoak is second, entering his 29th year of NFL coaching this season. Pratt is also the only current coach in the league to own the distinction of coaching with a current NFL team in five different decades - '60s, '70s, '80s, '90s and '00s. He is also the only active NFL assistant to have coached in the American Football League. Entering his 22nd season with the Red and Gold. Pratt owns more years of service with Chiefs than any other assistant coach in the franchise's illustrious history. He is only one of four assistants in team annals to record more than 10 years of service with the club, joining current defensive coaches Kurt Schottenheimer and Darvin Wallis (12 years), as well as Tom Bettis (13 years), who served with the club from '66-77 and in '88.

During his distinguished tenure with the club, Pratt has had a hand in molding some of the finest defensive performers to ever wear a Kansas City uniform and was a member of Chiefs coaching staffs which propelled the team to Super Bowl I and Super Bowl IV. During Kansas City's glory days in the '60s, the Chiefs formidable defensive front coached by Pratt helped lead the club to its lone World Championship in '69, Tackles Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp combined with ends Jerry Mays and Aaron Brown to arguably form the finest defensive front in the AFL's 10-year history. Buchanan, who passed away in '92, was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '80 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '90, while Mays was named a Chiefs Hall of Famer in '71.

In his second stint with the club as defensive line coach from '89-94. Pratt bolstered his reputation for teaching the finer points of playing in the defensive trenches. Even though listed as a linebacker, the late Derrick Thomas played the Chiefs "rushbacker" position in '93 and worked with Pratt's troops on the defensive line. Thomas made his fifth straight Pro Bowl appearance that season as Kansas City advanced to its first-ever AFC Championship Game. Defensive end Neil Smith also flourished under Pratt, recording four straight Pro Bowl berths under his guidance berths from '91-94, while defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua earned first team all-pro honors in '90,

The Beloit, Wisconsin native returns for his third tour of duty with the Chiefs after spending the past two years ('98-99) coaching in Osaka, Japan, for the Asahi Challengers, who are a member of that country's surging gridiron interest, playing in the Japanese X-League. Before serving as a football ambassador to the Far East, Pratt coached at the United States Coast Guard Academy in '97.

Pratt's last NFL assignment came as defensive line coach under Sam Wyche with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in '95. He served in the same capacity with the Chiefs under Marty Schottenheimer from '89-94 after working in the same role for Kansas City under Hank Stram, Paul Wiggin and Tom Bettis from '63-77. Following his initial 15-year stay in Kansas City, he made stops at New Orleans ('78-80) under Dick Nolan and worked eight years for Sam Rutigliano and Schottenheimer in Cleveland ('81-88). A collegiate linebacker at the University of Miami from '53-56, where Stram was an assistant coach at the time, Pratt stayed at his alma mater as a Hurricane assistant for four years after he concluded his playing career. He then coached at the University of Southern Mississippi from '61-62 before joining Stram's staff in Kansas City in '63.

Coaching Career: University of Miami 1957-60; University of Southern Mississippi 1961-62; Kansas City Chiefs 1963-77, '89-94; New Orleans Saints 1978-80; Cleveland Browns 1981-88; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1995; U.S. Coast Guard Academy 1997; Asahi Challengers (Japan) 1998-99; rejoined Chiefs in 2000. Education: University of Miami (B.A. '57), Born: June 21, 1935 in Edgerton, Wisconsin. Family: Wife - Hope; Children - Kendra, Shana and Tyler. The Pratts also have six grandchildren.

JIMMY RAYE

24TH YEAR NFL COACH (9TH WITH CHIEFS) ONE YEAR NFL PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Only a select few coaches in the National Football League are as widely regarded for their vast understanding of the game as Jimmy Raye, who enters his third season as Kansas City's offensive coordinator in 2000.

Raye, who owns a quarter century of experience in the NFL as both a player and a coach, is respected both by his peers and his players as one of the football's brightest minds. Calling upon his vast knowledge accrued during a quarter century in the NFL and during his tenure as one of the finest collegiate quarterbacks of his era, this 30-year coaching veteran brings a unique and broad-based perspective to the offensive game. Innovative, intense and cerebral, Raye has unquestionably earned a reputation as one of NFL's most demanding teachers and one of its most respected communicators.

An incessant instructor of the game's finer points, Raye not only has a keen understanding of offensive strategy, but also possesses a thorough knowledge of the myriad of today's defensive countermeasures. Now in his third season at the helm of Kansas City's offensive attack Raye hopes to build on a '99 campaign which saw the Chiefs post 390 points, the third-highest scoring output in team history and Kansas City's most prolific season in 32 years. Last year only St. Louis (12) and Carolina (8) produced more 30-point games than the seven contests racked up by Kansas City as the Chiefs recorded 36 offensive TDs, the club's highest production in that department since '83. In '99. Kansas City also produced an NFL-high five offensive plays from scrimmage of 70+ yards.

Last season under Raye Kansas City firmly re-established its power rushing attack, leading the league with 521 rushing attempts and coming just 10 yards shy of leading the NFL in rushing. The Chiefs rolled up 130.1 ground yards per game, a remarkable feat considering the club did not have a 1,000-yard rusher and possessed just one back who produced 100 yards rushing in a single game.

But the ground game was not the only area where the Chiefs offense excelled in '99. Kansas City tied with Miami for the NFL lead with a 90.2 scoring percentage in the Red Zone and had the league's fourth-best Red Zone TD percentage with a 61.0 mark. The Chiefs threw for 3,409 yards, marking the first time since '84-85 that the team had gotten more than 3,400 yards in the air in back-to-back years. Kansas City's 22 passing TDs marked a seven-score improvement from the club's 15 aerial scores in '98, while the team hit on 58.9% of its passes, the team's best percentage in that category since '94. The Chiefs also connected on two of the NFL's 10 longest pass plays a year ago.

Now entering his ninth season as a member of the Chiefs coaching staff, the 53-year-old is among the longest-tenured assistant coaches in the league. The Fayetteville, North Carolina, native enters his 24th season of continuous service in the NFL coaching ranks in 2000, his 25th NFL campaign overall. Prior to assuming his present post, he spent five seasons ('93-97) as the Chiefs running backs coach, guiding one of football's most proficient rushing attacks after originally joining the club as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach in '92.

During his tenure as Kansas City's running backs mentor, Raye amassed a significant pedigree of accomplishment. His troops consistently complied with his demands for perfection, ranking as the NFL's third-best rushing attack from '95-97, averaging an impressive 136.0 yards per game during that span. Under his guidance, the Chiefs led the league in rushing in '95, producing an average of 138.9 yards per game as the club produced a 13-3 record and won the AFC West crown. In '97, Kansas City ranked fifth in the league with 2,171 rushing yards with an attack powered by four different backs with over 350 yards, a first in Chiefs history.

Much of that success on the ground during Raye's tenure with the Chiefs can be attributed to the esteemed Marcus Allen, who revitalized his Hall of Fame career in Kansas City under Raye's guidance. With Raye as his position coach during every year of his storied five-year career with the Chiefs, the legendary back posted 932 carries for 3,698 yards and a club-record 44 rushing TDs. Allen closed his glorious 16-year pro career following the '97 campaign as the league's all-time leader in rushing TDs (123) while also ranking second in rushing attempts (3,022) and sixth in career rushing yardage (12,243). Raye is also credited with honing the skills of another stellar all-around performer, three-time Pro Bowl fullback Kimble Anders, whose career was rescued from the waiver wire by the Chiefs in '91.

Now in his fourth stint as an offensive coordinator in the NFL ranks, Raye previously served in that role for the New England Patriots in '90 and held that same post with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in '85-86 and with the Los Angeles Rams in '84. In those previous tenures at the helm of NFL offenses, Raye displayed a penchant for maximizing productivity out of his running backs.

During his tenure as the Rams offensive coordinator, the club ranked second in the NFL in rushing as '99 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Eric Dickerson became just the second player in league history to top the 2,000-yard barrier with an NFL-record 2,105 yards in '84. In Raye's two seasons with Tampa Bay, James Wilder reigned as one of the league's top all-purpose threats, combining for 96 pass receptions and 2,004 rushing yards in '85 and '86. While his work in the offensive backfield is well-documented, Raye also has an extensive background as an instructor of the passing game, serving two stints as Atlanta's wide receivers coach ('87-89, '80-82) and holding the same position with the Rams in '83. In '78-79 he coached the Detroit Lions offensive backs after entering the pro coaching ranks in '77 as the San Francisco 49ers receivers coach.

A stellar collegiate quarterback for Michigan State ('65-67), Raye led the Spartans to two Big Ten titles and a '66 Rose Bowl appearance. He also started in the "Battle of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66 that resulted in a 10-10 tie. Converted to defensive back in the NFL ranks, Raye spent the '69 season in that role for the Philadelphia Eagles before beginning his coaching career at his alma mater of Michigan State ('71-75) and moving on to Wyoming ('76) prior to joining the NFL.

In '98 he founded the Jimmy Raye Youth Foundation, a program which allows underprivileged youngsters to broaden their horizons through golf and other athletic opportunities to which they may not otherwise be exposed. In 2000, the foundation announced the initiation of The Elijah Pitts Award which will be bestowed annually to the NFL running backs coach who best exemplifies the standards set by longtime Buffalo Bills running backs coach, the late Elijah Pitts.

Coaching Career: Michigan State University 1971-75; University of Wyoming 1976; San Francisco 49ers 1977; Detroit Lions 1978-79; Atlanta Falcons 1980-82, 1987-89; Los Angeles Rams 1983-84, 1991; Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1985-86; New England Patriots 1990; joined Chiefs in 1992. Education: Michigan State University (B.A. '67). Born: March 26, 1946 in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Family: Wife - Edwena; Children - Robin and Jimmy III, a former receiver at San Diego State ('88-90), who is currently the Director of College Scouting for the San Diego Chargers.

KEITH ROWEN TIGHT ENDS 17TH YEAR NFL COACH (2ND WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 17th season in the NFL ranks and his 26th year in the coaching profession, Keith Rowen enters his second season as the Chiefs tight ends coach in 2000. Rowen came to Kansas City in '99 after spending the previous two years as the offensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders. During his two seasons with the Raiders, the 47-year-old coach helped rejuvenate Oakland's ground game, as running back Napoleon Kaufman racked up 2,215 yards those two years, including a career-high 1,294 yards in '97, while guard Steve Wisniewski earned a Pro Bowl berth under his tutelage that same year.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Rowen spent three years as an offensive line coach with the Minnesota Vikings from '94-96 and four seasons ('90-93) in that same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. During Rowen's three-year tenure with the Vikings, guard Randall McDaniel earned all-pro honors and started in three Pro Bowls. He was also instrumental in the development of future Vikings Pro Bowl offensive linemen Jeff Christy and Todd Steussie. In '91, Falcons tackle Chris Hinton received Pro Bowl recognition under Rowen's tutelage after receiving that same honor four straight seasons ('85-88) with Rowen serving as the offensive line/special teams coach for the Indianapolis Colts.

While Rowen has a long history of tutoring blocking skills in the NFL, he has also shown a propensity for getting pass-catching production out of the tight end position. During his first stint as as an NFL tight ends coach with New England in '89, Rowen helped rookie TE Eric Sievers from Maryland lead the Patriots in receiving with 54 catches. But by far the brightest pass receiver this veteran coach has tutored is Chiefs TE Tony Gonzalez, who enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons of any tight end in franchise history under Rowen's guidance in '99. A consensus all-pro selection, Gonzalez became the first-ever Chiefs tight end to receive a Pro Bowl invitation after catching 76 passes in '99, the second-highest total by any player in Kansas City annals. Gonzalez's 849 yards were the most ever by a Chiefs tight end, while his 11 TD catches ranked just one shy of the franchise single-season record.

A native of New York, New York, Rowen began his pro career as the offensive coordinator/ offensive line coach for the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers for two seasons ('83-84). He then entered the NFL ranks in '84 as the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns, where he worked with current Chiefs defensive assistant/quality control coach Darvin Wallis.

A three-year letterman as a tackle at Stanford from '72-74, Rowen earned All-America honors during his senior campaign, playing for current Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham, who worked with the Stanford offensive line during the '73 campaign. Rowen then began his coaching career at his alma mater in '75 as the team's assistant defensive line coach, working for Cunningham, who was the defensive line coach for the Cardinal at the time. After a two-year stint ('75-76) under Cunningham at Stanford, Rowen moved to Long Beach State as the offensive line coach for two years ('77-78) before spending the '79-82 seasons in that same capacity at the University of Arizona.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Philadelphia Eagles in '75, Rowen remained with the Eagles until that year's final cut before beginning his coaching career at Stanford. An academic All-America at Stanford, Rowen earned a master's degree from that institution in '77 and also holds a doctorate in athletic administration from the University of Southern California. He comes from a football background as his father, Vic, served as the longtime head football coach at San Francisco State.

Coaching Career: Stanford University 1975-76; Long Beach State University 1977-78; University of Arizona 1979-82; USFL Boston/New Orleans Breakers 1983-84; Cleveland Browns 1984; Indianapolis Colts 1985-88; New England Patriots 1989; Atlanta Falcons 1990-93; Minnesota Vikings 1994-96; Oakland Raiders 1997-98; joined Chiefs in 1999. Education: Stanford University (M.A. '77), (B.S. '75); University of Southern California (Ph.D. '80). Born: September 2, 1952 in New York, New York. Family: Wife - Sheri; Children - Mandee, Holly and Kelly.

MURT SCHOTTENHEIMER DEFENSIVE GOORDINATOR 14TH YEAR NFL COACH (12TH WITH CHIEFS)

Owning 24 years of coaching expertise, Kurt Schottenheimer enters his 14th season as an NFL coach in 2000. He begins his second year as Kansas City's defensive coordinator and his 12th year overall with the Chiefs. He joins current Chiefs defensive assistants Tom Pratt (22 years) and Darvin Wallis (12 years) as one of only four assistant coaches in team history with more than one full decade of service with the club. Tom Bettis (13 years) is the fourth member of that illustrious group.

Before his promotion to defensive coordinator, the 50-year-old Schottenheimer served as the club's defensive backs coach for four years ('95-98). He originally joined Kansas City as the club's special teams coach in '89 and remained in that role for six seasons ('89-94). During the '93 and '94 campaigns, he also took on the additional duties of coaching the Chiefs tight ends. In '99, Schottenheimer also joined Wallis as one of just 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

In his debut as defensive coordinator, Schottenheimer helped return Kansas City to its opportunistic ways on defense which were a key part of the club's success in the '90s. After the team managed just one defensive score in '98, Schottenheimer's troops set a franchise record by producing nine defensive TDs a year ago, by far the highest total in the NFL. Kansas City also led the league with a +21 turnover ratio, while ranking second in the NFL with 45 takeaways, 20 fumble recoveries and 125 points off takeaways. The club was second in the AFC with 25 INTs, as well.

Despite the fact than only Philadelphia's defense (220 series) was on the field more often than Kansas City's (212 series) in '99, the Chiefs rushing defense allowed just 97.3 yards per game, an 19.5 ypg improvement over the previous year. Kansas City also forced opponents to go three-andout 36.3% of the time (77 of 212 series) and forced 98 opponents' punts, the third-highest tally in the league. Excluding opponents' defensive and special teams scores, Kansas City's defense actually permitted just 18.4 points per game in '99, compared to a 20.5 ppg average in '98. The Chiefs also ranked second in the NFL in third down defense, permitting opponents to convert just 30.2% (65 of 215) of their third-down opportunities.

During Schottenheimer's four-year tenure as the club's defensive backs coach, Kansas City's secondary helped the Chiefs allow a meager 16.4 ppg average, which tied for the stingiest mark in the league over that span. Over that same four-year period, the Chiefs ranked third in the AFC in total defense by allowing just 304.5 yards per game and finished fifth in the AFC in pass defense, permitting only 203.2 passing yards per game. The Chiefs also led the AFC in takeaway/giveaway ratio two of those four seasons (+12 in '95, +14 in '97), and topped the league with 21 INTs in '97.

A former collegiate defensive back, Schottenheimer helped uphold Kansas City's long-standing legacy of stellar secondary play as the club's defensive backs coach. Cornerback James Hasty ('97) and former Chief Dale Carter ('95-97) produced four Pro Bowl berths and evolved into one of the NFL's most dynamic pair of covermen under Schottenheimer. Carter earned his fourth straight Pro Bowl berth in '97 while Hasty made his inaugural trip to Hawaii that season, a remarkable feat, particularly when considering the fact that it came in his 10th NFL season. Schottenheimer is also credited with the rapid development of '96 first-round draft choice, free safety Jerome Woods.

Prior to accepting his appointment on the Chiefs defense, the McDonald, Pennsylvania, native headed the club's specialty units from '89-94. During that span, his troops accounted for eight TDs and blocked 24 kicks, including two in postseason play. Kansas City set an NFL record by blocking six punts in '93 and added another in a 27-24 OT win over Pittsburgh in the '93 playoffs. In '90, Schottenheimer was named the co-winner of the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year Award.

In addition to his special teams coaching duties, Schottenheimer coached the Chiefs tight ends in '93 and '94. After Kansas City's TEs combined for just 22 catches, 197 yards and four TDs in '92, the Chiefs tight ends corps responded with 55 receptions, 656 yards and five scores under Schottenheimer in '93. In '94, Chiefs TEs upped that mark to 63 catches for 850 yards and five TDs.

Schottenheimer began his NFL career with two seasons ('87-88) as the special teams coach for the Cleveland Browns. In '88, the Browns kickoff coverage unit was second in the league, permitting just 16.2 yards per return. In '87, Schottenheimer's squad blocked three kicks, including two punts which were returned for touchdowns.

Before entering the NFL ranks, Schottenheimer served as Lou Holtz's linebackers coach at Notre Dame ('86) and held the same post under defensive genius Bill Arnsparger at Louisiana State University ('84-85). Prior to serving a one-year appointment at Tulane ('83), he spent five seasons at Michigan State ('78-82), coaching defensive backs his first two years and outside linebackers his last three seasons with the Spartans. He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator at William Patterson State College in New Jersey ('74-75) and also coached one season ('77) at Ridgefield Park (N.J.) High School.

During his collegiate coaching tenure, Schottenheimer was credited with the development of a pair of All-America linebackers in Carl Banks (Michigan State) and Michael Brooks (LSU). Banks was a first-round draft choice of the N.Y. Giants in '84 and became a cornerstone of New York's vaunted defenses for nine seasons ('84-92), helping propel the Giants to a pair of Super Bowl victories in '86 and '90. He concluded his distinguished 12-year NFL tenure with stops in Washington ('93) and Cleveland ('94-95), while Brooks enjoyed a 10-year NFL career with Denver ('87-92), the N.Y. Giants ('93-95) and Detroit ('96).

The younger brother of former Chiefs and Cleveland Browns head coach Marty Schottenheimer, Schottenheimer was a JUCO All-America quarterback at Coffeyville (Kan.) Junior College, where he led the nation in passing as a sophomore. He moved on to the University of Miami (Fla.) where he was a two-year starting defensive back for the Hurricanes.

Coaching Career: William Patterson State College 1974-75; Michigan State University 1978-82; Tulane University 1983; Louisiana State University 1984-85; University of Notre Dame 1986; Cleveland Browns 1987-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Miami (B.A. '71). Born: October 1, 1949 in McDonald, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Colleen Duffey; Children - two daughters, Steele and Sloane.

WILLIE SHAW ASST. HEAD GOAGH / DEE BAGKS 13TH YEAR NFL COACH (1ST WITH CHIEFS)

One of the most highly respected coaches in the game today, 31-year coaching veteran Willie Shaw joins the Chiefs as assistant head coach/defensive backs coach for the 2000 season. This venerable defensive expert comes to Kansas City after spending the past two seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Oakland Raiders. Shaw has served as either a defensive coordinator or defensive backs coach for 12 of his 13 seasons as an NFL coach.

For the first time in the professional ranks, Shaw will be paired with Kansas City head coach Gunther Cunningham, who also served as defensive coordinator of the Raiders prior to his arrival with the Chiefs in '95. Shaw's relationship with Cunningham dates back 26 years when the duo both served on Jack Christiansen's Stanford staff from '74-76. In addition, this marks the third different AFC West coaching staff for Shaw, who also coached defensive backs for San Diego in '94 when the Chargers reached Super Bowl XXIX.

Regarded as one of the league's finest communicators with both his players and his fellow coaches, Shaw is also renowned as one of the game's foremost coverage experts. In Kansas City he hopes to further the Chiefs legacy of stellar play in the secondary. He inherits an experienced defensive backfield headlined by a pair of two-time Pro Bowl cornerbacks in James Hasty and Cris Dishman. That secondary also includes hard-hitting free safety Jerome Woods as well as talented corners Carlton Gray and Eric Warfield.

Shaw comes to Kansas City after resurrecting a Raiders defense which ranked dead last in the league before his arrival in Oakland. In '98, Shaw inherited a Raider defense which finished the '97 campaign ranked 30th in total defense (382.2 yards per game), 30th in rushing defense (140.4 ypg) and 30th in passing defense (241.9 ypg). In just his first season as Oakland's defensive coordinator, Shaw had catapulted Oakland to the league's fifth-best total defense, allowing just 284.4 yards per game, an improvement of 97.8 yards per game from the year before. In '98, the Raiders also ranked first in the AFC and fourth in the NFL, allowing just 179.8 passing yards per game.

Last year under Shaw, the Raiders ranked in the top half of the league in every major defensive category, finishing 10th in total defense (305.0 ypg), 12th in rushing defense (97.4 ypg) and 14th in passing defense (207.6 ypg). In '99, the Raiders also recorded a positive turnover ratio (+4) for the first time since '89 and finished fifth in the AFC with 33 takeaways.

Prior to joining the Raiders, Shaw served as defensive backs coach for New Orleans in '97 when the Saints ranked sixth in the league in both total and passing defense. From '95-96, he served as the defensive coordinator of the St. Louis Rams after coaching defensive backs for San Diego in '94. He also coached the secondary for Minnesota from '92-93, helping guide the Vikings to the playoffs both of those seasons. He inaugurated his NFL coaching career with a four-year stint ('85-88) for the Detroit Lions, coaching the secondary his first three years before taking over the club's linebackers in '88.

Shaw began his coaching career at San Diego City College from '70-73 before working with Cunningham at Stanford from '74-76. He also enjoyed collegiate coaching stints at Long Beach State ('77-78), Oregon ('79) and Arizona State ('80-84). He returned to Stanford from '89-91 as that club's defensive coordinator, working for current Vikings head coach Dennis Green, who was the head coach for the Cardinal at the time. An All-America cornerback at New Mexico, Shaw played three seasons ('66-68) for the Lobos before embarking on his coaching career.

Coaching Career: San Diego City College 1970-73; Stanford 1974-76, 1989-1991; Long Beach State 1977-78; Oregon 1979; Arizona State 1980-84; Detroit Lions 1985-88; Minnesota Vikings 1992-93; San Diego Chargers 1994; St. Louis Rams 1995-96; New Orleans Saints 1997; Oakland Raiders 1998-99; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: New Mexico (B.A. '69). Born: January 11, 1944 in Glenmora, Louisiana. Family: Wife - Gay; Children - Tawnya, Eric and David. David lettered in football, basketball and track at Stanford and has spent the past two years as an offensive assistant with the Oakland Raiders.

MIKE SOLARI OFFENSIVE LINE 12TH YEAR NFL COACH (4TH WITH CHIEFS)

Entering his 12th season as an NFL coach, Mike Solari begins his fourth campaign in Kansas City guiding the Chiefs offensive line. The 45-year-old Solari joined the club in '97 after spending the previous five seasons as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

In '99, the Chiefs offensive line guided by Solari played a pivotal role as Kansas City's firmly reestablished its vaunted rushing attack. Thanks to the stellar play of the club's offensive front, the Chiefs ground game thrived no matter who carried the ball. Despite having just one running back record over 100 yards in a single game, Kansas City ranked fourth in the league in rushing with 130.1 yards per game and led the NFL in rushing attempts (521). In large part, those numbers were a testimony to Solari's troops who toiled on the Chiefs offensive line.

However, the ground game was not the only area where Kansas City's offensive trenchmen thrived in '99. The Chiefs permitted QB Elvis Grbac to be sacked just 26.0 sacks last season, the fourth-lowest tally in the NFL a year ago. Since Solari joined the club in '97, the Chiefs have permitted an average of just 31.0 sacks each season. Last year that offensive line group was headlined by guard Will Shields who started all 16 games for the sixth consecutive season and earned his fifth straight Pro Bowl berth. Under Solari's tutelage, 10-year veteran Tim Grunhard became the first Chiefs center to earn a Pro Bowl nod since Jack Rudnay in '77, while fellow 10-year pro Dave Szott returned to his familiar left guard slot and a pair of first-round draft choices (Victor Riley - '98 and John Tait - '99) solidified their hold on the starting tackle slots by season's end.

In '98, Solari's offensive linemen captured all of the Chiefs most prestigious individual awards, a major feat considering that the unit saw its line-up shuffled significantly several times due to injuries. Shields was Kansas City's only Pro Bowl selection, while Glenn Parker started at three different offensive line positions to merited team MVP honors and Riley earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award which goes to the Chiefs top first-year performer. Despite an injury which sidelined Szott for the club's final 15 games, the club's offensive front still only permitted one sack for every 16.1 pass attempts, the fifth-lowest ratio in the AFC that season.

In his first season with the club in '97, Solari successfully integrated a pair of new starting tackles (Parker and Jeff Criswell) into the Chiefs line-up while maintaining the team's tradition of excellence in the trenches as the club generated 135.7 rushing yards per game, a 10.1-yard improvement from the previous season.

During his tenure in San Francisco. Solari was largely responsible for assisting in the emergence of Brent Jones as one of the league's preeminent tight ends. During his stay with the 49ers ('92-96). Jones made four Pro Bowl appearances and set a franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 68 catches in '93. As a member of San Francisco's coaching staff in '94, Solari helped the 49ers offense amass 31.2 points per game during the regular season, the sixth-highest tally in NFL history. The club upped that average to 43.7 points per game in the playoffs, en route to a 49-26 victory over San Diego in Super Bowl XXIX.

Solari began his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) where he served as an assistant offensive line and special teams coach. In '89. he joined Gene Stallings' staff as the offensive line coach with the Phoenix Cardinals and then moved on with Stallings for two seasons at the University of Alabama before beginning his tour of duty with the 49ers in '92. He initially embarked on his coaching career at Mission Bay (Cal.) High School in '76, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College ('78) and U.S. International ('79), He joined Boise State in '80 and helped lead the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA championship. After stints at the University of Cincinnati ('81-82) and Kansas ('83-85). Solari spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Pitt ('86) before joining the NFL ranks.

Coaching Career: Mira Costa J.C. 1978; U.S. International University 1979; Boise State 1980; University of Cincinnati 1981-82: University of Kansas 1983-85: University of Pittsburgh 1986: Dallas Cowboys 1987-88; Phoenix Cardinals 1989; University of Alabama 1990-91; San Francisco 49ers 1992-96; joined Chiefs in 1997. Education: San Diego State University (B.A. '76). Born: January 16, 1955 in Daly City, California, Family: Wife - Patti; Children - Tamara, Stephanie and Michael

MIKE STOCK SPECIAL TEAMS

Mike Stock, whose distinguished coaching career includes 11 seasons in the NFL ranks and 27 seasons at the collegiate level, enters his sixth year as the Chiefs special teams coach in 2000. The veteran coach came to Kansas City in '95 after spending three years coaching wide receivers at Ohio State ('92-94). Stock's first tour of duty in the NFL ranks came with Cincinnati, where he spent five seasons ('87-91) coaching special teams, receivers and tight ends for that club, helping the Bengals earn a berth in Super Bowl XXIII in '88.

Since coming to Kansas City in '95. Stock's special teams have consistently ranked among the league's finest. Last season, the Chiefs ranked second in the NFL, averaging 12.2 yards per punt return. In '98, Kansas City was second in the league with a 24.9-yard kickoff return average, the club's best output since the '69 season, while the club's coverage units allowed just 19.9 yards per kickoff return, the team's stinglest mark since '92. When The Dallas Morning News rated all 30 NFL teams in 19 various special teams categories in '97, the Chiefs specialty units finished second behind only Jacksonville. That season Kansas City ranked second in the NFL in punt coverage (6.5 avg.) and tied for sixth in kickoff coverage (20.9 avg.).

Under Stock's tutelage, kicker Pete Stoyanovich has enjoyed some of the best seasons in his 12-year professional career. Stoyanovich, who owns the best career field goal make percentage in Chiefs history (82.0%), has hit 91 of his 111 FG attempts the past four seasons ('96-99) under Stock, Owning a 89.5 FG make percentage (51 of 57) at Arrowhead Stadium, Stoyanovich also ranks as the sixth-most accurate kicker in NFL history, connecting on 80,2% (267 of 333) of the FG attempts in his career. Stock has a new addition in his kicking corps for the 2000 season, as well. Todd Sauerbrun comes to Kansas City after a four-year stint with the Chicago Bears, and is expected to handle the club's punting and kickoff chores.

While Stock has a pair of talented kickers to work with, it has been in the return phase where Kansas City's special teams have truly excelled. Under his guidance the past five seasons, the Chiefs registered eight touchdowns in the return game, getting four scores apiece on punts and kickoff returns. In '99, Kansas City racked up a total of 706 punt return yards, shattering the previous mark of 612 yards set in 79. The Chiefs tied the franchise record with 58 punt returns a year ago and ran back a pair of punts for scores in a single season for just the fifth time in the club's history. Kansas City finished the '99 campaign second in the NFL with a 12.2-yard punt return average.

During his 26 years of coaching at the collegiate level, Stock had a hand in molding some of the finest talent to enter the NFL ranks. Heisman Trophy winner Tim Brown and All-America tight end Dave Casper both worked under the tutelage of Stock at Notre Dame, as well as former New York Giants Pro Bowl tight end Mark Bavaro and 1,000-yard running back Anthony Johnson of the Carolina Panthers. While at Ohio State, he groomed a talented trio of young pass catchers, including Joey Galloway (Dallas), Terry Glenn (New England), and Chris Sanders (Tennessee).

Prior to joining the coaching staff at Ohio State in '92, Stock served four years at Notre Dame ('83-86), where he acted as offensive coordinator in '85. The Barberton, Ohio, native was stationed with the USFL's New Jersey Generals in the spring of '83 after completing five years ('78-82) as head coach at Eastern Michigan. From '75-77 Stock held down the offensive coordinator post at Wisconsin after completing stints at Notre Dame ('69-74), Navy ('68) and the University of Buffalo ('66-67).

A two-time team co-captain as a fullback under Ara Parseghian at Northwestern, Stock led the Wildcats in rushing as both a junior in '59 and as a senior in '60, earning All-Big 10 honors following those campaigns. A knee injury halted his pro playing career with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL, which prompted his return to Northwestern in a coaching role for one season ('61). After three years of service in the U.S. Army, Stock returned to the coaching ranks in '65 at Akron (Ohio) South High School.

Coaching Career: Northwestern University 1961; Akron (Ohio) South High School 1965; University of Buffalo 1966-67; Navy 1968; University of Notre Dame 1969-74, 1983-86; University of Wisconsin 1975-77; Eastern Michigan University (head coach) 1978-82; USFL New Jersey Generals 1983; Cincinnati Bengals 1987-91; Ohio State University 1992-94; joined Chiefs in 1995. Education: Northwestern University (B.S. '61). Born: September 29, 1939 in Barberton, Ohio. Family: Wife - Peggy; Children - Michael, Patrick and Cynthia.

JOE VITT

Entering his 22nd season of service as an NFL coach, Joe Vitt makes his debut as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2000. He joins Kansas City after spending the '99 campaign coaching defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers.

The 46-year-old Vitt hopes to continue the Chiefs tradition of production from the linebacker position and he unquestionably has a capable stable of performers at that position. The Chiefs return '99 team MVP Marvous Patton and vastly talented fifth-year performer Donnie Edwards, who led the team in tackles last season with 143 stops and tied a franchise record for linebackers with five interceptions. In addition to veteran Ron George and free agent signee Lew Bush, the club also possesses a talented pair of second-year performers in '99 Mack Lee Hill winner Mike Maslowski and '99 third-round draft choice Gary Stills.

Turning young players into immediate contributors was the task set before Vitt a year ago in Green Bay and he responded to the challenge. Given a trio of rookie cornerbacks (Antuan Edwards, Fred Vinson and Mike McKenzie) and a starting free safety in just his third pro campaign (Darren Sharper) to work with, Vitt helped the Packers youthful secondary mature quickly. McKenzie, a third-round draft choice, quickly earned a starting spot and led the club with six interceptions and 18 passes defensed, while Sharper paced the Packers with 113 tackles. The development of those performers in the secondary was a key reason Green Bay ranked third in the NFC with 26 interceptions, a figure which doubled the club's '98 total of a mere 13 pickoffs.

But Vitt is no stranger to getting solid play out of the linebacker post, either. Prior to joining the Packers, he served four seasons ('95-98) as linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles. During the '98 campaign, his linebacking corps helped the Eagles become the league's top pass defense, permitting an NFL-low 170.0 passing yards per game. In his first season with Philadelphia in '95, he oversaw the development of linebacker William Thomas, who produced seven interceptions, was named the club's defensive MVP and earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Under Vitt's continued guidance, Thomas returned to the Pro Bowl the following year and received team defensive MVP honors the next two seasons.

From '92-94, Vitt served as assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Los Angeles Rams under head coach Chuck Knox. He joined the Rams after accruing 10 seasons of AFC West coaching experience with Seattle. He began his tenure with the Seahawks as the club's strength coach in '82 before spending the next nine years ('83-91) as Seattle's secondary coach. During that nine-year span, the Seahawks made four playoff appearances as S Kenny Easley and CB Dave Brown each earned Pro Bowl nods under Vitt's jurisdiction.

Vitt originally entered the NFL ranks as a strength coach with the Baltimore Colts under Ted Marchibroda in '79 and spent two more years with the Colts before joining the Seahawks in '82. A collegiate linebacker at Towson University, Vitt played four seasons with the Tigers before embarking on his pro coaching career.

Coaching Career: Baltimore Colts 1979-81; Seattle Seahawks 1982-91; Los Angeles Rams 1992-94; Philadelphia Eagles 1995-98; Green Bay Packers 1999; joined Chiefs in 2000. Education: Towson University (B.A. '78). Born: August 23, 1954 in Syracuse, New York. Family: Wife - Linda; Children - Joe Jr. and Jennifer. Joe Jr. is currently a junior wide receiver at Towson University.

DARVIN WALLIS DEFENSIVE ASST. / QUALITY GONTROL 19TH YEAR NFL COACH (12TH WITH CHIEFS)

Darvin Wallis, a 29-year coaching veteran, is now in his 12th year of service with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. Wallis owns 19 years of NFL coaching experience, all of which have been spent in the AFC. He has also been a member of 12 playoff teams (seven with Kansas City and five with Cleveland), the most postseason appearances of any current member of the Kansas City coaching staff. Wallis joins current defensive coordinator Kurt Schottenheimer (12 years), current assistant defensive coach Tom Pratt (22 years) and Tom Bettis (13 years) as one of only four assistant coaches in Chiefs history to serve more than one full decade with the club. In addition, Wallis joined Schottenheimer as one of only 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

Wallis carries out a myriad of responsibilities in his role with the Chiefs. In addition to assisting with the club's defensive backs, he is also charged with the team's defensive game analysis, where he compiles comprehensive weekly scouting reports on opposing offenses including a complete breakdown of their formations, schemes, concepts and tendencies based on hours of research and video study. Wallis also serves as the club's defensive quality control coordinator where his duties include self-scouting, the organization of computer data, as well as the design and analysis of video cut-ups. He is also responsible for special research projects in addition to compiling the club's comprehensive defensive playbook on an annual basis. Before joining the Chiefs, the 51-year-old Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Marty Schottenheimer with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, the Fort Branch, Indiana, native tutored tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81), served as offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University ('78-79), and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College ('76-77) in Alamosa, Colorado. Wallis began his coaching career at Wilcox (Ariz.) High School ('71) before taking the head coaching reigns at Ajo (Ariz.) High School ('72-75) after playing collegiately as a defensive end at the University of Arizona. Last year, Wallis completed his doctorate degree in Sport Administration from the University of Kansas joining fellow Chiefs assistant Keith Rowen who also holds a Ph.D.

Coaching Career: Adams State College 1976-77; Tulane University 1978-79; University of Mississippi 1980-81; Cleveland Browns 1982-88; joined Chiefs in 1989. Education: University of Kansas (Ph.D. '99), Adams State College (M.A. '77), University of Arizona (B.A. '71), Born: February 14, 1949 in Ft. Terry Bradway enters his ninth season with the Chiefs organization and was promoted to Vice President of Player Personnel in May of 2000, Bradway previously spent the previous three seasons the club's Director of Player Personnel and five years as Kansas City's Director of College Scouting.

The 45-year-old Bradway oversees the Chiefs professional and college scouting operations.

Bradway has helped play a major role in Kansas City's success since his arrival, particularly through the draft. In 2000, the Chiefs tabbed WR Sylvester Morris in the first round after selecting OTs John Tait and Victor Riley the previous two seasons, while TE Tony Gonzalez (D1-97), made his initial Pro Bowl bid in '99. Kansas City '96 draft class featured current starters Jerome Woods and Donnie Edwards.

This Atlantic City, New Jersey, native came to the Chiefs after spending seven years ('86-92) as a scout with the New York Giants, where he was a key member of the Giants personnel department that helped the club earn victories in Super Bowls XXI and XXV.

Prior to joining the Giants, Bradway spent three seasons ('83-85) as Assistant Director of Player Personnel for the USFL's Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars working with Chiefs President Carl Peterson, who at the time served as the Stars President and GM. Over 15 years later, Bradway is fully reunited with the Stars personnel braintrust that helped guide that club to a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, three championship game appearances and two USFL titles. In addition to Peterson, Bradway also worked closely with current Chiefs Director of Pro Personnel Bill Kuharich, who served as the Stars Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel.

Bradway also served collegiate stints at the United States Merchant Marine Academy ('79) and the University of Cincinnati ('78). A former defensive back, Bradway earned three letters at Trenton (N.J.) State and prepped at Holy Spirit High School in Absecon, N.J. Education: Glassboro (N.J.) State (M.A. '82), Trenton (N.J.) hospitality events (VIP and Kickoff Countdown Tents) for both the Chiefs and Kansas City Wizards soccer club.

Spani joined the Kansas City front office after a stellar nine-year playing career from '78-86. Although injuries forced his retirement in '87, he remains the all-time leading tackler in club history with 999 stops, in addition to 9.5 sacks, nine fumble recoveries and two TDs. He came to the Chiefs as a third-round draft choice in '78 after an All-America career at Kansas State. Education: Kansas State University (B.S. '78). Family: Wife - Stacey, with five daughters - Shalin, Taber, Tanis, Sajel and Taris.

LAMONTE WINSTON DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Lamonte Winston begins his eighth season with the Chiefs organization in 2000, his fourth as Director of Player Development. In his previous seven seasons with the club, the 41-year-old Winston served as an area scout in addition to coordinating the team's player development program which assists players in their adjustment to life as a pro athlete and helps prepare for life after the game through continuing education and internship programs.

Prior to joining the Chiefs in '93, Winston served as an assistant coach at Nevada ('90-93) and San Francisco State ('86-'89) in addition to stints at Merritt Junior College and Albany (Cal.) High School. After beginning his playing career at Merritt JUCO, he transferred to Westminster College, where he ranked third in the nation in receiving (NAIA), before moving on to San Francisco State.

A member of an NFL family, Winston's brother, Kevin, serves as Director of Player Programs for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Education: San Francisco State (B.A. '85). Family: Wife - Claire; Children - a son, Cameron Lamonte and a daughter, Alanah.

DALE YOUNG TREASURER/DIRECTOR OF FINANCE

Dale Young enters his 11th year as the Chiefs Treasurer and Director of Finance. A Certified Public Accountant, Young is responsible for budget preparations, accounting and the day-to-day management of the financial operations of both the Chiefs and the Kansas City Wizards soccer team.

The 45-year-old Salina, Kansas, product spent three years as Manager of Finance for Hunt Midwest Enterprises before joining the Chiefs organization. From '83 through '87, he was the Accounting Manager at Intercollegiate Press, Inc., after serving in both accountant and controller capacities with several firms after college. Education: Avila College (M.B.A. '82). Fort Hays Kansas State University (B.S. '76). Family: Wife - Allyson; Children - Michelle and Brittany.

CHIEFS PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA POLICIES

www.kcchiefs.com: In-depth information on the Kansas City Chiefs can be found at the club's official website at www.kcchiefs.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player biographies. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season. We strongly encourage you to visit the Chiefs online, since most of the information you are seeking can be found here.

Home Credential Requests: Only accredited members of the media who cover the Chiefs and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. All requests must be made in writing a minimum of one week in advance of the game and should be directed to Chiefs PR Department at Arrowhead Stadium. (This includes preseason games. DO NOT send credential requests to training camp.) Credentials are confirmed on a weekby-week basis on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges. All field photographers MUST pick up their credentials in person at Photo Will Call on game day. No exceptions.

Road Credential Requests: If you are a regular member of the Chiefs media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest. The Chiefs will then place a credential request to the opponent the Monday prior to a Sunday road game. Please note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

Interview Requests: Assistant Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network television requests. Dan Goldberg handles print interviews and Chuck Castellano of the Chiefs PR staff handles all radio requests. ALL requests for radio interviews must be made via fax, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head Coach Gunther Cunningham is scheduled to conduct his weekly media conference at 11:45 a.m. on Tuesdays at Arrowhead Stadium. (Subject to change based on game schedule.) This briefing is also made available via satellite Tuesday afternoons and on Real Audio at www.kcchiefs.com. Check with Chiefs PR for updated satellite coordinates. Coach Cunningham will also be available immediately following the conclusion of practice on a daily basis at Arrowhead Stadium.

Assistant Coach/Staff Availability: All interview requests for Chiefs assistant coaches, Chiefs executives or members of the Player Personnel Department should be coordinated through Bob Moore or Pete Moris. PLEASE PLAN WELL IN ADVANCE.

Locker Room Policy/Player Availability: During the regular season, players are not available to the media until after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR. The Chiefs locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays). Quarterback Elvis Grbac meets with the local media in the locker room following practice on Thursdays (subject to change based on game schedule). During the week, media access to areas of Arrowhead Stadium other than open locker room, the Press Box, the PR Department and the firstfloor auditorium for media functions is not permitted without prior approval of Chiefs PR.

Open Practice: During the regular season practice is open to members of the local media on Saturdays. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up and cool-down periods. Check Chiefs PR for practice times.

Conference Calls: The Chiefs will make Coach Cunningham and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season. Check Chiefs PR for times.

Radio Actualities: Throughout the season daily broadcast-quality radio actualities are made available to the media. They can be accessed by dialing (816) 920-4319.

Player Appearance Requests: Requests for player appearances should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance to Community Relations Manager Brenda Sniezek. Player availability is limited during the regular season and no requests are accepted during postseason play.

Donation Requests: The Chiefs make a limited number of donations to select charitable causes in the five-state region of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Requests should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance of an event to Janet Feltham in the Chiefs PR department. Such donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 11th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a seven-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Illinois. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus, handles the play-by-play duties for the seventh straight year. Named Kansas Sportscaster of the Year seven times, Holthus served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years and in addition to his Chiefs duties, he is also the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for Fox Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference. Adding the color analysis is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the Chiefs broadcast scene since the club's first year in Kansas City, will also provide expert commentary. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pre-game and post-game comments for the 11th straight season, in addition to in-game sideline updates.

CHIEFS VETERANS

DERRICK ALEXANDER

WIDE RECEIVER - 6-2 - 205

MICHIGAN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1998) NFL: 7 (3RD WITH CHIEFS) BORN: NOVEMBER 6, 1971 DETROIT, MICHIGAN GP/GS:(89/70) PLAYOFFS: (2/2) in the NFL today . . . Enters his third campaign in a Chiefs uniform after signing as an unrestricted free agent with the club on March 2nd of '98 from Baltimore . . . Although relatively unsung outside of Kansas City, has done nothing but produce one big play after another during his stellar seven-year pro career . . . Appears poised for another big season working as Kansas City's starter at the "Z" wide receiver post, where he has excelled the past two years ... Had three of the NFL's longest offensive plays in '99, scoring on catches of 86 and 81 yards, while producing a 82-yard scoring run on a reverse. That 82-yard TD jaunt was the longest rushing play in the entire league a year ago and tied as the second-longest run in Chiefs history ... In fact, Alexander's three offensive plays of 70+ yards in '99 were more than 28 other teams in the league combined for all season (all but Baltimore and Denver) ... Accomplished a rare double-double last year by becoming the first wide receiver and just the third player in franchise history to record both the club's longest run and longest reception in a season with his 82-yard TD run and his 86-yard TD reception in '99. FB Kimble Anders did it in '97 with a 43-yard run and a 55-yard TD reception, while RB Tony Reed was the first to turn the trick in '78 with a 62-yard TD run and a 44-yard catch ... Produced a pair of 1,000-yard campaigns with Baltimore in '96 and '97 and is looking to crack that elusive barrier in season number three with the Chiefs . . . During those two seasons with the Ravens, combined with Michael Jackson for 36 TD grabs, a mark equalled only by Minnesota's Cris Carter and Jake Reed over that span . . . Is simply a threat to score every time he touches the ball meaning the Chiefs will undoubtedly find more ways to get the pigskin in his mitts in 2000 . . . A sure-handed receiver who truly shows his talent once he gets the ball in the open field . . . One of the league's most elusive and exciting runners in space, as evidenced by his propensity for evading some of the game's finest tacklers once he hits the secondary . . . Has scored 28 career touchdowns in three different fashions, scoring 26 times as a receiver, once as a runner and one time as a punt returner . . . An accomplished pass catcher who needs just two catches to reach reception number 300 for his career and is a mere 24 yards shy of the hitting the prestigious 5,000yard barrier . . . Possesses all the skills to perplex opposing defenses with his outstanding hands, impressive strength and the necessary speed to stretch a secondary ... Is equally adept at making acrobatic grabs down the sideline or over the middle . . . Superb size and leaping ability make him a reliable target in the red zone, as well . . . Frequently gets his catches in big bunches with 15 career 100-yard receiving games to his credit (three with Cleveland, six with Baltimore and six with Kansas City) . . . Those six 100-yard games with the Chiefs tie him with Frank Jackson for seventh in franchise history . . . Topped the century mark four times in '99, the most 100-vard receiving games in a season since Carlos Carson had four in '84 . . . Has seen duty in 89 regular season games (70 starts), catching 298 passes for 4,976 yards (16.7 avg.) with 26 touchdowns ... Owns 22 career kickoff returns for 432 yards (19.6 avg.) and 11 punt returns for 171 yards (15.5 avg.), including a 69-yard TD . . . Has also rushed the ball 11 times for 149 yards, with an 82-yard TD . . . Has one career fumble recovery to his credit, as well . . . Started two playoff games for the Browns in '94, posting five catches for 69 yards . . . Is reunited in Kansas City with his college quarterbacks at the University of Michigan, Elvis Grbac and Todd Collins . . . Originally entered the NFL as the second of two first-round draft picks (29th overall) of the Cleveland Browns in '94. That pick was originally a compensatory pick awarded to the Philadelphia Eagles for the loss of Reggie White and was acquired by Cleveland in exchange for the Browns second-round pick in '94 (40th overall) and their second-round pick in '95 (58th overall). At Kansas City (1998-99): After sitting out his first game with Kansas City due to a rib injury in '98, has seen action at WR in 31 straight games for the Chiefs, with 29 starts . . . Has produced back-to-back

54-catch seasons, giving him 108 receptions for 1,824 yards (16.9 avg.) and six TDs with Kansas City . . . Also has two rushes for 82 yards, including an 82-yard score. 1999: Played in all 16 games for the first time in his pro career, getting 15 starts . . . Led all Chiefs wideouts and ranked second on the squad behind Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez with 54 catches for 832 yards (15.4 avg.) and a pair of scores . . . Also had two carries for 82 yards, including that 82-yard TD . . . Produced three of the NFL's 10-longest offensive plays and was the only player with more than one ... Recorded two of his five longest career receptions and led the club with 11 catches of 20 or more yards . . . Joined Gonzalez as two of just 10 players in Chiefs history to own 50 or more receptions in two or more seasons ... Produced six catches for 154 yards and a TD at Chicago (9/12), including an 86-yard TD reception, the longest TD reception of his career, his longest catch as a member of the Chiefs, the longest pass play of the year in the AFC and the fifth-longest reception of the season in the NFL ... Collected six catches for 117 yards vs. Denver (9/19), giving him back-to-back 100-yard games for the second time as a Chief . . . Recorded his first carry as a Chief for no gain at San Diego (10/3) . . . Tallied two catches for 25 yards vs. New England (10/10) before leaving the contest in the second quarter due to a rib contusion . . . Posted two catches for 113 yards, including an 81-yard TD bomb off a perfectly-executed play-action fake from Grbac which sucked in both the corner and the safety, giving him a clear path to paydirt vs. San Diego (10/31). It was the seventh-longest pass reception in the NFL on the year and tied as the fourthlongest grab of his career . . . Missed his only start of the year when the club opened in a two-TE formation at Indianapolis (11/7) . . . Recorded a team-high seven receptions for 41 yards at Tampa Bay (11/14) . . . Tied a career high with eight receptions for 101 yards vs. Seattle (11/21). It was his 15th career 100-yard receiving game, his sixth as a Chief and his fourth of the season ... Tallied two receptions for 20 yards and scored on a career-long 82-yard reverse vs. Pittsburgh (12/18), the longest rushing play of the year in the NFL. It was his first career rushing TD and tied for the second-longest run in Chiefs history with the late Joe Delaney who also posted an 82-yard jaunt vs. Denver (10/18/81) ... Posted four receptions for 42 yards at Seattle (12/26). 1998: Although slowed by a painful rib injury to start his debut campaign in Kansas City, was red hot by the season's end, missing his third straight 1,000-yard season by a mere eight yards . . . Played in 15 games with 14 starts . . . Ranked third on the squad with 54 receptions which went for a teamhigh 992 yards, giving him a career-best 18.4 yards-per-catch average, as well as four touchdowns . . . Was hindered by injuries to start the year, catching just five passes for 69 yards (13.8 avg.) in the club's first five games . . . Quickly heated up over the final 11 games, hauling in 49 passes for 923 yards, including all four of his touchdowns . . . Also accounted for 20 of the club's 42 (47.6%) passing plays of 20+ yards on the year . . . Suffered a costal cartilage injury to his rib cage in a preseason game at Minnesota (8/15), forcing him to miss the final two preseason contests and the season opener vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Started his first game as a Chief at Jacksonville (9/13), grabbing two passes for 41 yards ... First score in a Kansas City uniform came courtesy of Grbac on eight-yard pass at New England (10/11) . . . Did not start, but had a season-long 65-yard catch and scamper vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Made three catches for 76 vards, including his 200th career reception vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Hauled in seven passes for a team-high 91 yards at Seattle (11/8) ... Had the second-biggest receiving day of his career, catching five passes for a whopping 173 yards and a 35-yard TD at San Diego (11/22). Produced four plays of 30+ yards and drew two pass interference calls for 62 yards, as well . . . Recorded the third two-touchdown performance of his career with 15 and 30-yard scoring grabs vs. Arizona (11/29), catching six passes for 116 yards to become the first Kansas City receiver to record backto-back 100-yard receiving games since J.J. Birden in '94 . . . Made six receptions for 97 yards at the N.Y. Giants (12/20), surpassing the 4,000-yard career receiving mark. At Baltimore (1996-97): Spent two seasons in Baltimore after the franchise moved from Cleveland following the '95 campaign . . . Played in 30 games (27 starts) for the Ravens, hauling in 127 passes for 2,108 yards, (16.5 avg.) with 18 scores . . . Added four rushes for 12 yards, two punt returns for 49 yards and one kickoff runback for 13 yards. 1997: Played in 15 contests with 13 starts for Ted Marchibroda's club . . . Chalked up a career-high 65 receptions with a team-leading 1,009 yards (15.5 avg.) to break the 1,000-yard barrier for the second consecutive season ... Also tied a personal-best with nine TD catches, a figure which ranked fourth in the AFC, while his yardage tally put him ninth in the conference . . . Had one punt return for 34 yards along with one carry for no gain ... Posted three 100-yard games, including two in the season's final three weeks ... Recorded a career-high eight catches for 104 yards vs. Cincinnati (9/7), the second-highest reception tally in Ravens history . . . Pulled down five passes for 57 yards and a 22-yard score at the N.Y. Giants (9/14) . . . Recorded the second two-TD day of his career with scoring grabs of 25 and five yards at Tennessee (9/21) . . . Registered two catches for 32 yards and added a 34-yard punt return at San Diego (9/28) ... Caught six passes for 79 yards with one TD vs. Pittsburgh (10/5) and produced those same numbers the next week vs. Miami (10/19) . . . Had three catches for 58 yards with a 13-yard score at Washington (10/26) . . . Recorded his fourth straight game with a TD, catching a 16-yard Vinny Testaverde strike with three seconds remaining at the N.Y. Jets (11/2) to knot the score at 16-16 and send the game into OT ... Did not open vs. Philadelphia

(11/16), but had four catches for 39 yards ... Did not play at Jacksonville (11/30) ... Had a 15-yard score vs. Tennessee (12/14) ... Came off the bench to enjoy a stellar day vs. Seattle (12/7), pulling down six catches for 150 yards, including a 92-yard haul, the longest catch of his career, the longest in Ravens history and the biggest pass play in the entire NFL in '97. That vardage total was the third-best of his career and the second-best in franchise annals . . . Had a five-catch, 111-yard performance at Cincinnati (12/21) including an 83-yard TD bomb from Eric Zeier in that contest, the longest scoring grab of his career. 1996: Played in 15 games (14 starts) in the Ravens inaugural season in Baltimore . . . Corralled 62 catches for a career-best 1,099 yards and nine TDs, including three 100-yard efforts . . . His 1,099 yards were eighth in the AFC, while his TD tally tied for fifth . . . Paired with Michael Jackson to form one of the NFL's four 1,000-yard receiving tandems joining Jacksonville's Jimmy Smith and Keenan McCardell, Minnesota's Cris Carter and Jake Reed and Detroit's Herman Moore and Brett Perriman . . . Caught two passes for 57 yards, including a 48-yarder in the Ravens inaugural game vs. Oakland (9/1) . . . Recorded a team-high six receptions for 67 yards at Pittsburgh (9/8), including a 17-yard TD reception, the first TD catch in Ravens history ... Had a season-long 64-yard TD catch vs. New Orleans (9/29) ... Led all receivers with seven receptions for 105 yards vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/2) . . . Was inactive at Philadelphia (11/3) with a sprained ankle . . . Best outing of the year came vs. the N.Y. Giants (12/4) when he hauled in seven passes for 177 yards ... Started both of the club's playoff games, snaring five receptions for 69 yards in his first postseason appearance vs. New England (1/1/95) . . . Did not catch a pass at Pittsburgh (1/7/95). College: Enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Michigan, catching 120 passes

College: Enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Michigan, Carching 120 passes for 1,909 yards with 21 TDs... Also scored four times on punt returns, tying a Wolverine record ... Finished his career ranked fourth on Michigan's all-time reception list, fifth in receiving yardage and third in receiving TDs... During three of his seasons ('90-92) in Ann Arbor, he was on the receiving end of passes from Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac who was a four-year starter for the Wolverines ... As a senior in '93, led the club with 35 receptions for 621 yards (17.7 yard avg.) and four TDs when those passes were coming courtesy of current Kansas City backup QB Todd Collins... Returned 16 punts for 163 yards and two TDs, becoming the first Michigan player to score twice on punt returns in two seasons (also did it in '92) ... Earned first-team All-America honors as a junior in '92, leading the team with 50 receptions for 740 yards and a career-high 11 TDs... Returned two punts for scores, finishing with 343 yards on 25 runbacks (13.7-yard average) ... Had four TD receptions vs. Minnesota, including three in the first quarter, setting a Michigan record and tying a Big 10 mark shared by Reggie Arnold (Purdue, '77) and Quinn Early (Iowa, '87) . . . Played in only one game in '91 before suffering a season ending knee injury vs. Boston College and was granted a medical redshirt . . . Finished second on the team with 31 receptions for 450 yards and six TDs as a sophomore in '90 . . . Graduated with a degree in Sports Management from Michigan.

Personal: Was a three-time all-league and all-state performer at Detroit's Benedictine High School . . . Won the Catholic League's Male Athlete of the Year Award as a senior after gaining 3,711 all-purpose yards and 16 touchdowns that season ... Was also a three-time all-state honoree in track, winning the state Class B 200-meter title and placing second in the long jump ... Dedicated the '96 season to his late brother, Garrett, who passed away during training camp of that year from lung failure at age 33 ... Switched his uniform number from 85 to 82 when it became available in '96 to honor another brother, Steven, who also tragically passed away and wore 82 as a high school player . . . Formed the "Derrick Alexander Foundation" in '99 which works with Solace House, a home for grieving children and families in the Kansas City area . . . Appeared on Wheel of Fortune's "NFL Players Week" which aired the week of Super Bowl XXXIII, beating out Chicago's Curtis Conway and Carolina's Wesley Walls on the championship playoff show. Won a grand total of $38,150 during the week which will all go towards his foundation . . . His parents John and Marion travel to Kansas City from their home in Michigan for every Chiefs home game. They've attended all of Derrick's home games in the NFL, at the University of Michigan and at Benedictine High School ... Full name: Derrick Scott Alexander ... Fiancee, Kim Bryant and a daughter, Alexis (1) . . . Resides in Leawood, Kansas.

RUNNING BACK . 5-11 . 218

HOUSTON FREE AGENT (1991) NFL: 10 (10TH WITH CHIEFS) BORN: SEPTEMBER 10, 1966

GALVESTON, TEXAS GP/GS: (110/88) PLAYOFFS: (7/5)

Pro Career: Three-time Pro Bowl fullback entering the 10th year of his stellar pro run in Kansas City ... Among active Chiefs, only center Tim Grunhard and guard Dave Szott who both joined the club as draft choices in '90, own more tenure in the Red and Gold than Anders, who came to the club as a free agent in '91 . . . After eight seasons at fullback, switched to the halfback post in '99 and was off to stellar start as the Chiefs featured back before he was felled by a ruptured left Achilles tendon in the season's second game . . . Had produced a career-high 142 yards in that contest vs. Denver (9/19/99) before suffering the injury ... Went down untouched in the backfield as he planted and prepared to take a handoff from QB Elvis Grbac with just 2:51 left in the fourth quarter of a 26-10 win over the Broncos . . . That injury was even more surprising due to the fact that Anders had missed just one out of a possible 116 regular or postseason contests for Kansas City up to that point, a string of durability which dated back to October of '92 . . . Has vigorously rehabbed and is expected to be ready for the start of training camp after participating in the club's off-season strength and conditioning program this spring . . . Is expected to return to the halfback role he began to flourish in a year ago, but can also work as a single back or revert to fullback if conditions warrant . . . Soft-spoken Texan was on the cusp of joining some prestigious company in the Kansas City record books in '99 before his season was abruptly ended . . . Owns 352 career receptions, the best total of any running back and the fourth-highest total of any player in the illustrious history of the Chiefs franchise . . . Needs just 63 receptions in 2000 to surpass Henry Marshall (416) as the Chiefs all-time leading receiver . . . That lofty goal could be within reach this season considering he averaged 64.3 catches per season for the Chiefs from '93-98 ... Before reaching Marshall's mark will need to overtake Stephone Paige (377), Chris Burford (391) and Otis Taylor (410) who loom just ahead of him on Kansas City's career receptions chart . . . Could also join Chiefs Hall of Fame inductees Ed Podolak and Abner Haynes as the only players in team history to rank in the club's all-time top 10 in both rushing and receiving . . . Has 1,930 career rushing yards with the Chiefs and needs 415 yards in 2000 to surpass Ted McKnight (2,344) for the 10th spot on Kansas City's all-time rushing chart . . . Is also within striking distance of Greg Hill (2,436) and Wendell Hayes (2,560) for the ninth and eighth all-time rushing positions, respectively . . . Those impressive career totals were built upon versatility and consistency over the past nine seasons, primarily working at fullback... Developed into one of the AFC's most complete players at that unsung position after entering the NFL with little fanfare as a rookie free agent with Pittsburgh in '90 . . . His hard work and determination were rewarded with three straight opening nods in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl following the '95-97 seasons . . . After missing all but two games in '91 and serving as an H-back in 11 games in '92 became a fixture in the Kansas City backfield as the club's starting fullback from '93-98, but did not hesitate when asked to move to the halback post in '99 . . . Possesses a quiet demeanor, but is still regarded as one of the Chiefs most effective and most proven offensive weapons, whether as a rusher, receiver or a blocker . . . A patient runner who sets up his blocks with precision, making him the club's most productive player on counter and screen plays . . . Despite missing 14 games last season, his 307 catches over the last six years ('94-99) are by-far the most of any Chiefs player over that span . . . Exceptionally soft-handed receiver who paced the club in receptions from '94-96 and in '98, while ranking second in '97 . . . Owns a Chiefs record with five consecutive seasons ('94-98) of 50 or more pass receptions . . . Has posted a daily double of at least one carry and one reception in an incredible 90 of the last 96 regular season contests he's played in . . . Has seen action in 110 regular season NFL contests (88 starts), grinding out 414 carries for 1,930 yards (4.5 avg.) with seven TDs . . . Has accumulated 2,753 yards on his 354 catches (7.8 avg.), snaring nine scores . . . Also has eight kickoff returns for 156 yards (19.5 avg.) and one special teams stop . . . Got just one carry for one yard and seven receptions for 95 yards in his first two seasons with the Chiefs and has since produced 418 carries for 1,835 yards (4.4 avg) and seven TDs, as well as 347 receptions for 2,658 yards (7.7 avg.) with nine TDs over the past seven seasons . . . In seven playoff appearances (five starts), has contributed 21 carries for 70 yards (3.3 avg.) with 19 catches for 188 yards (9.9 avg.) with a 57-yard TD . . . Those 19 postseason receptions rank fourth in team history, while his 57-yard catch is the third-longest reception in club playoff annals . . . Originally signed by the Chiefs as a free agent on March 13th of '91 . . . Entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Pittsburgh Steelers in '90, but was released by the team on the final preseason roster cutdown and did not play with another club the remainder of his rookie year. 1999: Moved to Kansas City's halfback post and started the first two games of the year at that position before going down with a season-ending Achilles injury . . . Started the first two games of the year, carrying the ball 32 times for 181 yards (5.7 avg.) with two receptions for 14 yards . . . First pro start at halfback came in the seasonopener at Chicago (9/12), when he managed 39 yards on 10 totes and got both of his catches . . . Produced a career game vs. Denver (9/19), producing personal highs with 142 yards on 22 carries, good for a 6.5-yard average and a career-long 46-yard run, but suffered a season-ending Achilles injury with 2:51 left in the fourth quarter of the 26-10 win . . . Was placed on injured reserve the following day, where he spent the remainder of the season. 1998: Played fullback in 16 games with 15 starts, producing 58 rushes for 230 yards (4.0 avg.) and one TD . . . Led the team with 64 receptions and finished fourth with 462 receiving yards (7.2 avg.) and a pair of scores . . . Caught five passes for 18 yards vs. Oakland (9/6), surpassing Ed Podolak (288) for the most receptions by a running back in Chiefs history ... Had five carries for 30 yards and a three-yard TD at Jacksonville (9/13) ... ### DONNELL BENNETT

MIAMI (FLA.)

DRAFT (NO. 2 - 1994)

NFL: 7 (7TH WITH CHIEFS)

BORN: SEPTEMBER 14, 1972

FT. LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

GP/GS: (79/13) PLAYOFFS: (2/0)

Pro Career: Bruising power back entering his seventh professional campaign in a Kansas City uniform ... Isn't flashy, simply produces results ... Versatile performer who has started contests at both fullback and halfback, but is probably most effective working out of the club's one-back, two tight end formation . . . Possesses sharp all-around skills as both a dependable blocker and an excellent pass catcher, but it is his smash-mouth running style between the tackles which is his true trademark ... Loves to pound it out, but also has the speed to bounce outside when necessary ... Possesses good vision and picks his running lanes with precision . . . The Chiefs most productive player in the ground game the past two seasons, leading the team with 1,154 yards and a 13 rushing TDs over that span . . . Despite starting only one game in '99, responded by racking up a career high 627 ground yards and eight rushing TDs, becoming the first Kansas City runner to lead the club in rushing in backto-back years since Marcus Allen did it four straight seasons from '93-96 . . . Racked up a team-high 527 rushing yards in '98 . . . Is expected to once again serve as an integral part of the Chiefs offensive attack . . . Has truly come full circle since a late-season knee injury as a rookie in '94 kept him from assuming a larger role with the club earlier in his career . . . Excels at putting games away come crunch time in the fourth quarter . . . Established himself as the club's closer in the final five games of the '97 season, producing 225 yards on 54 carries (4.2 avg.) with one TD . . . Has seen duty in 79 regular season NFL contests with 13 starting nods, recording 492 rushes for 1,878 yards (3.8 avg.) with 16 TDs . . . Along with teammate Kimble Anders, is attempting to break into Kansas City's all-time rushing top 10 in 2000 . . . Needs 467 yards to surpass Ted McKnight (2,344 yards) for 10th place on the Chiefs career rushing list, but will first need to surpass Anders who has 1,930 career yards heading into 2000 . . . That mark could be obtainable given the fact he has averaged 577 ground yards over the past two seasons . . . Also owns 49 receptions for 223 yards and one score, as well as five stops on special teams and three kickoff returns for 51 yards ... In two playoff appearances, has totaled three carries for four yards . . . Was Kansas City's second-round pick (58th overall) in the '94 NFL Draft. 1999: Saw duty in 15 games (one start), leading the team in rushing for the second consecutive season with a career-best 161 carries for 627 yards and a career-high eight TDs . . . Also produced 10 receptions for 41 yards . . . Had 20 carries of 10 or more yards, the most on the club . . . Returned three kickoffs for 51 yards, as well ... Registered 12 carries for 73 yards, including a career-long 44-yard run and a TD vs. Detroit (9/26) . . . Tallied 15 carries for 52 yards and a TD vs. New England (10/10) and tied a career high with four receptions for 12 yards . . . Recorded 12 carries for 40 yards at Baltimore (10/21) ... Produced team highs with 14 carries for 38 yards and one TD vs. San Diego (10/31) . . . Made his only start of the season at RB at Indianapolis (11/7), registering 12 carries for a team-high 64 yards, including a 23-yard TD run on a fourth down play, the longest TD run by a Chiefs RB since Kimble Anders scored from 23 yards out in a 29-23 win at Oakland (12/3/95) . . . Recorded team highs with 17 carries for 60 yards and two TDs vs. Seattle (11/21) and also posted his first career kickoff return for 24 yards . . . Captained the offense at Oakland (11/28), recording nine carries for 27 yards with one TD, catching three passes for 23 yards and returning one kickoff for 12 yards ... Captained the offense, recording 13 carries for 66 yards at Denver (12/5) . . . Captained the offense vs. Minnesota (12/12), collecting 13 carries for 55 yards and one kickoff return for 15 yards before leaving the contest early in the fourth quarter with a right ankle sprain . . . Was inactive vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) due to that injury . . . Recorded five carries for 14 yards at Seattle (12/26) . . . Produced season highs with 20 carries for 84 yards vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Appeared in all 16 games, starting the season's initial 10 games at halfback ... Finished as the club's leading ground gainer, totaling 527 rushing yards on 148 carries (3.6 avg.) with five rushing TDs... Ranked third on the squad in scoring with 36 points . . . Was at his best during the fourth quarter, rushing 29 times for 137 yards (4.7 avg.) and three TDs in the final 15 minutes of games . . . Topped the century mark for the first time in his NFL career vs. Oakland (9/6) with 24 carries for 115 yards, with one TD and a season-best 26-yard run . . . Chalked up 46 yards on 13 carries at Jacksonville (9/13) . . . Totaled 87 yards on a career-high 30 carries vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Gained 87 yards on 19 carries with a career-high three TDs at Philadelphia (9/27), getting scoring runs of one, seven and five yards. It was just the ninth three rushing TD performance in Chiefs history, and the first since Marcus Allen turned a hat trick vs. Seattle (12/5/93) . . . Rushed 17 times for 62 yards vs. Seattle (10/4) before leaving the game with a bruised right hand . . . Got the first receiving TD of his NFL career on a two-yard toss from Rich Gannon vs. Arizona (11/29). 1997: Saw duty in 14 games with one start . . . Made a strong impression when given increased opportunities to carry the ball late in the year, producing 94 carries for 369 yards (3.9 avg.) with one TD to go along with seven receptions for five yards . . . Also had two tackles on special teams ... Missed the first two contests of the year vs. Denver (8/31) and at Oakland (9/8) due to a knee injury suffered in the club's final preseason game at St. Louis (8/21) . . . Had eight carries for 32 yards at Carolina (9/21) and added six carries for 32 yards vs. San Diego (10/16) . . . Carried the ball eight times for 32 yards at St. Louis (10/26), grabbing a season-high two receptions for four yards . . . Ran off eight attempts for 38 yards and rumbled for a season-long 14-yard run vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) . . . Was the team's leading rusher in the final five games, posting 225 yards on 54 carries (4.2 avg.) with one TD ... Gained his lone start of the year for an injured Kimble Anders at fullback vs. San Francisco (11/30), netting 36 yards on seven hand-offs . . . Set career highs with 24 rushing attempts for 85 yards vs. Oakland (12/7). Kept his legs churning on a second-quarter run after seemingly being stopped, bulling away from a hoard of Raider defenders for a remarkable nine-yard TD run . . . Finished out the regular season with 10 totes for 37 yards vs. New Orleans (12/21) . . . Posted his first playoff carries, getting four yards on three attempts vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Saw action in all 16 games for the first time in his NFL career . . . Was the team's fourth-leading rusher with 166 yards on 36 tries, good for a superb 4.6 yards-per-carry average . . . Also caught eight passes for 21 yards . . . Had five games with 20 or more rushing yards ... Produced a season-high 40-yard effort at Seattle (9/15) which included a season-long 34-yard scamper ... Added 32-yard outing vs. Seattle (10/17) in the rematch at Arrowhead. 1995: Spent the majority of the season rehabilitating a knee injury suffered late in '94 and saw only limited playing time . . . Was on the "physically-unable-to-perform" list for the first eight games of the season, was inactive the next two weeks, then played in three of the final six games . . . Finished the year with seven carries for 11 yards and one catch for 12 yards . . . Was activated from PUP on October 31st . . . Played vs. Houston (11/19), at Miami (12/11) and started vs. Seattle (12/24) . . . Did not play in playoffs. 1994: Second-round draft pick was just starting to display his big-time skills when he suffered a season-ending knee injury against Houston (12/18) . . . Finished the year as the team's fourth-leading rusher with 178 yards and two touchdowns on 46 carries . . . Also made seven catches for 53 yards . . . In his final five appearances of the year, he had 31 rushes for 135 yards (4.4 avg.) and one score with six receptions for 38 yards . . . Scored first NFL touchdown on a four-yard burst vs. Atlanta (9/18) ... ### JEFF BLAGKSHEAR

GUARD - 5-5 - 371

NE LOUISIANA FREE AGENT (2000) NFL: 8 (1ST WITH CHIEFS) BORN: MARCH 29, 1969 FORT PIERCE, FLORIDA GP/GS: (111/81) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Mammoth offensive guard joined the Chiefs as a free agent on May 4th of 2000 . . . Sizeable performer who head coach Gunther Cunningham affectionately terms as "a real road grader" . . . Is tough for opponents to get around by virtue of his sheer girth . . . A solid technician who provides added bulk up front ... Can play either guard post, but will likely serve as the top backup to Dave Szott at left guard for Kansas City ... Provides the Chiefs with yet another experienced performer on the offensive line ... Eight-year veteran entering his first campaign with Kansas City after a four-year stint in Baltimore ('96-99) and a three-year stay with Seattle ('93-95) . . . Durable blocker has missed just one game in his previous seven NFL seasons and owns a Ravens franchise record with 57 straight starts in that club's uniform . . . Joined former Chiefs safety Bennie Thompson and kicker Matt Stover as the only three players to see duty in every game for the Ravens in their first four years of existence, a total of 64 regular season contests . . . Is reunited in Kansas City with Chiefs wide receiver Derrick Alexander who spent the '96-97 seasons as a member of the Ravens offense with Blackshear . . . Chiefs running backs coach Al Lavan and wide receivers coach Richard Mann were also on the Ravens staff during Blackshear's tenure with the club . . . Also teamed with current Chiefs cornerback Carlton Gray during his stay in Seattle . . . Has seen action in a total of 111 regular season NFL contests with 81 starts, seeing action at both left and right guard during his career . . . Has opened all 16 games for six straight years after playing in 15 contests as a rookie in '93 . . . Was traded to the Ravens on March 16th of '96 by Seattle, in exchange for a '97 fourth-round draft choice (Seattle traded the pick to Atlanta, who chose Syracuse DT Antonio Anderson) . . . Originally entered the league as an eighth-round selection (197th overall) of Seattle in the '93 NFL Draft. At Baltimore (1996-99): Saw action in 64 regular season contests (60 starts) with the Ravens, working exclusively at right guard. 1999: Started all 16 games at right guard . . . Extended his string of consecutive starts to 57, the longest mark in franchise history . . . Helped pave the way for six individual 100-yard rushing performances (four by Errict Rhett and two by Priest Holmes) . . . Part of a Ravens offense which racked up a season-high 203 yards rushing in a 41-9 win at Cleveland (11/7) . . . Opened his 50th consecutive game at Jacksonville (11/14) . . . Started at right guard in a 41-14 win vs. eventual AFC Champion Tennessee (12/5), as the offense rolled up a season-high 447 yards and tied a franchise record with 41 points. 1998: Started all 16 games at right guard ... Started at right in a 20-13 win at Cincinnati (11/22) as Holmes rushed for a team-record 227 yards ... Started at Tennessee (12/6) and left game briefly after suffering from an abdominal injury, but was forced to return because of injuries to three other starters (Wally Williams, Jonathan Ogden and Orlando Brown). 1997: Started all 16 games at right guard . . . Received a game ball in the club's 23-10 win vs. Cincinnati (9/7). 1996: Played in all 16 games and started 12 contests at right guard for Williams, who was switched to center after an injury to Steve Everitt . . . Part of a Ravens offense which finished the year third in the NFL in total yards per game (357.7), and second in passing yards per game (248.6) ... Helped pave way for a 149-yard rushing performance by Earnest Byner vs. New Orleans (9/29) . . . Did not start at Denver (10/20), but was inserted at right guard after starting left guard Ogden departed the game with a knee injury . . . Started at right guard in a 37-31 OT win vs. St. Louis (10/27) as the club rolled up 478 yards of total offense, including 429 yards in the air. At Seattle (1993-95): In three years with Seattle, saw action in 47 games with 21 starts ... Opened 19 games at left guard and started two contests at the right guard slot . . . Was traded to Baltimore on March 12th of '96 in exchange for Baltimore's fourth-round selection in the '97 NFL Draft. 1995: Saw duty in all 16 games, starting the final three games of the year at left guard . . . Saw the bulk of his action on the club's placement protection squad. 1994: Started all 16 games at left guard ... Joined center Ray Donaldson as the only other player on the Seahawks roster not to miss a snap all season. 1993: Played in 15 contests as a rookie . . . Played the second half at right guard vs. Denver (11/28) . . . Started at right guard vs. Kansas City (12/5) and at the L.A. Raiders (12/12) . . . Took snaps at left guard vs. Pittsburgh (12/26).

College: Spent two years at Northeast Louisiana where he was a two-year starter at guard . . . Was a first team Kodak All-America selection as a senior in '92 . . . Also earned second team All-Southland Conference honors following his senior campaign . . . Transferred to NE Louisiana after a two-year stint at NW Mississippi Community College in Senatobia, Mississippi . . . Majored in Criminal Justice at NE Louisiana.

Personal: Played tight end and defensive end at Westwood High School in Fort Pierce, Florida ... Caught 13 passes for a 28.1-yard average and four TDs as a senior ... Donated equipment for a media center at Baltimore's Institute for Children and Adolescents ... Also visited the Children's Hospital at the University of Maryland Medical System at the holidays ... Nickname is "Big Black" ... Wears a size 5XL shirt, has a 46-inch waist and wears a size 15 shoe ... Full name: Jeffrey Leon Blackshear ... Has two daughters: Jessica (6) and Jocelynn (4) ... Resides in Owings Mills. Maryland.

Games Played/Games Started: 1993 SEA (15/2), 1994 SEA (16/16), 1995 SEA (16/3), 1996 BAL (16/12), 1997 BAL (16/16), 1998 BAL (16/16), 1999 BAL (16/16) — 111/81.

STREAKS AND MILESTONES: Started 57 consecutive games at right guard as a member of the Baltimore Ravens and played in the first 64 games of that franchise's history from '96-99.

TURNOVER TRIPLE CROWN

During the '90s, no NFL team was more proficient in the turnover department than Kansas City, as the Chiefs lead the league in turnover ratio, most takeaways and fewest giveaways. Kansas City had a positive takeaway/giveaway ratio every year of the '90s, joining Philadelphia ('86-95) as the only other club since the AFL-NFL merger to go 10 straight years with more takes than gives. The Chiefs were also proficient in parlaying their takeaways into points and wins. From '90-99, Kansas City produced a remarkable 29-4 (.879) in games when it scored on defense.

TODD COLLINS

QUARTERBACK - 5-4 - 225

MICHIGAN
WAIVERS – BUFFALO (1998)
NFL: 6 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 5, 1971
WALPOLE, MASSACHUSETTS

GP/GS: (28/17) PLAYOFFS: (1/0)

Pro Career: Seasoned sixth-year signal-caller entering his third season with the Chiefs in 2000 ... Has served as Kansas City's third QB each of the past two campaigns and is slated to compete with the venerable Warren Moon for the top backup spot behind starter Elvis Grbac this year . . . Tall, athletic and mobile, owns all the physical tools to become a successful quarterback in the NFL ranks ... An extremely accurate passer who also possesses the necessary natural instincts to perform under fire . . . A true student of the game, is frequently found studying the sport's finer points . . . Has experience as a starter in the league, opening 17 games during his three-year tenure with the Buffalo Bills from '95-97, including 13 starts in '97 . . . Is reunited in Kansas City with former University of Michigan teammates QB Elvis Grbac and WR Derrick Alexander . . . Has yet to take a regular season snap with the Chiefs, but more than proved his merit in the '99 preseason when recorded a team-best 106.3 efficiency rating, hitting 21 of 34 passes for 270 yards and two TDs . . . Owns a strong grasp of Kansas City's offense and showed the ability to make plays in the clutch during last year's preseason slate . . . Claimed off waivers from Buffalo on August 26th of '98, just 10 days before the season opener ... Despite not taking a snap during the '98 regular season, was arguably one of the league's best cut-down acquisitions ... Spent two seasons as Jim Kelly's understudy in Buffalo before taking over the starting reigns for the Bills in '97 . . . Saw action in 28 games (17 starts) for the Bills, completing 284 of 519 (54.7%) passes for 3,218 yards, with 16 touchdowns and 19 interceptions ... Owns a 68.5 career rating ... Completed one of four passes for seven yards in his lone playoff appearance with the Bills in '96 ... Originally entered the league as a second round draft choice (45th overall) of Buffalo in '95. At Kansas City (1998-99): Joined the Chiefs on August 26th of '98 after being waived by Buffalo the previous day . . . Has not seen any regular season game action in a Chiefs uniform in his two years with the club . . . In preseason play with the Chiefs in '98 and '99 connected on 27 of 46 attempts (58.7%) for 319 yards, two TDs and a 94.2 rating. 1999: Did not take any snaps during the regular season and was listed as the club's third QB in all 16 contests . . . Hit on 21 of 34 passes for 270 yards, a pair of scores and a 106.3 rating in preseason play . . . Led the Chiefs back from a 34-27 fourth quarter deficit for a 37-34 win in the preseason finale at San Diego (9/3), hitting six of seven passes for 82 yards on a pair of scoring drives in the final frame. 1998: Did not see any regular season game action . . . Connected on six of 12 attempts for 49 yards in his lone preseason appearance with Kansas City vs. St. Louis (8/28) . . . Listed as the team's third quarterback 13 contests . . . Designated as the squad's back-up quarterback behind Rich Gannon at Jacksonville (9/13), vs. San Diego (9/20) and at Philadelphia (9/27) due to a right shoulder injury suffered by Grbac in the season-opener vs. Oakland (9/6). Did not see action in any of those outings. At Buffalo (1995-97): Took the field in 28 games over three-year span with Buffalo with 17 starts . . . Completed 284 of 519 (54.7%) passes for 3,218 yards, good for 16 TDs and 19 INTs and a 68.5 rating . . . Also saw brief duty in one postseason contest, hitting on one of four passes for seven yards in '96. 1997: Earned the Bills starting job at QB after beating out Alex Van Pelt and Billy Joe Hobert in camp . . .

Saw duty in 14 games, getting the starting nod in 13 of those contests . . . Was true on 215 of 391 passes (55.0%), good for 2,367 yards with 12 TDs, 13 INTs and a 69.5 rating . . . Completed 25 of 39 passes for 299 yards and one TD in season opener vs. Minnesota (8/31) . . . Had a career-best three TD passes and led the team on a pair of 80-yard scoring drives in a 28-22 win at the N.Y. Jets (9/7) ... Completed a 77-yard TD strike on a flea-flicker to Andre Reed for his longest pass of the season at Kansas City (9/14). Had the Bills in position to win the contest at the Chiefs seven-yard line with 0:27 remaining in regulation, but four straight blitzes called by Gunther Cunningham sent Buffalo away with a 22-16 setback . . . Presided over the second-largest regular season comeback in NFL history, leading the Bills back from a 26-0 deficit to claim a 37-35 win vs. Indianapolis (9/21), as he connected on 23 of 38 attempts for 275 yards with a pair of TDs and one INT . . . Completed his first eight pass attempts in a 22-13 win vs. Detroit (10/5) . . . Was knocked out of the game at New England (10/12) with a bruised left shoulder after being sacked by Patriots LB Ted Bruschi on the Bills second series and did not return . . . Re-entered the line-up the next week at Indianapolis (10/20) and led the team to a 9-6 win over the Colts as time expired . . . Replaced by Van Pelt in the third quarter of a 23-20 loss vs. Denver (10/26) and did not play the following week vs. Miami (11/2) ... Returned to the starting post vs. New England (11/9) . . . Led the Bills to back-to-back wins as the starter vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/30) and at Chicago (12/7). 1996: Began camp platooning with Van Pelt for the backup QB slot, eventually landing the number two post behind Kelly by the start of the regular season . . . Saw action in seven games (three starts), completing 55 of 99 attempts (55.6%) with four TDs and five pickoffs to merit a 71.9 rating . . . Got first start of the season vs. Dallas (9/22) when Kelly injured his hamstring during the week and was awarded a game ball for his performance vs. Cowboys after leading Bills to a 10-7 victory over the defending Super Bowl champions . . . Set career highs in both pass attempts (44) and yards (309) in a start vs. Indianapolis (10/6), getting his first 300-yard NFL outing in a come-from-behind 13-10 OT triumph . . . Replaced an injured Kelly vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/24) and hit an 18-yard TD pass to Steve Tasker to seal a 35-10 win . . . Started his third game of the season for an injured Kelly at Indianapolis (12/1) and launched a franchise-record 95-yard scoring strike to Quinn Early ... Relieved an injured Kelly in the final drive of the Wild Card game vs. Jacksonville (12/28) for the only postseason action of his career. 1995: Earned the Bills back-up job in camp as a rookie . . . Played in seven games (one start), hitting on 14 of 29 attempts for 112 yards with one INT . . . Saw first NFL action in the last 1:15 of season opener at Denver (9/3) and completed his longest pass of the season (18 yards) in that contest . . . Appeared late in games vs. Carolina (9/10), vs. the N.Y. Jets (10/8), at Miami (10/29), vs. New England (11/26) and at San Francisco (12/3) ... Started his first career game vs. Houston (12/24), hitting six of 15 attempts for 30 yards in a game which Buffalo carried no playoff implications . . . Did not see any playoff duty in contests vs. Miami (12/30) or at Pittsburgh (1/6/96).

College: Finished his collegiate career at Michigan with the best career (64.3%) and singleseason (65.3% in '93) completion percentages in school history . . . Final collegiate tally read 457 completions on 711 attempts, good for 5,858 yards with 34 touchdowns and 17 interceptions . . . Still ranks second at Michigan in career completions, attempts and yardage behind Grbac (522 of 835 for 6,460 yards), while owning the school's second and third-best seasonal yardage marks (2,518 in '94 and 2,509 in '93) . . . Is third on school charts in career rating with a 145.0 mark, trailing only Grbac (148.1) and Jim Harbaugh (145.6) ... Produced 14 games in which he produced 200+ passing yards, the most of any player in Wolverines history . . . His 2.81 INT percentage remains the second-lowest in team history behind Michael Taylor (2.55) . . . Owns a Wolverine mark for average yards per play (7.04) and is second on the school's charts for yards passing per game at 158.32 . . . Pro Career: Punishing two-time Pro Bowl cornerback entering his second season in the Red and Gold ... Tough, dependable professional entering his 13th NFL campaign in 2000 ... Pairs with James Hasty to give the Chiefs a pair of talented veterans manning the corner positions . . . Joined Kansas City as a free agent signee on May 13th of '99 and proceeded to start 16 games for the Chiefs a year ago at left corner . . . Led the club with 22 passes defensed in just his first year with the squad . . . Cast in the same hard-hitting mold Hasty, who joined Dishman at the Pro Bowl following the '97 campaign . . . Like Hasty, is a physical performer who has made a habit of producing big plays throughout his career ... Responsible for seven career touchdowns, including two in a single game with the Chiefs last season . . . Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after getting a 47-yard INT return for a TD and a 40-yard fumble return for a score at Oakland (11/28/99), becoming the first Kansas City defender to turn that daily double since Chiefs Hall of Famer Lloyd Burruss did it vs. San Diego (10/19/86) . . . In total, has three career scores on INT returns, three on fumble returns and one on a blocked punt return ... Got five interceptions last season, his most since tallying six with the Oilers in '93 . . . Owns 42 career INTs, the sixth-best mark among active NFL players, ranking one pickoff ahead of Hasty, who is tied for seventh with 41 ... Paired with Hasty in '99 to become the first teammates to start at CB with at least 40 career INTs since Pro Football Hall of Famers Herb Adderly and Mel Renfro did it for the '72 Dallas Cowboys . . . Also has returned 16 fumbles for 172 fumble return yards, tying him with Hasty for fifth place in NFL history . . . Both Dishman and Hasty need just two more fumble return yards to surpass Cardinals Hall of Famer Larry Wilson (173) for fourth place on the all-time chart ... Along with Hasty is second among active players on that fumble return yardage list, trailing his former Oilers teammate, Marcus Robertson (179) ... Has consistently ranked in the upper echelon of NFL corners throughout his distinguished career and just continues to keep rolling . . . Enjoyed a two-year stint in Washington ('97-98) after a stellar nine-year run in Houston ('88-96), earning Pro Bowl berths with the Redskins in '97 and with the Oilers in '91 . . . Was one of the key performers for a Houston defense which helped propel the Oilers to six straight postseason berths from '88-93. Is reunited in Kansas City with QB Warren Moon, who quarterbacked all of those Houston playoff teams ... Owns 188 games of regular season NFL experience and is just 12 games away from making his 200th regular season appearance in 2000 ... Durable performer owns 156 career starts and has missed just four games over the last 12 seasons . . . Has started at least 14 games each of the past 10 seasons and has opened all 16 contests five times during that span . . . Has amassed 742 tackles (568 solo), 42 interceptions for 550 yards with three TDs, in addition to 16 fumble recoveries for 172 yards and three scores . . . Also has accumulated 17 forced fumbles, 206 passes defensed, one sack (-9.0 yards) and three QB pressures . . . Began his career as a menace on special teams for Houston, producing 21 special teams stops, a blocked punt, a blocked field goal and a return of a punt block for a score . . . Made appearances in eight playoff contests (five starts) with the Oilers, registering 27 tackles (22 solo) and five passes defensed . . . Signed as an unrestricted free agent with Washington on April 5th of '97 after originally entering the league as the first of Houston's two selections in the fifth round (125th overall) of the '88 NFL Draft. At Kansas City (1999): Started at left corner in 16 games, collecting 84 tackles (54 solo), five INTs, a team-high 22 passes defensed and tied Marvous Patton and Reggie Tongue for the team lead with three fumble recoveries . . . Scored two TDs, one on an INT return and one on a fumble runback ... His five pickoffs were his most since '93 ... Was one of seven defensive starters to open all 16 games in '99 . . . Tallied four solo tackles and two passes defensed in his first contest as a Chief at Chicago (9/12) ... Produced six tackles, three passes defensed and recovered a Terrell Davis fumble vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Recorded six tackles and intercepted a Charlie Batch pass which he returned 25 yards for his first INT as a Chief vs. Detroit (9/26) . . . Posted five tackles and two passes defensed at San Diego (10/3) . . . Captained the defense vs. New England (10/10), producing seven tackles and recovering a

Chester McGlockton fumble on a lateral attempt . . . Captained the defense at Baltimore (10/21) ... Returned an Erik Kramer INT seven yards vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Tallied nine tackles at Tampa Bay (11/14) . . . Collected eight tackles and two passes defensed vs. Seattle (11/21) . . . Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after returning an INT off Rich Gannon 47 yards for a score and scooping up a Derrick Walker fumble and sprinting 40 yards for the game-tying TD in the fourth quarter of a 37-34 win at Oakland (11/28). He became the first Chief to score two defensive TDs in one game since Burruss returned two INTs for scores vs. San Diego (10/19/86). It was just the fifth time a player has returned an interception and a fumble for a touchdown in a game since '70. He became the first player to do it since Arizona's Aeneas Williams on October 31st of '93 ... Recorded an INT off of Brian Griese in the end zone (14-yard return) at Denver (12/5) ... Recorded seven tackles and returned a Gannon interception two yards vs. Oakland (1/2/00). At Washington (1997-98): Played in 32 games during his two seasons with the Redskins, starting all but one of those contests ... Produced the two highest seasonal tackle tallies of his career in Washington (101 in '97 and 93 in '98), giving him 194 total stops (143 solo) during his stay with the Redskins . . . Added six INTs for 107 yards with one score, a fumble recovery, four forced fumbles, 35 passes defensed, a sack and three QB hurries. 1998: Started all 16 games at left cornerback ... Produced the second-highest seasonal tackle total of his career with 93 tackles, including a personal-best 72 solo stops . . . Finished second on the squad with 13 passes defensed, had a pair of interceptions and a forced fumble . . . Registered six stops and a pair of passes defensed vs. San Francisco (9/14) . . . Had a season-high nine stops vs. Dallas (10/4) . . . Best game of the year came in a 28-3 win vs. Philadelphia (11/15) when he tied a career high with a pair of INTs and set a career mark with 60 INT return yards. Returned an errant Bobby Hoying pass 49 yards and ran back a Koy Detmer pass 11 yards to the Eagles oneyard line ... Tallied nine tackles vs. Arizona (11/22) ... Registered six tackles and a forced fumble at Carolina (12/13). 1997: Played in all 16 games at left cornerback with 15 starts . . . Earned his second career Pro Bowl berth after enjoying a sensational season paired with the venerable Darrell Green, who also earned Pro Bowl accolades. That duo was a key reason the Redskins ranked third in the league in pass defense . . . Racked up a career-high 101 tackles (71 solo) in addition to four interceptions, including one which he returned for a TD . . . Added 22 passes defensed, a fumble recovery, three forced fumbles, a sack and three QB pressures . . . Picked off Steve Beuerlein for an 11-yard return at Carolina (8/31) . . . Earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Jacksonville (9/28) after racking up nine tackles, a quarterback hurry and two passes defensed. Also tipped a pass which was intercepted by teammate Marc Boutte ... Second INT of the year came off Erik Kramer at Chicago (11/2) ... Got a pair of interceptions off Jake Plummer at Arizona (12/7), including one which he ran back for a 29-yard TD, the second INT return for a TD in his career. At Houston (1988-96): Spent nine seasons with Houston, playing in 140 games (109 starts) . . . During that span, he produced 464 tackles, while his 31 interceptions still rank as the second-most in franchise history behind Jim Norton (45) ... Also tallied 13 forced fumbles, 12 fumble recoveries and 149 passes defensed ... Produced two fumble returns for TDs, as well as blocking a punt, blocking a field goal and registering 21 special teams tackles . . . ### DONNIE EDWARDS

LINEBACKER - 5-2 - 223

UCLA DRAFT (NO. 4 - 1996) NFL: 5 (5TH WITH CHIEFS) BORN: APRIL 6, 1973 SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA GP/GS: (62/48) PLAYOFFS: (1/1)

2 at Jacksonville (10/12/98)

Pro Career: Incredibly gifted linebacker who is unquestionably one of the most versatile players at his position in the NFL today . . . His exploits as an all-around defensive performer have been well-documented in Kansas City the past four seasons, but the true extent of his talents are just beginning to be recognized by the rest of the league . . . Possesses blazing speed and incredible quickness which allows him to make plays from sideline to sideline . . . Now in his fifth season in a Chiefs uniform appears poised to truly burst upon the national stage in 2000 after posting three consecutive 100-tackle campaigns . . . Enters his second season as Kansas City's starting "stack" (right outside) linebacker after fellow UCLA alum Marvcus Patton took over the chores on the inside a year ago . . . Had previously manned the club's starting middle linebacker post from '97-98, taking over that role in just his second NFL campaign . . . Is adept in all phases of the game whether it means stuffing the run, rushing the passer or dropping into coverage . . . Appears poised for only bigger things after another stellar showing in '99 when he led the squad in tackles for a second straight season with 143 stops and tied a franchise record for linebackers by producing a careerhigh five interceptions ... A very viable candidate to become the next representative in Kansas City's long-standing lineage of legendary linebackers which includes Pro Football Hall of Famers such as Bobby Bell and Willie Lanier, who were the only other LBs in team history to pick off five passes in a single season . . . The first step to joining such elite company would be an inaugural Pro Bowl berth . . . Such recognition could be forthcoming in 2000 should he continue stacking up the impressive numbers he has produced the past three seasons . . . Has racked up 430 tackles since '97, an amazing average of 143.3 per season during his three years as a starter . . . Was the only Chiefs player to record triple-digit tackles for three straight seasons in the '90s and was the first to top the century mark in stops three consecutive years since LB Dino Hackett ('86-88) . . . His 294 tackles in '98-99 were the most by a Chief in back-to-back seasons since LB Gary Spani had combined for 302 with 149 in '80 and 153 in '81 . . . Extremely athletic competitor is a perfect fit for Kansas City's opportunistic and aggressive style of defensive play . . . Scored a pair of touchdowns in '99, returning a fumble 79 yards for a score and returning an interception for a 28-yard TD, as well ... Should get even more opportunities to showcase his skills in 2000, particularly as a pass rusher ... Still has 12.0 career sacks over the last three years despite seeing limited opportunities to chase down opposing signal-callers in his first four pro seasons . . . Despite not possessing the bulk of a prototypical middle linebacker, quickly dispelled any concerns about his size by producing 301 tackles (194 solo) in his first three pro campaigns, as he frequently fended off 300-pound guards and centers with ease . . . Has seen duty in 46 regular season games, missing only the '96 season opener and a '98 contest vs. Pittsburgh . . . Owns 32 starting nods at middle linebacker and has opened one postseason contest . . . In addition to his 301 stops, has amassed three interceptions, 9.0 sacks (-78.0 yards), 18 passes defensed, 34 QB pressures and 15 special teams stops in three NFL seasons . . . Part of Kansas City's stellar defensive draft of '96, tabbed by the Chiefs in the fourth round (98th overall). 1999: Started all 16 games at the right outside "stack" linebacker position, leading the club with 143 tackles (105 solo) . . . . Had a career-best five interceptions, one of which he returned for an INT . . . Those five pickoffs tied a franchise record for linebackers, joining Bell ('68) and Lanier ('75) as the only other player with a quintet of interceptions in a season . . . Those five INTs were also the most by an NFL linebacker since Philadelphia's William Thomas had seven in '95 . . . Also collected 3.0 sacks (-18.0 yards) and two fumble recoveries, one of which resulted in a TD ... Forced two fumbles, recorded three passes defensed and added 17 QB pressures ... Produced five games with double-digit tackle games and was one of seven defensive starters to open all 16 games . . . Picked up a fumble by QB Shane Matthews and sprinted 79 yards for the first TD of his career at Chicago (9/12) . . . Collected a season-high 12 tackles and forced a Terrell Davis fumble vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Produced a sack of Charlie Batch (-2.0 yards) vs. Detroit (9/26) . . . Got his first interception of the year off Jim Harbaugh (no return) at San Diego (10/3) ... Produced a team-high 10 tackles vs. New England (10/10) and snapped Drew Bledsoe's string of 129 straight attempts without an INT when he made a leaping grab of a Bledsoe pass and returned it 15 yards ... Picked off a Stoney Case pass at Baltimore (10/21) and returned three yards before pitching to Reggie Tongue, who returned it 46 yards for a TD . . . Produced seven tackles (six solo) and one QB pressure vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Tallied a sack of Peyton Manning (-10.0 yards) at Indianapolis (11/7) to go along with seven tackles, a QB pressure and one pass defensed . . . Recorded nine tackles and a QB pressure at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Tallied a team-high 11 tackles and two QB pressures vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Recorded a team-high nine tackles and a sack of Rich Gannon (-6.0 yards) at Oakland (11/28) . . . Posted eight tackles and two QB pressures at Denver (12/5) . . . Produced a team-high 10 tackles vs. Minnesota (12/12) and forced a fourth quarter Randy Moss fumble which he recovered at the Chiefs seven-yard line ... Earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) after intercepting a pair of Mike Tomczak passes, the first of which he returned 28 yards for a TD . . . Had a four-yard runback on his second INT and also recorded a team-high 13 tackles ... Posted a team-high 12 tackles at Seattle (12/26) ... Produced eight solo tackles and a career-best three QB pressures vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Started at middle linebacker in 15 contests . . . Was the leading tackler on the club with 151 stops (97 solo) and also ranked second on the squad with a career-high 6.0 sacks (-54.5 yds.) . . . His 151 tackles were the most by a Chief since Deron Cherry had 151 in '88 and were the third-highest tally since the team began officially recording tackles in '77 . . . Had six tackles and one sack of Jeff George (-13.0 yds.) vs. Oakland (9/6) . . . Recorded team-high 14 tackles at Jacksonville (9/13) . . . Tallied a team-best 11 stops, recovered a fumble and was credited with one QB pressure vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Matched a career-high with 15 tackles (11 solo) at Philadelphia (9/27) ... Produced 14 stops at New England (10/11) . . . Missed his only start over the past two seasons after being listed as inactive with a hip injury vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) . . . Notched 12 tackles vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Posted 11 tackles (five solo), a half of a sack of Warren Moon (-7.0 yds.) and two QB pressures at Seattle (11/8) ... Had a six-yard sack of Bubby Brister vs. Denver (11/16) ... Contributed eight tackles, one forced fumble and one QB pressure at San Diego (11/22) ... Posted a team-best 10 tackles and a career-high two sacks of Jake Plummer (-19.0 vds.) vs. Arizona (11/29) ... Tallied eight tackles (four solo) and a half sack of John Elway (-4.0 yds.) at Denver (12/6) ... Registered a team-high 11 tackles and one QB pressure at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) ... Tied a career high with 15 tackles (13 solo) at Oakland (12/26), including a sack of Wade Wilson (-9.0 yds.), 1997; Wrestled the starting middle linebacker post away from longtime stalwart Tracy Simien and produced dramatic results . . . Started all 16 games, totaling a whopping 136 tackles (85 solo) to rank second on the squad behind Reggie Tongue (142) ... Had a team-high four forced fumbles and added 2.5 sacks (-20.0 yards), a pair of INTs, a fumble recovery, 20 QB pressures, 11 passes defensed and two special teams tackles ... Opened the year with 12 tackles and a forced fumble at Denyer (8/31) ... Led the team with a career-high 15 tackles at Carolina (9/21), adding a pickoff of Kerry Collins which he returned 12 yards to set up a Marcus Allen TD run . . . Credited with half of a sack of QB Warren Moon (-10.5 yards) and a forced fumble vs. Seattle (9/28) . . . Enjoyed a stellar day vs. San Diego (10/16), collecting nine tackles, a sack (-4.0 yards), two OB pressures, a forced fumble and an interception off of Jim Everett ... Produced nine stops, two OB pressures and a forced fumble at St. Louis (10/26) ... Recorded 10 tackles, half a sack (-5,5 yards) and recovered a John Elway fumble which led to a touchdown vs. Denver (11/16) ... Teamed with Joe Phillips on a sack of Warren Moon at Seattle (11/23) ... Suffered a sprained thumb vs. San Francisco (11/30), but returned to the game . . . Recorded a team-high 13 tackles, with a QB pressure, a batted ball and two special teams takedowns at San Diego (12/14) ... Started the club's AFC Divisional Playoff outing, recording five tackles and a pass defensed vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Played in the club's final 15 regular season contests, starting one game ... Saw duty primarily on special teams before seeing an expanded role on defense down the stretch ... Finished the year with 14 tackles (12 solo), half a sack and one interception for 22 yards ... Added a QB pressure, three passes defensed and 13 stops on special teams ... Was inactive for the season opener at Houston (9/1) with a shoulder injury . . . ### THE CHIEFS AMBASSADORS

In 1989 several former players met with the management of the Kansas City Chiefs with the idea of volunteering to work with the team to promote good will in the community and to assist in any way they could to help achieve the goal of consistent quality football for the fans of Kansas City. The idea was heartily endorsed by the management and by coach Marty Schottenheimer who actively involved former players while in Cleveland. Since then the Ambassadors have developed into an organization which has been highly successful in achieving its objectives.

The primary purpose of the Ambassadors is four-fold:

- To support the Kansas City Chiefs football team and organization. This support includes VIP entertainment, public appearances on behalf of the team, assisting the staff in sales and public relations, and visiting suiteholders, tailgate parties, and fan gatherings on Gameday.
- 2. To assist the current players by helping them become assimilated into the Kansas City area, locate off season employment or employment once their football career is over, and by acting as a liaison between them and alumni. They also support and encourage the players at home and on the road as only another player can.
- 3. To provide an opportunity for former Chiefs players to remain actively involved with the Chiefs.
- 4. To serve as a goodwill extension of the Chiefs by being involved with the community, charities and the fans. Current events include a charity golf tournament, numerous community speaking engagements, development of a fund to assist former players suffering financial hardship and assisting current players in their charitable endeavors.

The Ambassadors have grown into a close knit group which is recognized throughout the NFL as an innovative and worthy cause for former players. Numerous teams have plans to develop a similar program. The program in Kansas City continues to grow and exciting improvements are underway.

CALIFORNIA
DRAFT (NO. 1 - 1997)
NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: FEBRUARY 27, 1976
TORRENCE, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (47/31) PLAYOFFS: (1/0)

Pro Career: After just three pro seasons, this 24-year-old has already established himself as one of the most exciting young performers in the NFL today . . . Sensationally talented Pro Bowl tight end is unquestionably one of the brightest stars on the Kansas City roster and should only soar to new heights in his fourth NFL season . . . Became the first Pro Bowl tight end in Chiefs history last season, earning a starting spot in that game for the AFC . . . Was a consensus first team all-pro selection, including a berths on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated all-pro squad, as well AP's all-pro unit . . . Is rapidly charging up the club's all-time receiving charts with 168 career catches . . . Needs just 31 receptions in 2000 to surpass Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Fred Arbanas as the most prolific tight end in franchise history. Arbanas recorded 198 receptions in 118 contests, while Gonzalez has amassed 168 grabs in just 47 games . . . Will likely become just the eighth player in franchise history to get 200 receptions, needing just 32 catches in 2000 to reach that barrier . . . Should also break into the franchise's all-time receiving top 10 this season with Todd McNair (186), Abner Haynes (197) and Arbanas (198) owning spots 10, nine and eight on the club's all-time chart ... Established himself as the league's finest tight end with a spectacular '99 campaign which saw him catch 76 passes for 849 yards in 15 games, totals which ranked the highest by any player at his position in the NFL a year ago . . . Among AFC pass catchers, only Indianapolis' WR Marvin Harrison (12 TDs) could top Gonzalez's 11 TDs, which were the most ever by a Kansas City tight end. Carolina's Wesley Walls was the only NFL tight end with more scoring grabs, hauling in 12 touchdowns . . . Those 11 TDs tied as the second-highest total in team history and were the most in 37 seasons, trailing only Burford's 12 scoring catches in '62 . . . Had a touchdown catch in four straight contests in '99, coming one game shy of the team record of five consecutive games with a TD reception shared by Burford and Otis Taylor . . . His 76 catches were the second-highest seasonal tally in team history, trailing only Carlos Carson's mark of 80 receptions in '83 and were by far the most every by a Chiefs tight end . . . The first Chiefs TE to haul in 100-plus passes over a two-year span after snaring 76 passes last year and 59 balls in '98 . . . His 135 receptions from '98-99 were the most catches in back-to-back seasons for a Chief since Carson had 137 in '83-84 . . . Is one of just 10 players in team history and the initial Chiefs tight end to post 50 or more catches in two or more seasons, joining WR Derrick Alexander and RB Kimble Anders as the only other active players on that list . . . In '99 was the first Kansas City tight end to lead the club in catches since Walter White had 48 in '77 . . . Registered 849 receiving yards in '99, the most-ever by a Kansas City tight end ... Has 1,838 career receiving yards, the third-best tally in team history for a TE, trailing only Arbanas (3,101) and White (2,396) ... Enters the 2000 campaign owning a streak of 33 consecutive games with a reception dating back to a contest vs. Oakland (12/7/97) and needs just five straight contests with a catch this season to surpass Taylor (37 games) for the fourth-longest string in team annals ... Single-handedly shattered the team's combined mark for catches by tight ends in a season last year by catching 76 passes himself in '99, breaking the previous mark of 73 catches by all KC tight ends in '97 ... Was a favorite third down target of QB Elvis Grbac in '99, ranking eighth in the AFC with 22 catches for 285 yards in those situations, while his four TD catches on third down tied for second in the conference ... Extremely gifted athlete who is unquestionably one of the league's elite players at his position . . . Endowed with outstanding leaping ability, which, combined with an amazingly flexible six-foot, four-inch frame, permits him to stretch out to make some sensational snags... Can stretch a defense vertically with his speed and takes great pride in his blocking skills at the point of attack on the offensive line . . . Possesses outstanding body control and a fluid running style after the catch . . . Can line-up in a variety of different formations for the club, either on the line of scrimmage or split out . . . Poses match-up problems for defensive backs and linebackers alike with his combination of speed, size and athleticism . . . Has seen action in 47 regular season NFL contests with 31 starts . . . Recorded 168 receptions for 1,838 yards (10.9 avg.) with 15 TDs and a long reception of 73 yards . . . Also used those athletic skills to block a punt in '97 and recover an onside kick in '98 . . . Owns one career postseason appearance, getting three catches for 27 yards and a 12-yard TD in '97 . . . Got hot down the stretch of the '98 campaign when he produced 24 of his 59 catches (40.7%) and both of his touchdowns during the season's final five weeks and carried that momentum over to '99 . . . Moved into the starting line-up in '98 after an impressive rookie campaign in which he won the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player . . . Was a standout in both football and basketball at the University of California and those round-ball attributes are quite evident in his game on the gridiron when he leaps and pivots . . . Ranked atop Kansas City's wish list heading into the NFL's annual selection meeting in '97 and the Chiefs moved up five spots in the first round to select this highly-coveted tight end with the 13th overall selection in a draft-day trade with Houston. The Chiefs obtained the Oilers first-round pick (13th overall - used on Gonzalez) and their fourth-round pick (110th overall - used on Barnes) in exchange for Kansas City's original first-round selection (18th overall - used on DE Kenny Holmes), a third-round pick (81st overall - used on T Scott Sanderson), a fourth-round pick (116th overall - subsequently traded by Houston to New Orleans) and a sixth-round selection (181st overall - used on LB Dennis Stallings) . . . Declared for the draft following his junior season. 1999: Started 15 games at TE, leading the team with 76 catches for 849 vards and 11 TDs . . . Became the first Chiefs tight end to make a Pro Bowl appearance and was also a consensus first team all-pro selection . . . Was inactive in the season-opener at Chicago (9/12) due to a knee injury suffered in the preseason at Jacksonville (8/26) ... Eclipsed the career 1,000yard receiving mark with a 20-yard reception in the second quarter vs. Denver (9/19) ... Tallied seven receptions for 72 yards and a TD vs. Detroit (9/26), getting his 100th career reception in that contest . . . Produced seven catches for 68 yards and a 12-yard TD catch at San Diego (10/3) . . . Posted the first two-TD game of his career with 11 and 22-yard scoring grabs at Baltimore (10/21), leading the squad with four receptions for 54 yards . . . Tallied six catches for 62 yards at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Captained the offense vs. Seattle (11/21), collecting a team-high eight catches for 62 yards . . . Tallied three receptions for 90 yards at Oakland (11/28), including a career-long 73-yard catch and run for a TD . . . Collected a team-high five receptions for 35 yards, including a 10-yard TD catch at Denver (12/5) ... Recorded a team-high six receptions for 63 yards and two TDs vs. Minnesota (12/12) . . . Recorded a team-high six receptions for a career-high 93 yards and two TDs vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). It was his third career two-TD game and his fourth straight game with a score, producing six TDs over that four-game span . . . Posted a career-high nine receptions for 86 yards at Seattle (12/26) . . . Produced a team-high six receptions for 56 yards, including a seven-yard TD catch vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Started all 16 contests at tight end . . . Joined G Will Shields and C Tim Grunhard as the Chiefs only offensive performers to open every contest . . . Ranked second on the club with 59 catches and 621 yards receiving (10.5 avg.) and two TDs . . . Caught at least three balls in all but two games and caught four or more passes in seven of the season's final nine contests . . . Hauled in three passes for 47 yards, including 31-yard snag in his first career start vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Had a season-high seven receptions for 67 yards at Jacksonville (9/13) ... Caught three passes for 31 yards at Philadelphia (9/27) and recovered an onside kick by the Eagles with one minute remaining to preserve a 24-21 Chiefs victory . . . Grabbed three passes for 49 yards, including a 31-yard catch vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) . . . Hauled in four passes for 35 yards vs. Denver (11/16) ... Had a season-long 32-yard reception at San Diego (11/22) ... Caught five passes for a team-high 65 yards vs. Dallas (12/13) ... ### ELVIS GRBAC

QUARTERBACK - 5-5 - 240

MICHIGAN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT: (1997) NFL: 8 (4TH WITH CHIEFS) BORN: AUGUST 13, 1970 CLEVELAND, OHIO

GP/GS: (77/41) PLAYOFFS: (4/1)

Pro Career: Strong-armed signal-caller entering his fourth campaign in command of the Chiefs ... The catalyst of Kansas City's offense who is coming off his finest pro season to date ... Now in his eighth NFL season, appears poised for even bigger things in 2000 ... Still young by pro quarterback standards, should be ready to hit his professional prime after a solid season in '99 ... Throws the ball with authority and has a talented cast of receiving targets assembled around him . . . Added some significant muscle mass to his frame last off-season and that work in the weight room paid off during the '99 campaign . . . Demonstrated his durability by starting all 16 contests for the first time in his NFL career a year ago, taking all but three (1,046 of 1,049) of Kansas City's offensive snaps . . . Was the first Kansas City signal-caller to open every game since '95 and was one of just eight NFL QBs to start every contest in '99 - Green Bay's Brett Favre, Indianapolis' Peyton Manning, Carolina's Steve Beuerlein, New England's Drew Bledsoe, Oakland's Rich Gannon, Washington's Brad Johnson and Kurt Warner of St. Louis were the others . . . Originally joined the club as an unrestricted free agent from San Francisco on March 17th of '97 ... Cool performer under pressure should be even more confident heading into the 2000 campaign after recording one of the most prolific seasons of any quarterback in Kansas City history in '99 . . . Ranked third on the club's seasonal charts after producing career highs in attempts (499), completions (294) and passing yards (3,389) last year, while his 81.7 passer rating was his finest as a Chief and ranked fifth in the AFC . . . Registered 22 TDs, the most by a Chief since Steve DeBerg had 23 in '90 ... Only Indianapolis' Manning (26), Oakland's Gannon (24) and Seattle's Jon Kitna (23) had more TD passes than Grbac in the AFC, however, Grbac had only 15 INTs compared to 16 for Kitna, 15 for Manning and 14 for Gannon . . . Has opened 17 straight regular season games dating back to the '98 season finale, the fourth-longest starting streak among active NFL QBs. Only Favre (125), Manning (32) and Beuerlein (28) have started more straight games than Grbac ... After just three seasons in a Chiefs uniform, already ranks sixth on the team's all-chart passing chart with 6,473 yards and needs just 17 more yards to surpass Steve Bono (6,489) for the fifth position . . . His 59.7 completion percentage last season was the best by a Kansas City QB since '96 . . . Is 25-16 (.610) as a NFL starter (19-13 with Kansas City and 6-3 with San Francisco), ranking fifth among active QBs with 40 or more starts entering the 2000 season ... Was particularly effective on third down a year ago, producing an AFC-best 61.0 completion percentage on those downs . . . Also ranked second in the AFC with an 89.3 third down rating . . . Completed his first injury-free season in Kansas City last year after a broken clavicle in '97 and an injured shoulder in '98 kept him sidelined for a total of 10 contests . . . A true perfectionist who combines incessant preparation and constant focus with his outstanding athletic attributes . . . Takes extreme pride in being the best at his craft, attributing his tireless work ethic to his Croatian roots, particularly his parents Ivan and Cecilia who immigrated to the United States in '68. Father, Ivan often worked two jobs to support the family ... Particularly effective as a classic drop-back passer. possessing exceptional accuracy on long balls as evidenced by his four completions of 70-plus yards in '99 . . . Was the only NFL quarterback to boast three of the NFL's 10-longest completions last year, with all three going for TDs to his former University of Michigan teammate, WR Derrick Alexander . . . Surprisingly mobile for his size, frequently shaking off would-be sackers to scramble for first downs ... Often makes some of his best throws improvising out of the pocket and will be given more opportunities to move around in 2000 . . . Has a history of success on both the pro and collegiate levels with a combined starting record of 55-21-3, good for an impressive .696 winning percentage: 25-16 (.610) in the NFL and 30-5-3 (.829) at Michigan . . . Has seen duty in 77 games with 41 starts, hitting on 855 of 1,431 passes for an impressive 59.7 completion percentage . . . Has tallied 9,572 aerial yards to go along with 56 TDs and 49 INTs, good for a 78.6 rating . . . Also has amassed 112 rushing attempts for 260 yards and five touchdowns . . . Owns four career playoff appearances (one start), totaling 432 yards on 45-of-78 passing with two TDs and one INT along with 13 carries for 49 yards on the ground . . . Came to Kansas City after a four-year stint with San Francisco, where he served as Steve Young's back-up his final three seasons with the 49ers . . . In the 14 games which he replaced or started for an injured Young, the 49ers went 10-4 (.714) . . . San Francisco was also 20-7 (.741) in games where Grbac attempted at least one pass . . . Followed a pair of other former 49ers QBs (Joe Montana and Steve Bono) to Kansas City who went 48-16 (.750) in a lead role with the Chiefs . . . Originally entered the league as an eighth-round draft pick (219th overall) of San Francisco in '93. At Kansas City (1997-99): In three seasons with the Chiefs has seen duty in 34 games with 32 starts, completing 571 of 1,001 passes (57.0%), good for 6,474 yards, 38 TDs, 33 INTs and a 75.5 rating ... Also has produced 56 carries for 205 yards and one touchdown ... Started one postseason contest for the club in '97, hitting 24 of 37 passes for 260 yards and one TD to go with four carries for 22 yards. 1999: Started all 16 games, completing 294 of 499 passes (59.7%) for 3,389 yards with 22 TDs and 15 INTs, good for an 81.7 rating . . . Attempt, completion and yardage totals were all the third-highest single-season marks in team history, while his career-best 22 touchdown tosses were the most by a Chiefs QB since Steve DeBerg had 23 in '90 . . . Also produced 19 carries for 10 yards . . . His 81.7 QB rating ranked fifth in the AFC . . . Ranked second in the AFC with a 89.3 rating on third down, and posted an AFC-best 61.0 third down completion percentage . . . Completed 20 of 42 passes for 283 yards with one TD and one INT at Chicago (9/12), including an 86-yard TD pass to Alexander. That 86-yard play was the longest completion of his career, the fifthlongest completion in the NFL in '99 and tied as the sixth-longest completion in Chiefs history . . . Hit on 20 of 29 passes for 235 yards and two TDs vs. Detroit (9/26), with his 1,000th career attempt resulting in a 15-yard TD strike to TE Tony Gonzalez . . . Set a dubious career-high with four INTs at San Diego (10/10) . . . Had a season-long run of eight yards at Baltimore (10/21) . . . Completed 11 of 15 passes for 194 yards vs. San Diego (10/31), including an 81-yard TD strike to Alexander off on a exquisitely-executed play-action fake. His 73.3% completion rate was his second-highest singlegame completion percentage as a Chief . . . Suffered a back contusion on the game's final drive at Indianapolis (11/7) and missed the his only three snaps of the season . . . Attempted a career-high 49 passes, connecting on 30 of those passes for 320 yards vs. Seattle (11/21). It was his fifth career 300yard passing game and his second as a Chief . . . Connected on 18 of 27 passes for 226 yards at Oakland (11/28), including the fifth-longest pass of his career, a 76-yard TD pass to Tony Gonzalez ... Completed 19 of 29 passes for 215 yards and two TDs vs. Minnesota (12/12) ... Hit on 22 of 44 passes for 254 yards with two TDs at Seattle (12/26), including a 76-yard TD bomb to Joe Horn, the fourth-longest pass of his career ... Completed 20 of 39 passes for 243 yards and three TDs vs. Oakland (1/2/00), including a 39-yard TD strike to Kevin Lockett. 1998: Captained the Chiefs offense along with guard Dave Szott . . . NOTRE DAME

NFL: 11 (11TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: MAY 17, 1968
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS
GP/GS: (154/149) PLAYOFFS: (10/10)

Pro Career: The bold and brawny anchor of Kansas City's formidable offensive line is back for yet another season as the club's starting center . . . Is coming off a Pro Bowl campaign in '99, the first of his illustrious NFL career ... Was finally recognized as one of the finest players at his position after somehow being overlooked for the league's all-star game his first nine pro seasons ... Became the first Kansas City center to make a Pro Bowl appearance since Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Jack Rudnay did it following the '77 season . . . Was a key reason Kansas City led the NFL in rushing attempts in '99 and ranked fourth in the NFL with 2,082 rushing yards . . . Cut out of the same rugged mold as Rudnay and E.J. Holub, the two most storied centers in Chiefs history . . . In addition to his intimidating on-field presence, is also one of Kansas City's most vocal leaders and motivators in the locker room . . . Combines brute strength and veteran savvy as one of the most dominating centers in the game today ... His effort and intensity were previously rewarded with selections to the "All-Madden" Team and USA Today's "All-Joe" Squad before getting a Pro Bowl nod a year ago ... Now entering his 11th season with the Chiefs, joins guard Dave Szott as the longest-tenured player currently on the team's roster . . . His 154 career games in the Red and Gold are the most of any active Chief ... His streak of 112 consecutive starts in a Kansas City uniform dating back to the '93 season-opener is also the best mark of any current player . . . Will need to play 27 more games to break into the franchise's all-time top five in terms of service to the club. Should he play in all 32 games the next two seasons, would tie Pro Football Hall of Fame kicker Jan Stenerud (186 games) for third place on the club's career service chart. A pair of other Hall of Fame inductees are fourth and fifth on that list - quarterback Len Dawson (182) and defensive tackle Buck Buchanan (181) . . . Has been the pillar of Kansas City's esteemed offensive front throughout the past 10 years, holding down the club's starting post at center since his rookie campaign in '90 . . . Joined Szott and Derrick Thomas as just three of only 26 players in NFL history to be on a club's roster for 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City rolled up a 102-58 regular season record during the '90s . . . Started all 10 of the Chiefs playoff contests since '90, tying the team record for postseason appearances shared by John Alt, Szott and Thomas ... Battled through a host of injuries in '99, but still managed to start all 16 games for the seventh consecutive year ... Underwent knee and elbow surgeries in the off-season, but should be ready for full action by training camp in 2000 . . . Served as an offensive guard in high school and college, but quickly adapted to his new responsibilities as a rookie when he inherited the starting center position from Hall of Fame center, Mike Webster . . . Took over the starting role from Webster in just the third game of his rookie year in '90 . . . Has spearheaded a Chiefs offensive line which has helped the Kansas City offense rank among the NFL's top five rushing teams four of the past five seasons . . . Also a key reason the Chiefs permitted 22 or fewer sacks four times during the '90s, including a franchiselow 19 QB takedowns in '94 . . . Originally entered the NFL as a second-round pick (40th overall) of the Chiefs in '90. 1999: Started all 16 games at center for a seventh straight year . . . Was named to his first Pro Bowl, becoming the first Chiefs center to play in that game since '77 . . . Served as a major contributor to a Chiefs offense that ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing in '99, averaging 130.1 yards per game . . . Helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourthlowest total in the league ... Served as the club's offensive captain at Chicago (9/12) ... Started his 100th consecutive game at center at San Diego (10/3). Left the game in the second guarter due to a strained right hamstring, but returned to start the second half . . . Suffered a bruised right hip on the last play of the third quarter and left the game early at Denver (12/5), his 150th NFL contest ... Captained the offense along with Szott and started his 112th consecutive game at center vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Opened 16 games at center for the sixth consecutive season despite undergoing surgery on his right elbow in late August . . . Joined Will Shields and Tony Gonzalez as the club's only offensive players to start every game . . . Helped pave the way for Donnell Bennett's 115-yard rushing effort vs. Oakland (9/6) . . . Part of a Chiefs offense which racked up a season-high 376 yards of total offense vs. Arizona (11/29) . . . Helped spring Bam Morris for 137 yards vs. Dallas (12/13), the best single-game rushing output by a Chiefs RB since '91 ... Started his 96th straight game at Oakland (12/26). 1997: Opened all 16 contests at center and was named to USA Today's "All-Joe" team which annually recognizes the NFL's best blue-collar players . . . Received his first berth on the All-Madden Team, as well . . . Helped Kansas City pound out 135.7 yards per game on the ground, a figure which ranked fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL . . . Paved the way for four different Chiefs RBs (Greg Hill, Marcus Allen, Kimble Anders and Donnell Bennett) who each topped the 350-yard mark, a first in Chiefs history . . . Started his 10th career playoff contest for the Chiefs vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Served as co-captain of the Kansas City offense, starting all 16 games for the fourth consecutive season . . . Did not miss a single play at the center position ... Made his 100th career NFL appearance vs. Green Bay (11/10) and opened the 100th game of his career vs. Indianapolis (12/15) ... Helped the Chiefs rack up 2,009 yards on the ground, the fourth-best mark in the entire NFL in '96. 1995: Unquestionably one of the key contributors on a talented Chiefs offense . . . Started all 16 regular season games for the third consecutive season ... Led one of the most cohesive offensive fronts in all of football which created plenty of room for the Chiefs league-leading ground game (138.9 yards-per-game avg.) . . . Turned bull rushes into a bear market, limiting opposing defenses to a mere 21 sacks, the lowest tally in the AFC, the thirdlowest mark in the NFL, and the second-stingiest total in team annals. . . Opened the playoff tilt vs. Indianapolis (1/7/96), as well. 1994: Continued to play at an all-pro level . . . Started all 16 games for the third time in last four years . . . Joined Dave Szott and Will Shields as the only three offensive players to start all 16 contests... Anchor of offensive front that allowed just 19 sacks, fewest in Chiefs history and third-fewest in the NFL ... Opened the Chiefs playoff loss at Miami (12/31). 1993: Was steady as always during the Chiefs first-ever run to the AFC Championship Game . . . Was an honorable mention All-NFL pick of Associated Press . . . Started all 16 games and missed very few snaps . . . He and left tackle John Alt were the team's only two offensive linemen to open all 16 games . . . Was the anchor of a unit that got better as the season progressed, as the team allowed just six sacks the final six games . . . Started all three playoff contests. 1992: Was the Chiefs most consistent lineman in '92 . . . Started the first 12 games of the season before suffering a sprained foot at N.Y. Jets (11/29) ... Was inactive for the final four regular season games ... Started Kansas City's playoff loss at San Diego (1/2/93). 1991: Was the Chiefs most consistent offensive lineman in '91 . . . Started all 16 regular season games and both playoff tilts . . . Kansas City permitted just 21 sacks in '91, fewest in AFC and third-fewest in NFL ... Helped Chiefs average 4.3 yards per carry, team's best since '87. 1990: Named to Pro Football Weekly's and The National's all-rookie squads . . . Opened nine of the 14 games he played in . . . Missed one game because of a thumb injury and another because of a death in the family. . . Although Mike Webster started the first two games, Grunhard played in all but three offensive series in those two games ... Started the Chiefs playoff contest at Miami (1/5/91) ... Excelled as a rookie center, although he never played the position in high school or college; did deep snap at Notre Dame.

College: Was a force on an offensive line that helped Notre Dame generate a 24-1 record during his junior and senior years . . . Started at right guard final two seasons, including Notre Dame's '88 National Championship campaign . . . Was a second team All-America pick by NEA and an honorable mention choice of UPI, The Sporting News and Football News . . . Played in every game as a sophomore and made four starts at left guard . . . Handled the Irish deep snapping chores all four years . . Irish coach Lou Holtz said: "Tim's a throwback to a day when helmets could be folded up and stuck in your back pocket. He'd love football even if he didn't have a facemask." . . . Graduated from Notre Dame with a degree in Political Science.

Personal: Was a first team All-Chicago Catholic League offensive guard at St. Laurence High School in Burbank, Illinois . . . Earned two letters in track and baseball . . . Serves as a spokesman for the American Cancer Society and hosts an annual golf tournament to benefit the organization . . . Is the chairman for the "First Downs for Down Syndrome" program which is sponsored by the Chiefs offensive line . . . Tim's wife, Sarah, is on the Board of Director's for the Down Syndrome Guild . . . Hosted the wildly popular one-hour "Tim Grunhard Show" on KCFX Radio, the Chiefs flagship station from '93-98 . . . A lifelong Cubs fan, he once caught a foul ball off the bat of Andre Dawson at Wrigley Field . . . The proprietor of O'Dowd's Little Dublin Irish Ale House and Pub on Kansas City's Country Club Plaza . . . Also has an O'Dowd's open in Dallas and is in the process of getting another location ready for business in Tulsa . . . An avid NASCAR fan who was instrumental in lobbying efforts for the construction of the Kansas Speedway in Kansas City, Kansas . . . In 2000 was named to Ingram's "40 Under 40" list which annually honors Kansas City's most influential and accomplished leaders of business, government and community under 40 years of age . . . Full name: Timothy Gerard Grunhard . . . Married, wife Sarah . . The couple has a son, C.J. - Charles James (3), twins Cailey Elizabeth and Colin Joseph (2) and a daughter Catherine (1) . . . DEFENSIVE END - 6-6 - 291

MARYLAND FREE AGENT (1998) NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS) BORN: JUNE 17, 1976 ERIE, PENNSYLVANIA GP/GS: (19/16) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Remarkable NFL success story who rose from the ranks as a rookie free agent in '98 to a full-time starter in '99 . . . Was the lone rookie free agent to crack Kansas City's opening day 53-man roster in '98, but just a year later was the club's starter in all 16 games at left defensive end . . . Moved into a starting role in '99 after a training camp injury which sidelined John Browning for the entire season ... Made the most of that opportunity, displaying his skills as a pass rusher and run stopper on the defensive line . . . Doesn't appear likely to relinquish his hold on the starting left end post, but will likely be challenged by Browning for playing time at that spot in 2000 . . . Continues to add bulk to his frame since joining the club as a 261-pound rookie in '98 . . . That additional size and strength, combined with his quickness have helped him develop into a solid allaround performer on the defensive front ... Displayed a penchant for the dramatic by getting his first NFL score on a pivotal 44-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter of a 31-28 win vs. Minnesota in a nationally-televised Sunday night contest in '99 . . . Should make an even bigger impact for the Chiefs this season after putting a full season of starting experience under his belt . . . Continues to hone his technique with defensive line coach Bob Karmelowicz . . . Has seen action in 19 career regular season games, with all 16 of his starts coming in '99 after appearing in three games on special teams for the Chiefs in '98 ... Got all of his defensive stats last season, racking up 70 tackles (29 solo), 4.0 sacks (-25.0 yards), a forced fumble and a pair of fumble recoveries, one of which resulted in a TD ... Registered all four of his sacks in a pair of two-sack games ... Also ranked third on the squad with 33 QB pressures and added a pair of passes defensed ... Producing a forced fumble and two tackles in three games of special teams action as a rookie ... Joined the club as a rookie free agent out of Maryland in '98. 1999: Opened all 16 games at left defensive end, recording 70 tackles (29 solo), 4.0 sacks (-25.0 yards), 33 QB pressures, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, one of which he returned 44 yards for a TD and two passes defensed . . . Made his first career start posting four tackles and collecting two QB pressures at Chicago (9/12) ... Had four QB pressures and one pass defensed at San Diego (10/3), forcing QB Jim Harbaugh to leave the game after one of those hits in the first quarter . . . Posted four tackles and a career-high five QB pressures vs. New England (10/10) ... Recorded six tackles and two QB pressures at Baltimore (10/21) ... Tallied the first 2.0 sacks of his career (-14.0 yards) on Harbaugh vs. San Diego (10/31) ... Collected eight tackles at Indianapolis (11/7) ... Posted a career-high 10 tackles (five solo) and his first career fumble recovery off Trent Dilfer at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Forced a Jon Kitna fumble that was recovered by Marvous Patton vs. Seattle (11/21), setting up a Chiefs FG ... Had a team-high nine tackles and a pair of QB pressures at Oakland (11/28) . . . Had three QB hurries at Denver (12/5) . . . Scooped up a Jeff George fumble forced by Derrick Thomas and outran Randy Moss and Robert Smith to the end zone for a 44-yard TD to get his first NFL score vs. Minnesota (12/12) . . . Had three QB pressures and a pass defensed vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) . . . Collected six tackles (three solo) and three QB pressures at Seattle (12/26) ... Posted six tackles, four QB pressures and 2.0 sacks of Rich Gannon vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Appeared in three games, claiming two special teams tackles and one forced fumble on special teams . . . Listed as inactive for 13 contests, sitting out the season's first eight games and the club's final five contests ... Saw the first professional action of his career, playing on special teams at Seattle (11/8) ... Saw action on special teams and recovered a fumble on a Rashaan Shehee kickoff return vs. Denver (11/16) ... Forced a Latario Rachal fumble on a punt return and recorded two tackles as a member of the special teams at San Diego (11/22) ... Inactive for the season's final five contests.

College: Played in 41 career games at the University of Maryland, starting 22 of those contests ... Posted 147 tackles (107 solo), 9.5 sacks, 26 tackles for loss, three forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and three passes defensed ... Saw action in all 11 contests with seven starts as a senior in '97, opening six games at right defensive end and one at left end. Concluded the year with 42 tackles (31 solo), 1.5 sacks, five tackles for loss, a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and one pass break-up... Played in all 11 games with five starts as a junior in '96... Finished the year with 43 tackles (29 solo)... Added 4.0 sacks and 15 stops behind the line of scrimmage... Played in all 11 games, earning 10 starting nods as a sophomore... Collected 44 tackles (35 solo), 3.0 sacks, six tackles for loss, three passes defensed and a fumble recovery... Played in eight games with one start as a true freshman in '94... Collected 18 tackles (12 solo), 1.0 sack and two forced fumbles... First collegiate start came vs. Clemson when he tallied a season-high six stops... Majored in Criminology and Criminal Justice at Maryland.

Personal: Recorded a team-high 68 tackles and 6.0 sacks as a senior at Mercyhurst High School in Erie, Pennsylvania... Would like to someday pursue a career as a U.S. Marshal... Full name: Eric David Hicks... Married, wife Erica, with a daughter Shayla (1)... Toughest member of the Hicks family may be Shayla who was born with a heart condition that required numerous surgeries when she was just an infant... After spending several months at Children's Mercy Hospital in '99, the prognosis is good for her to enjoy a healthy year in 2000 and beyond... Serves as a spokesperson for the American Heart Association and is an honorary Chairman for their annual "Walk-A-Thon"... The Hicks family resides in Overland Park, Kansas.

KEVIN LOGKETT

WIDE RECEIVER - 6-0 - 133

KANSAS STATE
DRAFT (NO. 2 - 1997)
NFL: 4 (4TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 4, 1974
TULSA, OKLAHOMA
GP/GS: (38/4) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Sure-handed wideout appears ready for an even more prominent role in the Chiefs lineup as he enters his fourth pro season . . . Speedy performer came on strong in '99 and is one of the top candidates to assume the starting job at the club's "X" receiver post in 2000 . . . Slippery routerunner has a knack for eluding covermen once he gets off the line of scrimmage and is a legitimate threat to get deep . . . Hauled in 34 passes a year ago after getting just 20 catches in his first two pro campaigns . . . A favorite target of QB Elvis Grbac in third-down situations, always seems to be coming up with catches in the clutch . . . Provides another talented target for Grbac, giving him an excellent complement to WR Derrick Alexander and TE Tony Gonzalez ... Excels in Kansas City's three-WR package, but can play any of the Chiefs receiver positions ... Frequently has displayed a flair for making acrobatic grabs both over the middle and on the boundaries . . . Like Alexander, is tough to chase down once he gets the ball in his hands in the open field . . . Continues to gain confidence and experience after joining the club as a second-round draft pick in '97. . . Can also be deployed as a punt returner in addition to his duties at receiver ... Played in all 16 games in '99 after an ankle injury hampered him for the final month of the '98 campaign . . . Is the only player on the Kansas City roster to own a reception courtesy of four different Chiefs passers, catching balls from Grbac, Warren Moon, Rich Gannon and Louie Aguiar during his four-year career . . . His 39-yard catch from Moon in '99 was the venerable quarterback's first completion with Kansas City, while a 35-yard reception from Aguiar on a fake punt in '97 was the first reception of the receiver's NFL tenure . . . Has seen duty in a total of 38 NFL games with four starts ... Owns 54 pro receptions for 742 yards (14.8 avg.) and two TDs, as well as eight punt returns for 46 yards . . . Also has 10 special teams stops to his credit . . . Joined the Chiefs as a second-round draft pick (47th overall) in '97 out of Kansas State. 1999: Saw action at WR in 16 games (one start), recording career highs with 34 catches for 426 yards and two TDs ... Also saw action on special teams in four games . . . Tied a career high with four catches for 36 yards vs. Detroit (9/26) . . . Matched that career high with four catches for 33 yards the next week at San Diego (10/3) . . . Registered four catches for the third straight week, getting 40 yards vs. New England (10/10) . . . Had two catches for 31 yards at Baltimore (10/21) and recovered a Ravens onside kick attempt with 4:05 remaining in the game . . . Made his lone start of the season vs. San Diego (10/31), posting two catches for 40 yards . . . Recorded three receptions for 54 yards at Indianapolis (11/7), including his first career TD catch, an 18-yard pass from Grbac and also caught Moon's lone completion as a Chief, a 20-yard grab . . . Produced two receptions for 26 yards at Tampa Bay (11/14) . . . Collected three catches for 25 yards at Denver (12/5) ... Produced three catches for 36 yards vs. Minnesota (12/12) ... Tallied three catches for 69 yards vs. Oakland (1/2/00), including a career-long 39-yard TD catch in the fourth guarter. Also returned one punt for 10 yards. 1998: Played in 13 games (three starts), ranking fifth on the squad with 19 catches for 281 yards (14.8 avg.) . . . Had seven punt returns for 36 yards and added four special teams tackles . . . Grabbed two passes for 27 yards in his first professional start at wide receiver in place of an injured Derrick Alexander vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Received second career start, this time for an injured Rison, catching three passes for 49 yards at Jacksonville (9/13) . . . Started for an injured Rison at Philadelphia (9/27) and caught a four passes for a career-high 74 yards, including a seasonlong 38-yard grab from Rich Gannon ... Had two catches for 28 yards vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Returned the first two punts of his pro career for 17 yards subbing for an injured Tamarick Vanover vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) . . . Made three receptions for 27 yards at Seattle (11/8) and ran back one punt for two yards . . . Posted two catches for 27 yards vs. Denver (11/16). Also returned four punts for 17 yards, including a career-long 16-yard runback . . . Caught one pass for 22 yards at San Diego (11/22) and made two tackles on special teams . . . Suffered a sprained ankle while making a tackle on the punt coverage squad vs. Arizona (11/29) and did not return . . . Listed as inactive with that ankle injury at Denver (12/6), vs. Dallas (12/13) and at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) . . . Had a 15-yard reception at Oakland (12/26). 1997: Saw limited duty during his rookie campaign, playing in nine games on special teams and taking snaps on offense in five contests . . . Caught one pass for 35 yards and had six stops on special teams . . . First NFL duty came as the club's third receiver at Denver (8/31) . . . Made a leaping grab of a 35-yard bomb from punter Louie Aguiar on a fake punt at Seattle (11/23) for his first pro reception, coming down at the one-yard line to set up a one-yard Marcus Allen TD run . . . Also lined up at receiver vs. San Diego (10/16), at Jacksonville (11/9) and vs. San Francisco (11/30) . . . Was inactive for the club's playoff appearance vs. Denver (1/4/98).

College: Big-play performer who finished his career as the most prolific pass-catcher in the history of Kansas State, as well as the Big Eight and Big 12 conferences with 217 receptions, the 11th-best total in NCAA history . . . His 3,032 yards receiving are surpassed only by Oklahoma State's Hart Lee Dykes (3,171) on the all-time Big 12 chart . . . Owns virtually every other receiving mark in K-State annals, including TD catches (26), and consecutive games with a reception (43) . . . Only player in Big Eight and Big 12 Conference books to gain over 550 yards receiving in four straight seasons . . . Enjoyed a sensational senior season, setting a Wildcat single-season record with 72 catches, while his 882 yards were the second-best total in K-State history . . . Posted six TDs and averaged 12.3 yards per catch . . . A third team All-America pick by AP, a unanimous first team All-Big 12 selection and earned first team GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America honors for the second consecutive season . . . RESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1998)
NFL: 9 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: SEPTEMBER 16, 1969
WHITEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

GP/GS: (116/105) PLAYOFFS: (1/1) Pro Career: Massive four-time Pro Bowl defensive tackle entering his third season with the Chiefs ... Joined the club as a restricted free agent signee from Oakland on April 18th of '98 ... An incredible physical specimen who is arguably one of the most powerful players in the NFL today . . . Possesses a deadly combination of strength and speed, as well as incredible quickness off the ball ... Was somehow overlooked for last season's Pro Bowl even though he was undoubtedly one of the league's most dominant players at his position . . . Is truly a force on Kansas City's defensive front. forcing opponents to frequently use two or even three players to block him from his left defensive tackle position . . . Has the ability to line up at any spot on the defensive line including end, but is expected to work primarily at his left DT spot again in 2000 . . . Can single-handedly disrupt an offense and often creates havoc in the backfield immediately after the ball is snapped . . . Displayed his tremendous skills for the Chiefs last year after a back injury severely curtailed his contributions during his initial campaign with Kansas City in '98 ... Even though he wasn't showered with postseason accolades probably produced one of his finest pro seasons with the Chiefs in '99, setting a career high with 81 tackles ... Despite recording only 1.5 sacks a year ago, still put plenty of pressure on opposing passers, racking up 54 QB hurries, more than any player had for the Chiefs the past two seasons . . . Produced two games in which he had seven guarterback pressures apiece . . . Frequently set up sacks for his teammates and even corralled his second career interception, which he parlayed into a career-long 30-yard return . . . Earned four Pro Bowl berths with the Raiders and could earn another in Kansas City should he build on the torrid pace he established a year ago . . . Was reunited in Kansas City with head coach Gunther Cunningham, who coached him his first three pro seasons with the Raiders, helping him achieve his inaugural Pro Bowl berth after a 9.5-sack campaign in '94 . . . ### Warren Moon

QUARTERBACK - 6-3 - 224

WASHINGTON
UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (1999)
NFL: 17 (2ND WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 18, 1956
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

GP/GS: (206/202) PLAYOFFS: (10/10)

Pro Career: The most prolific passer in pro football history embarks on the 23rd professional season of his Hall of Fame career, his 17th in the NFL ranks and his second in a Kansas City uniform ... Remarkably, is entering his fourth decade of pro competition after beginning his storied career with the Canadian Football League's Edmonton Eskimos in '78 ... In fact, Kansas City has three rookies on the 2000 roster who were born the same year Moon inaugurated his CFL career - Pat Dennis, Dante Hall and Desmond Kitchings . . . Joined the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent from Seattle on April 27th of '99 . . . With the retirement of Miami's Dan Marino, has inherited the title of the NFL's "Leading Active Passer", owning more attempts (6,789), completions (3,973), yards (49,117) and touchdowns (290) than any other quarterback in the game today . . . Has started a remarkable 202 of the 206 regular season NFL contests he's participated in . . . Those 206 games are the most of any active NFL signal-caller and are the most of any player currently wearing a Kansas City uniform ... Classy competitor owns one of the most distinguished resumes of any signal-caller to ever play the game . . . Is also one of the league's most giving players off the field, earning the league's prestigious NFL Man of Year Award in '89 for his ongoing charitable endeavors . . . Serves as the club's top backup to starter Elvis Grbac and provides a sterling example of professionalism in the locker room for not only Kansas City's quarterbacks, but every player on the roster . . . Despite taking just three snaps for the club a year ago, is still a valuable asset to the team as both on and off the field ... Said Chiefs President Carl Peterson on Moon's signing: "Warren gives us the veteran quarterback experience that every team would like to have. His experience and leadership on the field, in the classroom, and in the locker room will be similar to that which Marcus Allen brought us. Obviously, we're very pleased to have Warren and his family as a member of our family." . . . Added head coach Gunther Cunningham: "I think Warren is the kind of guy that you would like to have, on the field and within the organization. I think he'll be very helpful to Elvis Grbac in his development. I think the players will respond well to him, because I think he carries respect throughout the league." ... Began his phenomenal pro tenure with an incredible six-year run ('78-83) with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, winning five straight Grey Cups ('78-82) with that club . . . During his stellar CFL stint saw duty in 96 regular season contests (41 starts), passing for 21,228 vards, completing 1.369 of 2.832 aerials with 144 touchdowns and 77 interceptions, adding 10 postseason games (nine starts) to his Canadian resume with 138 completions on 257 attempts, good for 2,353 yards, 12 TDs and seven INTs . . . Led his Edmonton squads to a 78-23-5 regular season record (.813) and a 9-1 (.900) postseason mark before signing with the NFL's Houston Oilers as an unrestricted free agent on February 3rd of '84, ending what had been one the biggest recruiting battles in league history since the AFL-NFL merger ... Spent 10 seasons with Houston ('84-93) before making stops in Minnesota ('94-96) and Seattle ('97-98) prior to joining the Chiefs . . . Including his regular and postseason totals in both the CFL and NFL, has seen duty in an incredible 322 meaningful professional contests, starting 262 of those games . . . That combined regular and postseason CFL and NFL tally reveals 9.831 attempts, 5,739 completions (58.4%) with 73,353 yards, 463 touchdowns and 330 interceptions, good for a 83.3 rating using the NFL passer formula, in addition to 974 rushes for 3,937 yards and 40 scores . . . Those 73,353 career passing yards in both leagues translate into an astounding 41.9 miles . . . In 206 games of regular season NFL play (202 starts) with the Chiefs, Oilers, Vikings and Seahawks, has completed 3,973 of 6,788 passes (58.5%) for 49,117 yards with 290 touchdowns and 232 interceptions, good for an 81.1 passer rating . . . Has also rushed 541 times for 1,734 yards for 22 TDs in regular season NFL play, giving him 50,957 yards of total offense . . . His pass attempt, pass completion, passing yardage totals and total offense totals all rank third in league history behind only Marino (8,358 attempts, 4,967 completions, 61,361 passing yards and 61,448 yards of total offense) and John Elway (7,250 attempts, 4,123 completions, 51,475 passing yards and 54,882 yards of total offense) . . . His total of 290 career NFL touchdown passes total ties Johnny Unitas for fourth on the league's all-time list, trailing only Marino (420), Fran Tarkenton (342) and Elway (300) . . . His nine 3,000-yard passing seasons are third in league history behind Marino (13) and Elway (12), while his 49 300-yard games are third in NFL annals behind Marino (60) and Dan Fouts (51) ... Holds the league record for quarterbacks with eight straight nominations to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ('88-95) and added a ninth appearance following the '97 campaign ... Has established the single-season passing vardage marks for three separate NFL franchises: Titans, formerly known as the Oilers (4,364 yards in '91), Vikings (4,364 yards in '94) and Seahawks (3,678 yards in '97) . . . Owns the NFL single-season record with nine 300-yard games in '90, including an unforgettable 527-yard effort at Kansas City on December 16 of '90, the secondmost ever in an NFL game (Norm Van Brocklin - 554 yards in '51) . . . Joins Marino (Miami, '84-85) and Fouts (San Diego, '80-81) as one of three players in league history to have back-to-back 4.000yard seasons and is the only one to do it for two different teams (Oilers '90-91 and Vikings '94-95) ... Has four total 4,000-yard seasons, trailing only Marino who owns six ... Owns a 102-100 record as a starting NFL quarterback, including an impressive 90-67 mark (.657) since the beginning of the '87 season . . . Set an NFL record with 404 pass completions for the Oilers in '91 and joined Marino and Elway as just the third quarterback since the AFL-NFL merger to start 200 games, reaching that milestone against the Chiefs on November 8th of '98. At Kansas City (1999): Saw reserve duty in one game, completing one of three passes for 20 yards ... Was active for all 16 games as the club's backup quarterback, but did not play in 15 contests . . . Saw his only regular season duty in a Chiefs uniform vs. Indianapolis (11/7), replacing an injured Elvis Grbac for the final three plays of the game. Completed one of three passes for 20 yards vs. the Colts with his lone completion going to Kevin Lockett. At Seattle (1997-98): Saw duty in 25 games (24 starts) during two seasons in Seattle . . . Attempted 786 passes with 458 completions (58.3%), good for 5,310 yards with 36 touchdowns and 24 interceptions and a 81.3 rating ... Also rushed 33 times for 50 with one score ... Was sacked 52 times for 332 yards, as well ... Set Seahawks franchise records in '97 for both pass completions (313) and yards (3,678) ... His 81.3 career rating with Seattle is second in franchise annals behind only Dave Krieg (82.3) . . . His 528 attempts in '97 trail only Krieg (532 in '85), as well ... Signed as an unrestricted free agent with Seattle on March 7th of '97 after being waived by the Minnesota Vikings on February 21st of that year. 1998: Started 10 of the season's first 11 games . . . Got his 100th victory as a starting NFL quarterback in a 33-14 win vs. Arizona (9/13) ... Played in his 200th career NFL game in the club's monsoon contest at Kansas City (10/4), but suffered a cracked rib in that game and did not play in the second half . . . Passed for 154 yards vs. Denver (10/11) before being replaced by John Freisz due to sore ribs . . . Was as the club's third quarterback the following week at San Diego (10/25) with that rib ailment and did not play ... Established a Seahawks record by completing his first 17 pass attempts vs. Oakland (11/1), breaking the old mark of 15 by Jim Zorn vs. Cleveland (10/12/80) . . . Joined Marino and Elway as the only three QBs since the NFL-AFL merger to start 200 games when he opened vs. Kansas City (11/8) . . . Threw two TD passes at Dallas (11/22) to move into a tie for fourth place on the NFL's all-time TD passing chart with Johnny Unitas with 290 career scoring tosses . . . Was listed as the club's backup quarterback vs. Tennessee (11/29), at the N.Y. Jets (12/6), vs. San Diego (12/13), vs. Indianapolis (12/20) and at Denver (12/27). 1997: Played in 15 games with 14 starts and earned his ninth Pro Bowl berth . . . Finished the season with Seahawks franchise records for completions (313) and yards (3,678) ... Ranked third in the NFL in completions and fourth in yards despite missing a total of seven quarters of action during the season . . . Moved into third place in league history in attempts. completions and yards . . . Guided a Seattle offense that established team records with 5,759 total yards and 4,187 passing yards . . . The club also led the NFL in net passing yards per game with 247.4 . . . Had a personal-best and team-record streak of nine consecutive games with at least 250 yards passing ... Began the year as the backup to Friesz but was quickly mobilized to start the second half of the season opener vs. the N.Y. Jets (8/31) after Friesz broke his right thumb . . . Subsequently started the next 13 games ... Scored on a one-yard run at Indianapolis (9/21) becoming the oldest player (40 years) to rush for a touchdown, breaking the mark of Zeke Bratkowski Had the highest passing yardage total in the entire league on the year with a 409-yard effort vs. Oakland (10/26), tying a career-high with five touchdowns. It marked his seventh 400-yard game, tying Joe Montana for second place in NFL history in that category and denoted Seattle's first 400yard passing effort since '88 season. Seattle posted an NFL season-high 554 yards in the 45-34 win, two yards off the franchise record. Was named AFC Offensive Player of the Week and Miller Lite NFL Player of the Week for his efforts. Became the oldest to pass for 400 yards in a game and five touchdowns in a game, eclipsing his own record in the former (38 years) and George Blanda's (39) in the latter. . . Also received AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after guiding the club to a 37-31 win at San Diego (11/9) . . . Suffered a rib injury at Baltimore (12/7) and did not play at Oakland (12/14) ... Returned to the lineup for the regular season finale vs. San Francisco (12/21) ... ### ROB Murphy

GUARD - 6-5 - 305

OHIO STATE
FREE AGENT (2000)
NFL: 1 (1ST WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: APRIL 4, 1976

Pro Career: Young guard prospect who will make his first trip to training camp with the Chiefs in 2000 after honing his skills in NFL Europe this spring . . . Has excellent size and will could challenge for a reserve role with Kansas City on the interior offensive line . . . Saw duty with the Cincinnati Bengals in training camp a year ago, but was released on August 31st . . . Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with the Bengals on July 9th of '99. NFL Europe (2000): Allocated by the Chiefs to the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe . . . Started every game at left guard, helping Frankfurt post a league-high 203 first downs.

College: Enjoyed a standout three-year career at Ohio State, where he earned All-American honors at guard in his sophomore and junior seasons in '97 and '98 . . . Became the first Buckeye guard to earn All-American honors since Jim Lachey in '84 and became the school's first two-time All-American guard since Jim Parker in '55-56 . . . Named All-American by the Associated Press and Football News in his final collegiate season in '98 . . . Also earned All-Big Ten honors by head coaches and media in '98 . . . Keyed a Buckeye offensive line that helped the club average 199 ground yards a game in '98, ranking second in the Big 10 and 23rd nationally . . . Also protected Buckeye signal-callers as the team averaged 305 passing yards per game in '98, ranking second in the Big Ten and 12th nationally . . . Named first-team All America by the Football News after his sophomore campaign in '97, starting all 11 games he played . . . Started alongside Rams Pro Bowl tackle Orland Pace as a redshirt freshman in '96, where he excelled, earning a spot on the Football News Freshman All-America squad.

Personal: Rated as the top offensive line prospect in the state of Ohio coming out of football-rich Moeller High School in Cincinnati . . . Also played hockey and wrestled . . . His father, Bob Murphy, played fullback at the University of Miami (Fla.) and later signed a contract with the San Diego Chargers . . . Single . . . Resides in Cincinnati, Ohio.

LESLIE O'NEAL

Defensive end - 6-4 - 281

OKLAHOMA STATE FREE AGENT (1998) NFL: 15 (3RD WITH CHIEFS) BORN: MAY 7, 1964 LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS GP/GS: (196/179) PLAYOFFS: (6/6)

Pro Career: Prolific sack master entering his third season with the Chiefs after joining the club as a free agent on April 17th of '98 . . . Was originally slated to come to Kansas City to play in pass rush situations, but ended up starting 24 contests over the past two seasons . . . Is expected to revert that original role at right end in 2000, playing primarily on passing downs . . . Six-time Pro Bowler and two-time all-pro honoree is truly one of the finest pass rushers the game has ever known . . . Is tied with Hall of Fame linebacker Lawrence Taylor for sixth in NFL history with 132.5 sacks . . . Among active players only Washington's Bruce Smith (169.5) has accumulated more career QB takedowns than O'Neal ... Smith, O'Neal, Chicago's Clyde Simmons (121.0) and Minnesota's John Randle (106.0) are the only four active NFL players who own at least 100 career sacks . . . Looming just ahead of O'Neal on the all-time NFL sack chart are Richard Dent (137.5), Chris Doleman (150.5), Kevin Greene (160.0), Smith and Reggie White (192.5) . . . Needs just 5.5 more sacks to surpass Dent for sole possession of the fifth spot ... Paired with the late Derrick Thomas (126.5) the past two seasons to give the Chiefs a pair of players each in the NFL's all-time top 10 in sacks . . . Remarkably durable performer has played in all 16 games nine of his last 11 seasons, missing just two games since the '89 campaign . . . Has compiled that consistent record of playing time after a devastating knee injury as a rookie in '86 almost curtailed his career before it could begin . . . Is just four contests shy of seeing duty action in his 200th regular season contest, meaning he owns more games of NFL duty (196) than any other player on the Chiefs roster . . . Has demonstrated his high pain threshold every since coming to Kansas City in '98 season and has not missed a game in the Red and Gold ... Battled through an extremely painful toe injury to see duty in all 16 games, including 13 starts in '98 . . . Ranked as the league's top pass rusher from '92-95, racking up 54.0 quarterback takedowns over that span (Neil Smith ranked second with 53.0) . . . Now in his 15th professional season, still remains one of the most feared performers for offensive tackles to face coming off the edge . . . Has the speed and skill to get to the passer via the outside as well as the strength and power necessary to collapse the pocket in the middle ... Played in a total of 196 NFL contests, starting 179 of those outings ... Owns 810 career tackles (630 solo), 15 fumble recoveries, 24 forced fumbles and three interceptions for 27 yards with one TD, in addition to his 132.5 sacks for a remarkable 913.0 yards in losses ... Also has amassed 51 passes defensed and a touchdown on a fumble return ... Has racked up 68 QB pressures over the past four seasons which included a two-year stint with the Rams ... Started six postseason contests for the Chargers, including Super Bowl XXIX, racking up 15 tackles (13 solo), 2.0 sacks (-16.0 yards), one INT for three yards and a forced fumble . . . Spent two years in St. Louis ('96-97) after a stellar 10-year run with the San Diego Chargers ('86-95) . . . Missed nearly 23 months of action with the Chargers from '86-87 due to a right knee injury which threatened to end his promising career. Rehabilitated that injury with the assistance of U.S. Ski Team doctor Richard Stedman and has missed just two contests since returning from that malady . . . Reunited in Kansas City with Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham who served as San Diego's defensive line coach from '85-90 and was instrumental in O'Neal's development as a young player in the league . . . Entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick (eighth overall) of the Chargers in '86, after the club moved up in a draft day trade with Minnesota. San Diego got Minnesota's first (eighth overall) and third-round selections (66th overall) in exchange for the Chargers first (14th overall) and second-round (44th overall) selections. At Kansas City (1998-99): Played in 32 consecutive contests for Kansas City over the past two seasons with 24 starts ... Registered 109 tackles (71 solo) and 10.0 sacks (-47.5 yards) over that span . . . Also recovered three fumbles, while forcing four fumbles and recording three passes defensed . . . Added 47 quarterback pressures and a blocked one field. 1999: Saw action in 16 games (10 starts) at right DE, recording 45 tackles (24 solo), 5.5 sacks (-33.0 yards), 25 QB pressures, one pass defensed and two forced fumbles . . . Started the season's first three games ... Posted five solo tackles, a sack of Brian Griese (-8.0 yards), a QB pressure and forced a Terrell Davis fumble vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Recorded a sack of Drew Bledsoe (-1.0 yards) vs. New England, moving him into sole possession of seventh place on the NFL's all-time sack list at 129.0 . . . Started in place of an injured Dan Williams at Baltimore (10/21), producing five tackles, two QB pressures and one pass defensed ... Captained the defense vs. San Diego (10/31) and at Indianapolis (11/7) ... Made one solo tackle in reserve duty at Tampa Bay (11/14) . . . Started at right DE at Oakland (11/28), collecting two QB pressures . . . Posted a sack of Brian Griese (-11.0 yards) and one QB pressure at Denver (12/5) . . . Started the final four games at right DE . . . Collected three QB pressures, a sack of Jeff George (-7.0 yards) and a forced fumble vs. Minnesota (12/12) . . . Produced seven tackles and five QB pressures vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) . . . Recorded a season-best eight tackles and a sack of Jon Kitna (-3.0 yards) at Seattle (12/26) . . . Tallied six tackles, a half sack of Rich Gannon (-3.0 yards) and three QB pressures vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Saw duty in 16 contests (14 starts), playing at defensive end and at the club's "Falcon" position . . . Opened six of the season's first seven contests at right defensive end and seven of the last nine games at the club's "Falcon" post . . . Also got a starting nod in one game at left end . . . Contributed 64 tackles (47 solo), 22 QB pressures and 4.5 sacks (-14.5 yards) . . . Forced two fumbles while recovering three loose pigskins . . . Started the season-opener vs. Oakland (9/6) at right defensive end in place of an injured John Browning and recorded seven stops. Sacked Jeff George twice in the second quarter, forcing fumbles each time after delivering a pair of devastating kill shots . . . Opened at right DE at Jacksonville (9/13) tallying half a sack of Mark Brunell (-3.5 yards) . . . Made six tackles and recovered a fumble as the starting right end vs. Seattle (10/4) . . . Started at the "Falcon" position for the first time vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1), recording seven tackles . . . Left the game at Seattle (11/8) with a severe toe injury . . . Opened at left defensive end and posted six tackles (four solo), one fumble recovery and three QB pressures at Denver (12/6). Responsible for Jason Elam's first miss of the season, blocking his 37-yard field goal attempt, the first blocked FG by a Chief since '94 . . . Pro Career: Stoic 11-year pro provided the perfect personification for head coach Gunther Cunningham's "Respect the Game" mantra in '99 . . . Was a key reason the Chiefs were able to regain their discipline and their pride a year ago . . . Not only brought his chiseled physique to Kansas City, but also infused the Arrowhead locker room with his professionalism and commitment to being the very best ... Anchored the Chiefs defense from his middle linebacker post and earned the club's Derrick Thomas Award in '99, a honor given annually to Kansas City's Most Valuable Player ... Unquestionably enjoyed the finest campaign of his distinguished NFL career in his debut with the Red and Gold ... Joined Thomas as the only other Chiefs linebacker to be named the club's MVP (Thomas won the honor in both '91 and '94) ... The embodiment of professionalism, provides the ultimate example to his teammates of how to work, whether it's in the weight room, in the classroom or on the field . . . Maintains a quiet demeanor, but speaks volumes by the way he carries himself . . . A relentless worker who pushes both himself and his teammates to their maximum potential . . . Patton's stringent year-round workout regiment is largely responsible for his unprecedented durability. particularly when one considers the position he plays . . . Did not miss a single game in the decade of the '90s, seeing action in 160 consecutive contests dating back to his rookie campaign of '90 . . . Also owns a remarkable string of 112 straight starts going back to the '93 season-opener, tying center Tim Grunhard for the longest such starting streak among current Chiefs players . . . Incredibly, saw duty on all of Kansas City's 1,078 defensive snaps from his middle linebacker post a year ago after taking 4,417 of 4,436 defensive snaps for the Washington Redskins from '95-98 . . . Joined Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent on April 27th of '99 from Washington . . . Despite coming to the Chiefs with relatively little fanfare, proceeded to pay immediate dividends for the club . . . Set the tone for Kansas City's defense by producing a career-high 6.5 sacks, racking up a team-high 20 tackles for loss and registering a career-best 14 quarterback pressures . . . Also tallied 135 tackles, marking the seventh consecutive season he had topped the 100-tackle barrier, an even more remarkable feat considering he turned the trick for three different teams during that span . . . Can play any linebacker position, but is most comfortable on the inside . . . Took over the Chiefs MLB spot in '99, facilitating the move of fellow UCLA alum Donnie Edwards to an outside linebacker post ... Came to Kansas City after a four-year stint with Washington from '95-98, where he was the Redskins leading tackler three of those four seasons . . . Inaugurated his NFL career with Buffalo from '90-94 before signing with Washington as an unrestricted free agent on February 22nd of '95 . . . Has seen duty in 160 straight regular season games, owning a total of 119 career starts, producing 1,110 tackles (757 solo). 20.5 sacks (-162.0 yards), 11 INTs (46 yards), 10 fumble recoveries, 13 forced fumbles, 28 passes defensed, 57 QB pressures and 55 special teams tackles during his pro tenure . . . During his five-year stay with the Bills, he saw duty in 11 postseason contests (six starts) . . . Went to the Super Bowl each of his first four seasons in the league, joining Glenn Parker, Carwell Gardner, Mike Lodish and James Williams as the only NFL players to accomplish that feat . . . Produced a total of 44 tackles (37 solo), a pair of pass deflections and one QB pressure in his 11 games of playoff action ... Originally entered the league as an eighth-round selection (208th overall) of Buffalo in the '90 NFL Draft, a draft in which the Bills also tabbed Parker in the third round. At Kansas City (1999): Started all 16 games at middle linebacker, earning team MVP honors for his efforts . . . Ranked second on the squad with 135 tackles (95 solo), trailing only Edwards, who had 143 stops . . . Posted a career-high 6.5 sacks (-39.0 yards) and registered his first two-sack contest . . . Added one INT, a career-best 14 QB pressures, three passes defensed, two forced fumbles ... Also tied Reggie Tongue and Cris Dishman for the team lead with three fumble recoveries ... Was one of seven defensive starters to open all 16 games . . . Tallied seven games with 10 or more tackles . . . Saw his first duty in a Chiefs uniform, captaining the defense at Chicago (9/12) and collecting nine tackles . . . Produced 11 tackles vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Got his first sack as a Chief, taking down Charlie Batch for an eight-yard loss vs. Detroit (9/26) ... Enjoyed a monster game at San Diego (10/3), collecting a career-high 2.0 sacks at San Diego (10/3) - one of Jim Harbaugh (-8.0 yards) and one of Erik Kramer

(-10.0 yards) - got an INT off Erik Kramer (no return) and had a team-high 10 tackles . . . Posted six tackles, two QB pressures and recovered a Terry Allen fumble vs. New England (10/10) . . . AUBURN
FREE AGENT (1995)
NFL: 6 (6TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: DECEMBER 17, 1971
FRANKFORT, GERMANY
GP/GS: (71/18) PLAYOFFS: (2/0)

Pro Career: Talented all-around performer emerged as one of the brightest stars on the Chiefs roster in '99 . . . Was already regarded as one of the league's finest blocking fullbacks and special teams stalwarts after compiling four solid seasons with Kansas City, but truly launched his career into overdrive a year ago when he was named to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated all-pro squad . . . After seeing offensive duty primarily as a short yardage and goal line fullback during his first four years with the Chiefs, burst upon the scene to start all 18 games as a full-time fullback in '99 . . . Continued to serve as a smash-mouth blocker, but got the ball in his hands more as both a runner and a receiver, making the most of those increased opportunities . . . Shattered all of his previous single game and seasonal marks in last year's breakthrough campaign . . . Compiled 84 carries for 387 yards (4.6 avg.) and one TD to go with 24 catches for 141 yards in '99 after posting just 34 totes for 84 yards and seven receptions for 37 yards in his first four NFL seasons . . . Is expected to build on those numbers as he enters his second campaign as the club's starting fullback in 2000 . . . Came on strong down the stretch in '99, getting 284 of his 387 rushing yards (73.4%) in the season's final five games . . . Truly personifies the team concept, playing the game with passion and humility, bringing a selfless attitude to work every day . . . Serves as an excellent role model for his teammates both on and off the field with his exemplary work ethic and all-giving approach to the game . . . Is also one of the more active players in the Kansas City community ... Has established himself as one of the most respected leaders in the Chiefs locker room and continues to earn the esteem of his teammates . . . Captained 10 of the club's 16 games in '99 (six on special teams and four on offense), by far the most of any Chiefs player last season . . . Was one of just five offensive players to start every game, as well . . . Despite his increased role on offense, is still one of the best lead blockers in the business . . . Excels at escorting his teammates into the end zone with his battering-ram style, blowing even the best linebackers and defensive linemen off the ball . . . Dishes out the same kind of punishment when he gets the ball in his hands and is tough to bring down in the open field ... Also possesses superb pass-catching skills and surprising speed in addition to his aforementioned blocking affinity . . . That triple-threat ability makes him an integral part of Kansas City's goal-line and short-yardage packages ... A powerful runner when it comes time to move the chains, is frequently the player whose number is called to pick up the tough yardage, converting nine of 12 third-and-one rushing opportunities last season . . . Can also be called upon to make the big play, producing four runs of 20 or more yards in '99 after no Chiefs back had more than three of those big running plays in '98 . . . Ranked second on the squad with 11 runs of 10 or more yards last season . . . Enjoys making contact at the point of attack and brings that same punishing and tenacious style of play to the Chiefs special teams . . . Although his role on the specialty squads may decrease, he needs only six more stops in the kicking game to record 100 special teams tackles in his career . . . From '95-99, only Greg Manusky (124) produced more special teams stops in a Chiefs uniform than Richardson (94) ... Has seen duty in 81 career regular season games with 18 starts, posting 118 rushes for 471 yards (4.0 avg.) and three scores . . . Owns 31 career receptions for 178 yards (5.7 avg.), with four of those catches resulting in touchdowns ... Owns two career playoff appearances with the Chiefs, as well ... Came to Kansas City as a free agent on February 28th of '95 . . . Originally entered the league as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in '94 and spent his rookie campaign on that club's practice squad. 1999: Started all 16 games at FB, marking the first time in his career that he had played in every regular season game . . . Set single-season career highs with 84 carries for 387 yards with one TD and 24 catches for 141 yards ... Had one rushing TD and tallied 19 special teams tackles (11 on kickoff coverage and eight on punt coverage) . . . Registered three carries for 19 yards, caught four passes for 24 yards and made two special teams stops at Chicago (9/12) . . . Lone score of the year was a one-yard TD run vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Racked up three special teams stops apiece at Baltimore (10/21) and vs. San Diego (10/31) . . . Recorded two carries for four yards and a career-long 29-yard reception vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Set career highs with five receptions for 37 yards at Oakland (11/28) ... Breakout game as a ball carrier came at Denver (12/5) when he smashed his previous career marks, gaining 80 yards on 12 carries, including a career-long 26-yard jaunt. Became the sixth different Chiefs player to lead the squad in rushing in a game on the season, marking a first in franchise history ... Followed up that performance by posting 11 carries for a team-high 57 yards vs. Minnesota (12/12), including a 25-yard long ... Produced an identical 11 rushes for 57 yards with a 25-yard long the next week vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) . . . Had a team-high eight carries for 20 yards while grabbing two passes for nine yards at Seattle (12/26) ... Posted eight carries for 70 yards vs. Oakland (1/2/00) with a 24-yard long. 1998: Captained the Chiefs special teams in '98, seeing action in 14 contests with one start at fullback . . . Tallied 20 carries for 45 yards and two touchdowns on the ground, while catching two passes for 13 yards . . . Recorded 11 tackles and forced a pair of fumbles on special teams, as well recovering a blocked punt . . . Forced a fumble and made three tackles on special teams vs. Oakland (9/6) and also converted a pair of third-down opportunities on the ground ... Scored his initial NFL rushing touchdown from one-yard out vs. San Diego (9/20), adding a season-long 15-yard reception . . . Rushed a season-high four times for a season-best 13 yards vs. Seattle (10/4) ... Started at fullback vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Converted first downs on all four of his rushes, good for 13 yards and a two-yard TD vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1). Had three tackles and a forced fumble on special teams vs. the Jets, as well . . . Suffered a sprained knee at San Diego (11/22) and did not return . . . Listed as inactive with that knee injury vs. Arizona (11/29) and at Denver (12/6) . . . Returned to action vs. Dallas (12/13) and recovered a blocked punt by Brian Roche which he returned for 10 yards. 1997: Played in 14 contests as a short yardage fullback and a special teams performer . . . Finished the year with two carries for 11 yards and three touchdown receptions for a total of six yards . . . Came up with 21 special teams tackles to rank third on the squad behind only Manusky and Danan Hughes . . . Caught a one-yard TD toss from Elvis Grbac to put the Chiefs ahead to stay in a 22-16 win vs. Buffalo (9/14) . . . Added a three-yard scoring grab from Grbac the next week at Carolina (9/21) and devastated venerable linebacker Sam Mills with a lead block which paved the way for a one-yard Marcus Allen TD run . . . Had a season-high three special teams tackles apiece at St. Louis (10/26) and vs. San Francisco (11/30) . . . Corralled his third TD pass of the year on a two-yard lob from Rich Gannon vs. Oakland (12/7) . . . Served as lead blocker on Marcus Allen's 123rd and final rushing TD, a three-yard score vs. New Orleans (12/21) . . . Played but did not record any stats in the club's playoff game vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Played in the first 13 games of the season as a blocking back and a special teams performer . . . Finished second on the squad with a career-high 25 special teams stops (18 solo), trailing only Manusky (26) . . . Had four carries for 10 yards and two receptions for 18 yards . . . Scored a TD on his very first pro reception, a one-yard score vs. Oakland (9/8) . . . Posted a career-high four special teams stops vs. Denver (9/22) . . . Had one catch for a career-long 17 yards vs. Chicago (11/17) . . . Suffered a season-ending wrist injury Thanksgiving Day at Detroit (11/28) and was subsequently placed on injured reserve (12/10). 1995: Played in 14 games with one start . . . Inactive for two contests . . . Carried the ball eight times for 18 yards . . . Ranked fifth on the squad with 18 special teams tackles . . . Carried the ball one time for five yards vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/10), converting a third-and-one situation which helped move the club into position for the game-winning FG in a 20-17 OT win . . . Started his first NFL contest vs. New England (10/15) ... Cleared the way for Marcus Allen's 100th career rushing TD in a Mile High blizzard at Denver (10/22) ... Led the squad in the preseason with 16 carries for 57 yards and tied for second with seven catches for 59 yards with one score. 1994: Was not drafted, but did sign with the Cowboys as a rookie free agent on May 2nd . . . Was waived by Dallas just prior to the start of the regular season ... Joined the Cowboys practice squad on August 30th and remained there throughout the team's playoff run.

DRAFT (NO. 1 - 1998)
NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: NOVEMBER 4, 1974
SWANSEA, SOUTH CAROLINA
GP/GS: (32/31) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Mammoth right tackle has started 31 straight contests at that spot since joining the club as Kansas City's first-round choice (27th overall) in the '98 draft . . . Has played in all 32 games of his pro career at right tackle for the Chiefs and is expected to anchor that post for the foreseeable future . . . Powerful performer poised on a massive frame, yet is surprisingly agile and athletic for a man his size . . . Superb drive blocker who was a big part of Kansas City's resurgent running game in '99 . . . Continues to improve as a pass protector and should only make more positive strides after being a solid contributor in his first two NFL seasons with the Chiefs . . . Was initially tabbed to work at left tackle when he was drafted in '98 . . . Instead, was thrust into the starting line-up at right tackle in just his second NFL contest due to an injury to all-pro left guard Dave Szott in the season opener . . . Quickly proved he could perform at a high level in this league and proceeded to start the club's final 15 games at the right tackle post in the Chiefs reshuffled offensive front . . . Earned the team's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award in '98, presented annually to Kansas City's top first-year performer . . Played virtually every offensive snap in the club's five preseason contests in '98, work that paid off when he was forced to assume a larger role during the regular season . . . Originally entered the league as a first-round draft choice (27th overall) of Kansas City in the '98 NFL Draft. 1999: Started all 16 games at right tackle in just his second pro campaign . . . Was an integral part of a Chiefs offensive front which helped the club rank fourth in the NFL in rushing with a 130.1 yards per game average . . . Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league. 1998: Played in 16 games with 15 starts as a rookie . . . Worked at left tackle in his first pro game before opening the club's final 15 contests at right tackle . . . Voted by his peers as the club's Mack Lee Hill Award winner, presented annually to the Chiefs most outstanding rookie or first-year player . . . Appeared in several series at left tackle in his first NFL action vs. Oakland (9/6) . . . Received first professional start at right tackle at Jacksonville (9/13), as Glenn Parker switched from right tackle to left guard to compensate for Szott's injury . . . Helped pave the way for Bam Morris' 137-yard rushing effort vs. Dallas (12/13). Eventually left that game with an ankle injury, but did return . . . Returned to the line-up the next week at the N.Y. Giants (12/20) . . . Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack of QB Elvis Grbac in the season finale at Oakland (12/26).

College: Saw duty in 42 regular season contests (33 starts) and opened two bowl contests during his tenure under Terry Bowden at Auburn . . . Played in all 12 games at left tackle as a senior, starting every contest but the Mississippi State outing . . . A first team All-America choice of the Football Writers Association . . . Tabbed as a first team All-Southeastern Conference selection by Football News . . . Led the team with 53 knockdowns, helping an offense that averaged 280.7 yards per game passing . . . Played in all 11 games as a junior, starting 10 contests at right guard, all but the Alabama-Birmingham contest . . . An honorable mention All-America and first team All-SEC pick by Football News . . . Registered 79 knockdown blocks on the year . . . Appeared in 10 games at left tackle as a sophomore, with four starts . . . Played in all 11 games as a true freshman, starting the final eight match-ups of the year at right tackle . . . An All-SEC freshman team pick by the Knoxville News-Sentinel . . . Saw duty in 575 plays as a true freshman . . . Part of an Auburn offense which averaged 410.0 yards per game . . . Earned his first career start in a 38-0 shutout of East Tennessee State as the Tigers amassed 479 total yards . . . Majored in Liberal Arts at Auburn.

Personal: An all-state and all-area selection at Swansea (S.C.) High School . . . Only played two years of prep football, starting at offensive guard and defensive end . . . Led the team to a pair of state titles . . . Also served as the starting center on the basketball team, averaging 20 points and five rebounds per game . . . Lettered in wrestling and track, as well . . . Uncle, Marshall Riley, was a defensive tackle at Auburn from '77-80 . . . Formed "The Road to Victory Foundation" which provides transitional living and programming for teenage mothers . . . Full name: Victor Allan Riley . . . #### WHAT TO WATCH IN 2000 - PART II

- DE Leslie O'Neal has played in 196 career regular season NFL games and needs four more games to make his 200th regular season NFL appearance. Is tied for sixth in NFL history with Lawrence Taylor, owning 132.5 career sacks. He needs a half a sack to surpass Taylor for sole possession of sixth place on the all-time NFL chart. He needs 5.5 sacks to surpass Richard Dent (137.5) for fifth place on the leadue's career sack list.
- LB Marvcus Patton will attempt to build on a streak of 160 consecutive games played dating back to '90 and a string of 112 consecutive starts dating back to '93. He will also attempt to record his eighth straight 100-tackle campaign in 2000.
- WR Andre Rison has 702 career receptions to rank 12th in NFL history. He needs 49 more to surpass Charlie Joiner and Michael Irvin who are tied for 10th with 750 catches. Rison ranks 18th in league annals with 9,599 career receiving yards. He needs 401 yards to become the 17th player in league history with 10,000 receiving yards. With 233 more yards he will surpass Drew Hill (9,831) for 17th place and with 668 yards will bypass Lance Alworth (10,266) for 16th place on the league's career receiving yardage chart.
- G Will Shields will attempt to build on a streak of 111 consecutive starts dating back to the '93 season. His five consecutive Pro Bowl berths are also the longest active string among current Chiefs players.
- . K Pete Stoyanovich ranks 19th in NFL history with 1,195 career points. Ranking just ahead of him are Kevin Butler (1.208), Chris Bahr (1.213), Jim Breech (1,246) and Lou Groza (1,349). He needs 14 more points to surpass Butler for 18th place, 19 more points to bypass Bahr for 17th place and 53 more points to overtake Breech for 16th place all-time. He has 148 PAT makes and attempts for the Chiefs and needs two more PAT makes and attempts to surpass Tommy Brooker (149) for third place in both categories in the Chiefs record book. He has 399 career PAT attempts and needs just one more for the 400th of his career.

EMPORIA STATE NFL: 1 (1ST WITH CHIEFS) FREE AGENT (2000) BORN: FEBRUARY 22, 1977 PAOLA, KANSAS

Pro Career: Local pigskin protégé from Paola, Kansas returns for his second training camp with the Chiefs after spending this spring in NFL Europe . . . Despite his diminutive size, is a legitimate all-purpose threat as runner, a receiver and a return man ... Shifty runner in the hole who has an extra gear once he gets in the open field . . . Rejoined the Chiefs on January 17th of this year after originally joining the club as a rookie free agent on April 20th of '99 . . . Still reigns supreme as college football's all-time leading rusher with 6,958 career yards during his four-year career at Emporia State . . . Was one of Kansas City's final training camp cuts a year ago, remaining on the roster until August 31st . . . Resigned to the club's practice squad on September 27th, serving five weeks on the practice unit before being waived on November 10th. NFL Europe (2000): Starting running back for the Berlin Thunder . . . Finished third in NFL Europe in rushing with 125 carries for 460 yards (3.7 avg.) and three scores . . . Also caught 18 passes for 131 yards (7.3 avg.) and was fourth in the league in kickoff returns, registering 17 runbacks for 345 yards, good for a 20.3-yard average . . . Had a season-high 76 yards with a four-yard score vs. the Rhein Fire (5/21).

College: Ranks as the all-time leading rusher in college football history after a prolific four-year tenure at Emporia State where he worked as a running back and return specialist . . . Three-time Division II All-America pick finished his career owning six NCAA all-division career records; rushing yards (6,958), 200-yard rushing games (15), all-purpose yards (9,301), total touchdowns (88), rushing touchdowns (81) and points (544) ... Also owns or has a share of 12 different NCAA Division II records: rushing yards in a season (2,265 in '98), 200-yard games in a season (seven in '98), consecutive 200-yard games in a season (six in '98), all-purpose yards in a season (2,819 in '98), 100-yard games in a season (11 in '96 and '98), career 100-yard games (33), most allpurpose yards by two players on the same team in a season (4,112 in '96 with Chet Pobolish), yards in a half (226 vs. Central Missouri State in '96), touchdowns in a season (32 in '97), points in a season (198 in '97), points by two players on the same team in a season (266 in '97 with Jarett Vito) and most touchdowns by two players on the same team in a season (42 in '97 with Vito) . . . Final collegiate tally showed 1,007 rushes for 6,958 yards (6.9 avg.) with 81 touchdowns to go with 110 receptions for 1,032 yards and four scores . . . Also returned two punts and one kickoff for touchdowns during his career, as well ... Including punt and kickoff return yardage, he totaled 9,301 all-purpose yards in four collegiate seasons: 6,958 rushing, 1,032 receiving, 1,207 on punt returns and 104 on kick returns . . . Led all Division II rushers with a 205.9 yards-per-game rushing average as a senior in '98 . . . Tallied 6,280 yards his final three collegiate seasons, bettering even '98 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams of Texas who amassed 6,279 yards during his four-year career for the Longhorns . . . His 6,958 career yards are also more than NCAA Division I rushing record holder, '99 Heisman Trophy winner Ron Dayne of Wisconsin who produced 6,397 ground yards during his four-year tenure with the Badgers . . . Majored in Sociology at Emporia State.

Personal: Attended Paola (Kansas) High School, just outside of Kansas City... Helped lead his prep squad to the Kansas Class 4A state championship as a senior when he posted a school-record 1,800 yards and 27 TDs... An all-state wrestler, led the mat squad to a state title as a junior,

WASHINGTON
DRAFT (NO. 3 - 1998)
NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: JUNE 20, 1975
BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA
GP/GS: (25/5) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Shifty third-year runner was one of six Kansas City backs to lead the squad in rushing in a game last season . . . Was off to a strong start to the '99 campaign, getting a careerhigh 86 yards in the season's fourth game before a hip injury slowed his progress . . . Rebounded from that injury only to have knee and ankle injuries land him on the inactive list for five of the season's final six games . . . Is expected to be in the mix once again for a leading role in the Chiefs ground attack after totaling 238 yards in just nine games a year ago . . . Possesses excellent vision and quickness, as well as breakaway speed . . . Provides an excellent change of pace from Kansas City's bruising backs such as Donnell Bennett and Tony Richardson . . . Is particularly dangerous on third-down situations when his proficient pass catching skills and elusive running abilities make him a dual threat . . . Got five games of experience as a starter in '99 which should bolster his opportunities to get on the field even more in 2000 . . . Earned a reputation in college as a big-play performer, an attribute which the Chiefs have seen glimpses of the past two seasons . . . Set single game career highs in every major rushing and receiving category last season, but is still looking for his first 100-yard performance in either area . . . Is reunited in Kansas City with running backs coach Al Lavan who tutored him for his first three years ('93-95) at the University of Washington . . . Has seen action in a total of 25 regular season NFL games with five starts . . . Owns 87 carries for 295 yards (3.4 avg.) with one touchdown to go with 28 receptions for 209 yards (6.2 avg.) ... Entered the league as a third-round selection (88th overall) of the Chiefs in the '98 NFL Draft. 1999: Saw action in eight games at RB with five starts, producing career highs with 65 carries for 238 yards and one TD ... Those 238 rushing yards ranked fourth on the squad ... Added 18 receptions for 136 yards and one special teams stop ... Was inactive for seven contests .... Recorded four carries for 13 yards and grabbed two passes for 20 yards at Chicago (9/12) ... Registered 46 yards on 11 carries vs. Detroit (9/26), stretching the ball out to the pylon on a sixyard scoring lunge for his initial pro TD . . . Made his first NFL start at RB at San Diego (10/3), establishing career highs with 22 rushes for 86 yards at San Diego and catching one pass for 13 yards . . . Started at RB, recording five carries for 28 yards vs. New England (10/10) before leaving the contest in the first quarter with a left hip contusion . . . Started at RB at Baltimore (10/21) . . . Was inactive vs. San Diego (10/31) and at Indianapolis (11/7) due to a hip injury suffered vs. New England (10/10) . . . Returned to the starting lineup at Tampa Bay (11/14) tallying 10 carries for 54 yards, including a career-long 18-yard run . . . Started at RB vs. Seattle (11/21), setting career highs with six receptions for 73 yards, including a career-long 17-yard catch . . . Was inactive vs. Oakland (11/28), at Denver (12/5) and vs. Minnesota (12/12) due to ankle and knee injuries . . . Had a tackle on kickoff coverage vs. Pittsburgh (12/18) ... Was inactive at Seattle (12/26) and vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Appeared in 16 games, seeing time on kickoff teams and as a reserve running back . . . Had 22 carries for 57 yards (2.6 avg.) . . . Had four kickoff returns for 72 yards and notched one special teams tackle . . . Carried the ball twice for no yards in his NFL debut vs. Oakland (9/6) . . . Caught his first professional pass for five yards at Jacksonville (9/13) . . . Saw his most extensive action of the season vs. Seattle (10/4), rushing a season-high 11 times for a seasonbest 28 yards in a reserve role for an injured Donnell Bennett . . . Caught a team-high four passes for 34 yards at New England (10/11) ... Carried the ball three times for seven yards at Seattle (11/8) and snared three passes for 18 yards . . . Returned four kickoffs for 72 yards in place of an injured Tamarick Vanover vs. Denver (11/16) ... Saw reserve duty at RB and played on special teams in the season's final six contests.

College: Played in 33 games (18 starts) at the University of Washington, rushing 384 times for 2,150 yards, good for an impressive 5.6 yards-per-carry average . . . His 27 career rushing TDs rank fifth in Washington history . . . Also hauled in 44 receptions for 376 yards (8.6 avg.) with one score . . . Started the first eight games of the year at tailback as a senior in '97, posting 139 carries for 862 yards (6.2 avg.) and eight touchdowns to lead the squad . . . ### WILL SHIELDS

NEBRASKA DRAFT (NO. 3 - 1993) NFL: 8 (8TH WITH CHIEFS) BORN: SEPTEMBER 15, 1971 FORT RILEY, KANSAS GP/GS: (112/111) PLAYOFFS: (6/6)

Pro Career: Five-time Pro Bowl right guard is arguably the finest guard in the entire league today and is regarded by many as the NFL's finest offensive lineman, period . . . Mild-mannered performer speaks volumes with his consistently high level of play . . . His five consecutive Pro Bowl berths give him the longest active streak of any Chief and are the most ever by a Kansas City offensive lineman ... Joins Chiefs Hall of Famer Ed Budde and as the only other guard in team history to merit a Pro Bowl invitation and could match Budde's streak of six straight AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl appearances the Chiefs Hall of Famer accumulated following the '67-72 seasons ... Received Kansas City's "franchise tag" this off-season and is scheduled to enter his eighth season in the Red and Gold in 2000 ... Has not missed a single game in his previous seven pro seasons ... Remarkably, has started his last 111 games in a Kansas City uniform and has played in all 112 games of his pro career with the Chiefs . . . Began his first NFL game on the bench as a rookie in '93, but has been a mainstay in the club's starting lineup every since starting his second professional contest . . . Possesses a quiet off-field demeanor, but has spoken volumes on the field with his consistently high level of performance . . . Is also one of the team's most active players in the Kansas City community, participating in numerous charitable projects and was named Pro Football Weekly's "Humanitarian of the Year" last season . . . Considered one of the most valuable performers on the Kansas City roster and is a key reason the Chiefs ranked third in the league in rushing from '95-99 with a 125.4 yardsper-game average over that five-year span ... Pairs with center Tim Grunhard, who earned his inaugural Pro Bowl berth last season, to give the club a combination of a guard and center coming off all-star seasons for the first time since G Bill Krisher and C Jon Gilliam were both named to the AFL All-Star Game following the '61 campaign ... Joined the late nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas as the only other active player to be named to the Chiefs 40th Anniversary Team in '99 . . . His commitment to constant improvement has been evident since joining the Chiefs in '93, as he has displayed an uncanny ability to take his game to a higher level each year . . . An instinctive performer who can out-smart, out-maneuver, or simply overpower opponents and is endowed with innate ability to decipher the best means of attacking each particular adversary . . . That intangible talent combined with an unwavering work ethic should only continue to help him prosper as he continues to expand his knowledge of the game . . . Is equally effective in the trenches or the open field and is particularly adept as lead blocker in Kansas City's running game which puts a penchant on pulling guards . . . The most decorated component of Kansas City's longstanding interior line triumvirate which includes Grunhard and fellow guard Dave Szott. That trio is referred to as a single entity in the Chiefs locker room as simply the "law firm" of Szott, Grunhard and Shields ... Was

Kansas City's first draft selection in '93, going in the third round (74th overall) . . . Arguably the steal of that year's annual selection meeting after being the 11th offensive lineman chosen. 1999: Started all 16 games at right guard for the sixth consecutive year and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year . . . Was a first team all-pro selection of The Sporting News . . . A major contributor to the Chiefs punishing ground attack which ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 130.1 yards per game . . . Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest total in the league . . . Captained the offense vs. Denver (9/19), vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Made his 100th consecutive start at right guard vs. New England (10/10) ... Captained the offense along with Dave Szott at Tampa Bay (11/14). 1998: Started at right guard in all 16 games for the fifth consecutive season, earning Pro Bowl honors for a fourth straight year . . . Credited with his first career reception in the third quarter of the monsoon game vs. Seattle (10/4), hauling in a Rich Gannon pass that was batted back at the line of scrimmage by Seahawk defensive lineman Phillip Daniels for a four-yard gain. 1997: Merited a Pro Bowl appearance for the third consecutive season for his stellar play on Kansas City's offensive line . . . Started all 16 regular season games for the fourth straight year . . . Once again decorated as one of the NFL's best at his position, earning All-NFL first team honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second team recognition from Football Digest . . . Was a first team All-AFC pick of Football News . . . Part of a Kansas City offensive line which helped the Chiefs roll up 135.7 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL, marking the third straight season the club was among the league's top five rushing offenses . . . Delivered a devastating block which helped spring Kimble Anders on a 55-yard screen play in a 35-14 romp at Carolina (9/21) ... Started in the playoffs vs. Denver (1/4/98), his sixth postseason appearance. 1996: Continued to establish himself as a force to be reckoned with on the offensive line . . . Opened all 16 games for the Chiefs at right guard for the third consecutive season and earned his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter . . . Became the first Kansas City guard to appear in back-to-back AFC-NFC Pro Bowls since Ed Budde in '71 and '72 . . . Was a first team All-AFC selection of both UPI and Pro Football Weekly . . . Helped the Chiefs average 125.6 vards per game on the ground, the league's fourth-best total. 1995: Made his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named first team All-NFL by USA Today and Sports Illustrated . . . Started all 16 regular season contests at right guard, in addition to the club's playoff tilt . . . A pivotal part of a Chiefs offensive line which cleared a path for the NFL's top rushing offense . . . It marked the first time in franchise history that Kansas City had ever led the league in that category . . . That same offensive line was also proficient in protecting the passer, allowing an AFC-low 21 sacks . . . Opened at right guard at Cleveland (9/24), but injuries to starting tackles John Alt and Jeff Criswell forced him to step in at the right tackle spot . . . Despite never previously taking a snap at that position in his life, he stepped in an performed in a winning fashion. 1994: Started all 16 regular season games plus the playoff affair at right guard ... Was a model of consistency all season long ... Key part of an offensive front that permitted just 19 sacks, the fewest in Kansas City history and the third-fewest in the NFL in '94. 1993: Made an immediate impact on the Chiefs offensive line as a rookie, starting 15 of 16 games at right guard . . . Also started three playoff contests . . . His 18 combined starts are the most ever by a Chiefs rookie . . . Team's third-round pick was named to almost every all-rookie squad, including Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest . . . Earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award, the team's most prestigious rookie honor . . . Szott, the team's starting left guard, suffered a knee injury in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5), and, the following week at Houston (9/12), Shields started at right guard and Danny Villa moved to left guard.

College: Was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice . . . Became the second Outland Trophy winner to ever play for the Chiefs (Bobby Bell, '62) . . . Was also a finalist for the Lombardi Trophy in '92 . . . Was a first team All-America selection of AP, Football News, Walter Camp and Kodak and a consensus All-Big Eight choice as a senior . . . Was a second team All-America pick by AP as well as a first team All-Big Eight choice as a junior . . . The first Husker lineman since center Dave Rimington ('80) to earn conference first team honors as a sophomore . . . Became the first player from the state of Oklahoma to play for the Huskers . . . Owns a Communications degree from Nebraska.

Personal: Was an all-state choice at Lawton (Oklahoma) High School . . . Selected state Lineman of the Year by the Daily Oklahoman . . . Lettered three years as an offensive guard and defensive tackle . . . Was also a member of the track squad . . . Established the "Will to Succeed Foundation," which has developed a number of innovative programs. A complete listing of all Shields' charitable efforts are on the foundation's website at www.will2succeed.com. Several major components of the "Will to Succeed Foundation" include: Serving as a spokesman and on the Board of Directors for the Marillac Center for Children which benefits children with emotional and behavioral disorders; "Operation Breakthrough" which helps meets the needs of disadvantaged children served by St. Vincent's Family Center; "Team Esteem," a program for inner-city youths which rewards academic and personal improvement with trips to cultural events and Chiefs games . . . DECATUR, TENNESSEE

GP/GS: (31/5) PLAYOFFS: (0/0) Pro Career: Powerful offensive lineman saw duty in all 16 games a year ago after playing in just 15 games his first three NFL seasons . . . Is pegged as Will Shields' top backup at right guard entering the 2000 campaign, but is more than capable of handling any of the three interior line positions . . . Saw game action at both left guard and center in '99, as well as playing in every game on special teams . . . Has started five games the past two seasons, earning the respect of his teammates for his ability to play at a high level in the pinch . . . Continues to improve and should play an even larger role with the club this season . . . Has spent the majority of his tenure with the Chiefs behind 11-year pro Tim Grunhard in the middle of the line and replaced an injured Grunhard in a pair of games in '99 . . . Started for an injured Dave Szott in a pair of contests at left guard, as well . . . Has made substantial progress since originally joining the squad as a seventh-round draft pick in '96 . . . Undoubtedly has learned the finer points of the game from the likes of one of the NFL's finest interior line trios of Szott, Grunhard and Shields . . . Has seen duty in a total of 31 NFL regular season contests with five starts ... Played primarily on the placement protection squad his first two seasons before getting an expanded role on offense in '98 .... Spent the spring of '97 honing his skills with the World League's Scottish Claymores . . . Selected with the second of the Chiefs three picks in the seventh round (241st overall) of the '96 draft. 1999: Saw duty in all 16 games for the first time in his career . . . Played in every contest on special teams and saw action at left guard in four games with two starts . . . Also saw reserve duty at center in two contests . . . Replaced an injured Szott in the first quarter at left quard vs. Denver (9/19) and started at that spot the next two weeks in place of Szott vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3). Also saw action at center due to an injury to Grunhard against the Chargers . . . Replaced an injured Grunhard on the last play of the third quarter at Denver (12/5) . . . Saw reserve duty at left guard at Seattle (12/26), replacing Szott who left the game in the third quarter with the flu. 1998: Appeared in 11 games, starting three games at left guard . . . Inactive vs. Oakland (9/6) . . . Was active, but did not play at Jacksonville (9/13), vs. San Diego (9/20), at Philadelphia (9/27) and at New England (10/11) ... Landed his first career start, subbing for an injured Glenn Parker at left guard vs. Pittsburgh (10/26) ... Also saw reserve action for an injured Parker vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) ... Replaced an injured Grunhard at center at Seattle (11/8) ... Started at left guard vs. Arizona (11/29) when Parker moved to left tackle for an injured Jeff Criswell . . . INDIANA
TRADE - MIAMI (1996)
NFL: 12 (5TH WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: APRIL 28, 1967
DEARBORN HEIGHTS, MICHIGAN
GP/GS: (174/0) PLAYOFFS: (8/0)

Pro Career: The most accurate kicker in Kansas City history enters his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2000, the 12th campaign of his stellar NFL career . . . Is unquestionably one of the finest competitors at his position in the league and owns the stats to prove it . . . Confident performer who excels under any circumstances, but is especially adept from long range and come crunch time . . . Has connected on 81.98% of his field goal attempts (91 of 111) in a Chiefs uniform, giving him the best make percentage of any kicker in the team's 41-year history, surpassing Nick Lowery's previous standard of 80.24% ... Also owns the best seasonal FG percentage in Kansas City history (96.30% in '97) when he was true on a remarkable 26 of 27 kicks, an accuracy rate which topped the league that season and still ranks as the fifth-best single-season mark in NFL annals . . . After just 64 games in the Red and Gold, already ranks third in franchise history in points (421), FGs made (91), FGs attempted (111) and 100-point seasons (three) ... Needs just two more made PATs to surpass Tommy Brooker (149) for third place in that category, as well . . . Has been true on an astounding 89.47% of his FG attempts (51 of 57) in Arrowhead Stadium, by far the best career mark of any Chief in the stadium's storied 28year history . . . Connected on a string of 25 consecutive field goals at Arrowhead from September 8th of '98 through November 21st of '99 . . . Drilled 22 straight field goals in all games from September 14th of '97 through September 6th of '98, the longest streak in franchise annals, bypassing the previous mark of 21 straight set by Lowery from '90-91 . . . Despite producing some of the NFL's finest kicking numbers during his previous 11 pro seasons, has still somehow been overlooked for a well-deserved Pro Bowl nod . . . Since '89, only Minnesota's Gary Anderson, a four-time Pro Bowler, has made more field goals and scored more points (274 FGs and 1,221 points) than Stoyanovich who has registered 267 FGs and scored 1,195 points over that span . . . Has truly found a groove in Kansas City the past three seasons, hitting a remarkable 85.1% of his FG attempts (74 of 87) over that span and topping the 100-point barrier each of those years . . . Is a blistering 43 of 47 (91.5%) on FGs at Arrowhead from '97-99 . . . In addition to the lofty standards he has set in Kansas City, continues his assault on the NFL's all-time record books . . . Is undoubtedly one of the most prolific and consistent placement specialists in National Football League history . . . Ranks as the sixth-most accurate field goal kicker in NFL history with a career make percentage of 80.18% and is just 1.49% off the pace for the number one spot all time ... Has connected on 267 of his 333 career attempts (80.18%), trailing only San Diego's John Carney (81.67% - 245 of 300), Jacksonville's Mike Hollis (81.60% - 133 of 163), Seattle's Todd Peterson (81.01% - 128 of 158), Detroit's Jason Hansen (80.50% - 194 of 241) and New Orleans' Doug Brien (80.26% - 122 of 152) . . . Is the only member of that list with over 250 made field goals to his credit and joins Carney and Hollis as the only three players in that group who played their home games outdoors a year ago ... Is the league's fourth-leading active scorer with 1,195 points, a figure which ranks 19th on the league's all-time charts . . . Among active players, trails only Minnesota's Anderson (1,948), Atlanta's Morten Andersen (1,840) and Tennessee's Al Del Greco (1.466) in point production ... Is 19th on the NFL's career scoring chart with kicking luminaries such as Kevin Butler (1,208), Chris Bahr (1,213), Jim Breech (1,246) and Lou Groza (1,349) ranking ahead of him on that illustrious list . . . With 53 more points would surpass Breech for the 16th all-time position . . . Clutch performer who owns 15 game-winning kicks in his career, including four with Kansas City (two each in '97 and '99) . . . Has connected on 18 of 25 kicks in game-tying or game-winning situations in the fourth quarter or overtime, good for a remarkable career 72.0 pressure-kick percentage and is four of five (80.0%) in those situations for Kansas City over the past four seasons . . . Is always a threat to put points on the board once the Chiefs get beyond the midfield stripe . . . An exceptional marksman from long range, has hit on 65.63% of his field goals (84 of 128) from 40 or more yards, the second-best mark in the NFL's alltime record book behind only Buffalo's Steve Christie (66.04% - 70 of 106) . . . Has also kicked 19 field goals of 50 or more yards since '89, a total topped only by Atlanta's Andersen and Denver's Jason Elam, who both have 22 such kicks . . . Has converted 19 of 34 attempts (55.9%) from 50+ yards in regular season play during his career and is two-of-four from that distance in the playoffs . . . Owns two of the nine longest field goals in league history . . . Booted the longest FG in Dolphins history with a

59-varder at the N.Y. Jets (11/12/89), which ties as the fifth-longest in league annals . . . Connected on a 58-vard bomb in a playoff contest vs. Kansas City (1/5/91), the longest field goal in NFL postseason ledgers, a kick which also ties as the ninth-longest in league history . . . Has registered at least one made FG of 50 yards in 10 of his previous 11 seasons . . . Also has a steady foot from close range, driving home 37 straight kicks of 40 vards or less from December of '96 through the end of the '98 campaign . . . Joined the Chiefs after a stellar seven-year run with the Miami Dolphins from '89-95 . . . Was acquired by Kansas City on August 21st of '96 in a trade with the Dolphins which sent a fifth-round '97 draft pick to the Dolphins, which that club used on DT Barren Tanner of Oklahoma . . . In 174 regular season contests. he has hit 267 of 333 field goal attempts and 394 of 399 PATs to give him a total of 1.195 points during his career . . . In '98 became just the 25th player in NFL annals to break the 1,000point barrier (Jerry Rice was the 24th) . . . His 421 points in a Chiefs uniform are third in the Kansas City books behind Lowery (1.466) and Pro Football Hall of Famer Jan Stenerud (1.231) . . . Has seen duty in eight career playoff contests, hitting eight of 12 FGs (66.7%) and is 20-20 on PATs for 44 postseason points . . . Originally entered the NFL as an eighth-round draft choice (203rd overall) of Miami in '89. At Kansas City (1996-99): Has served as Kansas City's placement specialist the past four seasons, seeing duty in all 64 regular season contests and one postseason outing ... Has connected on an impressive 91 of 111 FG attempts (81.98%) in four seasons with the Chiefs and has hit on all 148 of 148 PATs to give him 421 points in a Kansas City uniform . . . Was one of two on FGs in postseason play with Kansas City in '97 and connected on his only point after attempt. 1999: Handled the club's placement duties in all 16 contests, connecting on 21 of 28 of his FG attempts. including a 51-vard long . . . Converted on a career-high 45 PATs and made two special teams tackles ... Got his third straight 100-point season with Kansas City, meaning only Lowery (11) and Stenerud (five) have topped the century mark more seasons with the Chiefs . . . Also registered 64 kickoffs with one touchback . . . Hit 14 of his 16 FG attempts (87.5%) at Arrowhead . . . Missed a 38-yard attempt at Chicago (9/12) to snap a streak of 37 straight successful attempts from 40 yards or less dating back to '96 ... Tied a career high with four made FGs (19, 42, 44 and 27 yards) vs. Denver (9/19) ... ### DAVE SZOTT

PENN STATE DRAFT (NO. 7 - 1990) NFL: 11 (11TH WITH CHIEFS) BORN: DECEMBER 12, 1967 PASSAIC, NEW JERSEY

Pro Career: Stoic 11-year guard entering his second decade with the Chiefs in 2000 . . . Long regarded as one of the best offensive linemen in the game, has served as Kansas City's starter at left guard since the '91 campaign . . . Has consistently performed at a Pro Bowl level, although he has never received the all-star game recognition that his talents and efforts have consistently deserved . Arguably his best campaign came in '97 when he was an all-pro selection and made the All-Madden Team . . . Developed a small blood clot in his left leg this off-season which prevented him from participating fully in the club's strength and conditioning program, but is expected to return to a full workout regiment in time for training camp . . . A truly battle-tested performer who has been the anchor the left side of the Chiefs offensive line the past 10 seasons . . . Returned to the field in '99 to start 14 contests after sitting out all but one contest of the '98 campaign due to a torn left biceps muscle suffered in the season-opener . . . Appeared poised for another stellar year in '98 after earning all-pro honors for Kansas City in '97 before being felled by the major injury of his NFL career . . . Was one one of three Chiefs to play for the club every year of the '90s, joining the late Derrick Thomas and center Tim Grunhard . . . Since '93 has combined with Grunhard and right guard Will Shields to form one of the most dynamic interior line combinations in the entire NFL ... That trio has become an offensive institution in Kansas City, typically referred to as simply the single entity of Szott/Grunhard/Shields . . . A consummate professional whose trademark is his vigilant preparation whether it be on the practice field, in the weight room or in the meeting room, scrutinizing opponents on video . . . Is among the league's most fundamentally sound players at left guard and is renowned for his blocking tenacity both on the line of scrimmage, as well as in the open field . . . A true team player who is never satisfied with his own efforts and has tirelessly worked to elevate his performance year-in and year-out ... Finally received some well-deserved national acclaim following the '97 campaign when he received first team all-pro honors from AP as well as his initial berth on the prestigious All-Madden Team ... Entered the league as an unsung seventh-round draft pick in '90, but has utilized his "hardhat and lunchpail" approach to the game to develop into one of the most devastating drive blockers and powerful pass protectors in the league . . . Has seen action in 141 regular season contests with 135 starts . . . Dependable performer who had missed just two out of a possible 128 career games before tearing his biceps in '98 . . . Prior to that injury, he had opened all 16 games for the Chiefs six out of the previous seven seasons and had a streak of 77 consecutive starts dating back to the '93 campaign snapped ... Owns a share of a Chiefs record with appearances in 10 postseason games (all starts), sharing that honor with Thomas, Grunhard and John Alt . . . Since joining the club in '90, the Chiefs have enjoyed unparalleled success in protecting the passer as well as running the ball. During Szott's tenure, Kansas City's rushing offense has ranked in the NFL's top five on five occasions (third in '91, first in '95, fourth in '96, fifth in '97 and fourth in '99), while also relinquishing four of the lowest sack totals in franchise history, including a franchiselow 19 sacks in '94, 21 sacks in '95 and '91, and 22 QB take-downs in '90 . . . From '96-97 was responsible for helping propel the league's third-best rushing unit (135.7 yards per game), while relinquishing the NFL's third-fewest sacks over that span (80) . . . Discovered in the bottom half of the '90 NFL Draft, going to Kansas City in the seventh round (180th overall). 1999: Opened 14 games at left guard . . . Helped open holes for the Chiefs rushing attack which averaging 130.1 yards per game to rank fourth in the NFL . . . Also helped protect QB Elvis Grbac, who was sacked just 26 times, the fourth-lowest in the league ... Started at Chicago (9/12), returning to the starting lineup for the first time since suffering a biceps injury vs. Oakland (9/6/98), but left the game early with an injured right knee . . . Started the following week vs. Denver (9/19), but was forced to leave again due to that knee injury and was inactive the next two games vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) . . . Returned to the starting lineup vs. New England (10/10) ... Captained the offense along with Will Shields at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Captained the offense along with TE Tony Gonzalez vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Started at left guard at Seattle (12/26), but left the game in the third guarter due to a severe case of the flu . . . Captained the offense along with Tim Grunhard vs. Oakland (1/2/00). 1998: Captained the Chiefs offensive in '98 along with Elvis Grbac, who also suffered a major injury (shoulder) in the season-opener vs. Oakland (9/6). Tore his left biceps in the second quarter vs. the Raiders and did not take another snap all season . . . Started that game at left guard and was inactive for the final 15 contests, snapping his string of 77 consecutive regular season starts . . . Had hoped to return to the line-up for a possible playoff run, but was placed on injured reserve list on December 3rd. 1997: Started all 16 regular season contests for the Chiefs for the fourth consecutive year . . . One of the most decorated guards in the entire NFL last year and justifiably so . . . Was one of the most dominant and consistent offensive lineman in the league last year . . . Earned a richly-deserved acclaim on AP's first team all-pro squad and was also a member of the All-Madden Team . . . Was a first team All-NFL selection of Pro Football Weekly, Sports Illustrated and Football Digest . . . Earned "All-Joe" Team honors from USA Today, which annually honors the league's top blue-collar performers . . . An integral part of a Chiefs offensive line which helped Kansas City's offense rack up 135.7 yards per game on the ground to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the entire league, marking the third consecutive year the club has ranked among the NFL's top five rushing clubs ... Joined Grunhard and Shields, throwing three sensational open field blocks to set up Kimble Anders for a 55-yard screen play for a score at Carolina (9/21) . . . Started his 10th career postseason contest vs. Denver (1/4/98). 1996: Started all 16 regular season contests for the Chiefs for the third consecutive year . . . Helped Kansas City's offense rank among the NFL's top five rushing clubs for the second straight year as the Chiefs racked up 125.6 yards per game to rank fourth in the league in that department . . . Played in his 100th career contest vs. Pittsburgh (10/7) and started the 100th game of his NFL tenure vs. San Diego (11/24) ... Finished every game of the year, except for the Chicago contest (11/17) when he was forced to exit with a hip strain. 1995: Started all 16 games for the Chiefs at left guard and opened the club's playoff contest at that position, as well . . . Part of an under-rated offensive line which opened holes for Kansas City runners, who paced the NFL with a league-high 2,222 yards on the season . . . Continued to uphold the club's standard of offensive excellence in quarterback protection, limiting opponents to just 21 sacks, the second-lowest tally in franchise annals . . . Opened the game, but did miss some action vs. Denver (12/17) due to a hand injury. 1994: Served as the Chiefs most consistent and productive offensive lineman . . . Started all 16 regular season contests plus the playoff tilt . . . Major part of an offensive front that allowed just 19 sacks, the fewest in Chiefs history and third-fewest in the NFL in '94 ... Joined fellow offensive linemen Tim Grunhard and Will Shields as the only members of the Kansas City offense to open all 16 games. 1993: Steady performer started 13 of 14 games at left guard ... Was inactive against both Houston (9/12) and Denver (9/20) because of a knee injury suffered in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5) . . . Did not start but played some vs. L.A. Raiders (10/3) while he was still recovering from the injury ... . Had not missed a game in three previous NFL seasons . . . Started each of the final 12 games plus the team's three playoff contests .. Helped improve the team's rushing output from 3.4 yards per carry in '92 to 3.7 in '93 . . . Kansas City allowed just six sacks in the final six games of the regular season. 1992: Opened all 16 games at left guard for the second straight season . . . Also started the playoff game vs. San Diego (1/2/93) at left guard . . . Was slowed at the start of the season by a back injury that kept him from participating in much of training camp or the preseason. 1991: Opened all 16 regular season games and both playoff contests at left guard . . . Key ingredient in the NFL's fifth-ranked offense . . . Helped Christian Okoye collect his second 1,000-yard season . . . Part of line that yielded just 21 sacks, the fewest in the conference and third-fewest in the league. 1990: Surprise of the '90 draft played in all 16 games as a rookie, starting the final 11 . . . Was a unanimous all-rookie pick, receiving the honor from every outlet that picks a team . . . Backed up both left guard Frank Winters and right guard David Lutz the first five weeks of the season, then started Week 6 at left guard, Week 7 at right guard, and then left guard the rest of the way . . . Also started the playoff game at Miami (1/5/91) . . . Integral part of an offensive line that paved the way for two of the AFC's Top 10 rushers: Barry Word (1,015 yards) and Okoye (805) . . . Offensive line permitted just 22 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the NFL.

College: Made rapid and highly successful transition to offensive guard after playing sophomore and junior years on defense . . . Started nine games at strongside guard as a senior, helping All-America running back Blair Thomas and his running mates average 213.9 rushing yards per game, an improvement of 48.4 yards from the previous season . . Missed two games with muscle spasms in his neck . . . Played in '90 Senior Bowl . . . Started every game at nose tackle for Nittany Lions as a junior, recording 41 tackles and one sack . . . Moved to defense after being a reserve offensive guard as a freshman . . . Sports Illustrated named him the fourth-best freshman of the '86 class; Atlanta's Jeff George was No. 1.

NFL: 3 (3RD WITH CHIEFS)
BORN: MARCH 3, 1976
VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI
GP/GS: (28/1) PLAYOFFS: (0/0)

Pro Career: Supremely talented third-year cornerback who gave the NFL a mere glimpse of his vast athletic skills in '99 ... Was unquestionably the most improved performer on Kansas Citv's roster a year ago and looks to further build on that progress in 2000 . . . After appearing in just two games on defense and playing primarily on special teams as a rookie in '98, burst upon the scene as the Chiefs nickel corner in all 16 games in '99 . . . Also started one contest in place of an injured James Hasty at left corner . . . His increased discipline and focus undoubtedly paid big dividends in '99 and contributed to his more consistent level of play ... Frequently displayed his recovery speed and remarkable vertical leap, batting down balls and coming up with big plays in key situations ... His 12 passes defensed tied as the second-highest tally on the team last season ... Should challenge for a starting role at right corner in 2000 and will undoubtedly be on the field even more in his third pro campaign . . . A top candidate to continue Kansas City's solid legacy of top performers at the cornerback position . . . Is also a key special teams performer who racked up 10 stops in the kicking game in '99 and had three blocked kicks to his credit in the collegiate ranks ... Has made the remarkable jump to the ranks of the NFL's up-and-coming cornerbacks after playing safety at the University of Nebraska . . . Still possesses the hard-hitting skills he displayed in college, while continuing to hone his coverage abilities . . . Can also step up to the line in run support or blitz situations . . . Owns 28 games of regular season NFL experience with one start . . . Has tallied three interceptions for no yards with 24 tackles (16 solo), 12 passes defensed, 16 special teams tackles and one QB pressure ... Joined the Chiefs as the club's first of two selections in the seventh round (216th overall) of the '98 NFL Draft, 1999; Saw duty at CB in 16 games (one start), tallying 30 tackles (20 solo), three INTs, 12 passes defensed and one QB pressure ... Also saw action on special teams in every game, producing 10 tackles in the kicking game ... Recorded two solo tackles and one QB pressure at Chicago (9/12) ... Produced his first NFL interception off Bubby Brister in a 26-10 vs. Denver (9/19) . . . Collected one tackle and two passes defensed vs. Detroit (9/26) ... WIDE RECEIVER . 6.3 . 205

JACKSON STATE

DRAFT (NO. 1 - 2000)

BORN: OCTOBER 6, 1977

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

Kansas City's first round draft choice (21st overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft ... The first wide receiver tabbed by the Chiefs in the first round since the club took Anthony Hancock from Tennessee in '82

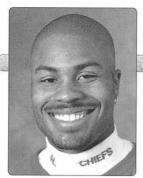

Just one of seven players in Jackson State annals to be selected in the draft's opening round, joining CB Rashard Anderson who was taken just two picks later (23rd overall) by the Carolina Panthers ... Other Jackson State alums picked in the drafts opening round include: late Pro Football Hall of Famer RB Walter Payton (Chicago - '75), WR Jerome Barkum (N.Y. Jets - '72), DE Donald Reese (Miami - '74), LB Robert Brazile (Houston - '75) and G Lester Holmes (Philadelphia - '93) ... Was the first Jackson State player selected by Kansas City since the club took WR Tim Barnett in the third round of the '91 draft ... In addition to Barkum and Barnett, other notable pass catchers to come out of Jackson State include the likes of current NFL performers Jimmy Smith (Jacksonville) and Cory Bradford (Green Bay) ... Possesses an excellent combination of size and speed ... A physical performer who isn't afraid to go up and grab the ball out of a crowd ... Owns fluid running skills and is dangerous in the open field once he makes the catch ... Pulled down 175 passes during his four seasons with the Tigers to surpass the old standard of 171 established by Willie Richardson ('59-62), who spent nine NFL campaigns with the Colts ('63-69, '71) and Dolphins ('70) ... Ranks second in school history behind Richardson (3,616) with 3,188 career receiving yards and also ranks second behind Richardson (36) in career TD catches with 34 ... Topped the 1,000-yard mark as both a junior and senior, owning two of the three 1,000-yard receiving seasons in school history. Richardson had the other with 1,237 yards in '60 ... Also registered seven carries for 133 yards and two TDs during his collegiate career ... Got 125 of his 175 receptions, 2,397 of his 3,188 yards and 30 of his 34 TDs in his final two seasons with the Tigers ... Joins fellow SWAC performer S Greg Wesley of Arkansas-Pine Bluff, who was drafted in the third round of this year's draft by Kansas City. 1999: Started all 11 games, finishing the year with 63 receptions for 1.139 yards (18.1 avg.) and 13 scores ... His 63 catches ranked second in school annals (Ron Lewis - 67 in '88), while his yardage tally was third in school history and his TD tally was second behind his 17 scores in '98 ... A first team All-America selection of SportsPage.com ... An All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first-team choice, as well ... Ranked 11th in the nation with an average of 103.6 receiving yards per game ... Also carried the ball five times for 100 yards (20.0 avg) with a pair of touchdowns ... Opened the season with four catches for 125 yards and a score vs. Howard ... Caught seven balls for 92 yards vs. Tennessee State and got a 48-yard TD vs. Grambling ... Snared six passes for 109 yards and two TDs vs. Mississippi Valley State, including a TD on his final touch of the day ... All four of his catches resulted in touchdowns as he finished the day with 103 yards vs. Alabama State ... First touch of the day resulted in a 16-yard TD run vs. Southern University, meaning over the course of three games, he scored six consecutive times when he got the ball in his hands ... Amassed 118 yards with a score on nine catches vs. Alabama A&M ... Ran for a career-long 79-yard TD vs. Arkansas - Pine Bluff and recorded five catches for 85 yards ... Hauled in a season-best 10 balls for 166 yards vs. New Haven ... Gained a career-high 200 yards and had three touchdowns on seven receptions vs. Alcorn State, recording a career-long 95-yard TD in that contest ... Closed out his career with six receptions for 147 yards in the Heritage Bowl vs. Southern University. 1998: Started all 11 games, leading the team with 62 receptions for a school-record 1,258 yards (20.3 avg.) and 17 touchdowns ... His 17 TDs also set a school mark ... Those seasonal yardage and TD marks were two of the longest-standing records in the JSU books. The previous receiving yardage standard was 1,227 yards set by Willie Richardson in '60, while Richardson also had the previous TD catch record with 11 in '62 ... Remarkably, all 17 of his scores came in the club's final six games ... His 62 catches also ranked third in school history ... Was a first team All-America selection of The Sports Network and was a first team All-SWAC pick ... Had seven 100-yard games on the year, beginning with a seven-catch, 100-yard outing vs. Florida A&M ... Got 10 catches for 162 yards vs. Mississippi Valley State ... Registered seven catches for 147 yards with touchdowns of 13, 62 and seven yards vs. Texas Southern ... Had TD receptions for 37, 35 and 52 yards vs. Alabama State ... Caught five passes for 111 yards, including a season-long 81-yard touchdown vs. Southern University ... Set a single-game school record with five touchdown catches (50, 13, seven, 35 and 11 yards) vs. Grambling, finishing the game with eight catches for 201 yards ... Got a 71-yard TD vs. Arkansas - Pine Bluff ... Caught three balls for 92 yards and a 56-yard TD vs. Prairie View A&M ... Closed out the season by hauling in seven passes for 114 yards with three TDs vs. Alcorn State, 1997: Saw action in all 11 games with six starts ... Earned All-SWAC second team honors after ranking third on the team with 46 receptions for 739 yards (16.1 avg) and four touchdowns ... Got his first career touchdown on a 38-yard grab vs. Mississippi Valley State, finishing the day with season highs in both catches (nine) catches and yards (176) ... Had seven receptions for 126 yards vs. Texas Southern ... Gained 85 yards on eight catches, including an eight-yard score vs. Southern University ... Hauled in four passes for 160 yards with TD catches of 36 and 88 yards vs. Alcorn State. His 88-yard grab was the team's longest catch of the season. 1996: Appeared in eight games as a redshirt freshman, finishing the year with four catches for 52 yards, good for a 13.0-yard average. 1995: Redshirted as a true freshman.

BOSTON COLLEGE DRAFT (NO. 6 - 2000) BORN: JUNE 11, 1977

FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA

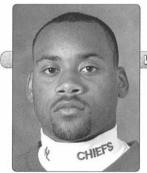

College Career: Powerful run blocker and steady pass protector who joined the Chiefs as the club's sixth-round selection (188th overall) in the 2000 draft ... Talented pro prospect who started 31 of 33 career games during three seasons at Boston College ... Is reunited in Kansas City with former college teammate, RB Mike Cloud, who the Chiefs tabbed in the second round of the '99 NFL Draft ... Was one of the key components in a Boston College offensive line that helped Cloud become the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards ... In three collegiate seasons recorded 147 knockdown blocks ... Played both right and left tackle during his tenure at Boston College, but will likely work behind Victor Riley at the right tackle post for the Chiefs ... Gives the Chiefs yet another talented, young offensive tackle on the roster. 1999: Started all 11 games at right tackle ... Earned first team All-Big East Conference accolades ... Registered a career-best 63 knockdowns ... Got 12 knockdowns in the season-opener vs. Baylor ... Upended a pair of defenders on QB Tim Hasselbeck's game-winning 36-yard scoring strike to Dedrick Dewalt vs. Pittsburgh as the offense generated 422 vards. 1998: Returned to the roster after a one-year absence and made a powerful impact ... ### CHIEFS HISTORY

1959 — Lamar Hunt established and organized the American Football League with six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis (Buffalo and Boston were added and Oakland replaced Minneapolis). "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Boston's Billy Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL." An unknown assistant at Miami (Florida), Hank Stram, was hired by Hunt to coach the club.

1960 — For their inaugural season in the Cotton Bowl, the Texans had a strong home-state identity with quarterback Cotton Davidson (Baylor), fullback Jack Spikes (Texas Christian) and running back Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league in rushing with 875 yards and touchdowns with nine. The Texans had a flashy, high scoring club, and only three close losses kept them from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted E.J. Holub, described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers – Jerry Mays, Fred Arbanas and Jim Tyrer.

1962 — Stram brought in quarterback Len Dawson, who spent six uneventful years in the NFL, to quarterback the club. Another key addition was Kansas running back Curtis McClinton. Haynes enjoyed his finest season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 touchdowns. The Texans clinched the Western Division championship in November and finished with an 11-3 record. AFL writers voted Dawson, who threw 29 touchdown passes, player of the year, and Stram coach of the year. Dallas won the AFL Championship on December 23 when Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory over the Houston Oilers.

1963 — On May 14, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City and renaming it the Chiefs. H. Roe Bartle, Kansas City's mayor nicknamed "Chief," promised to enlarge Municipal Stadium and guaranteed Hunt three times as many season ticket sales as the Texans had in Dallas. Rookie Stone Johnson suffered a fatal injury in a preseason game and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory over Denver, but managed just one win and two ties in its next nine games. Three highly-touted rookies, Buck Buchanan, Ed Budde and Bobby Bell, became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team.

1964 — The Chiefs struggled to a 7-7 record as many of the team's best players, including E.J. Holub, Fred Arbanas and Johnny Robinson, missed several games with injuries. An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

1965 — The Chiefs made Kansas star Gale Sayers their firstround draft pick, but lost him in a bidding war with the Chicago Bears. The Chiefs were able to nab wide receiver Otis Taylor from Prairie View, while Mack Lee Hill, a virtually unknown free agent running back, muscled his way into the starting lineup. In a relatively routine knee surgery late in the season, Hill died on the operating table. The club finished with a 7-5-2 record with three losses by a field goal or less.

1966 — The Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy winner Mike Garrett from USC, even though he was drafted by his hometown Los Angeles Rams of the NFL. A crowd of 43,885, the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City, turned out for the home opener against the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but, after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got kicker Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Garrett earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors, rushing for 801 yards with a lofty 5.5 yards-per-carry average. Dawson led the league in passing as the Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland for the Western Division title.

1967 - Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs dominated the Bills in Buffalo, 31-7, on New Year's day to win the franchise's second AFL crown and a place in the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. On January 15 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers. The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10. The Chiefs looked to the draft to strengthen their defense and found a pair of linebacking gems in Willie Lanier from Morgan State and Jim Lynch from Notre Dame. The club's special teams also got a boost with the addition of kicker Jan Stenerud and return man Noland (Super Gnat) Smith. On August 23, the Chiefs and Chicago Bears played a preseason game in the first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City. The Chiefs throttled the Bears, 66-24, at Municipal Stadium. Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. Later in the year, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of a sports complex. Injuries again hit the club hard in the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

1968 — Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time as the Chiefs finished the year with a 12-2 record and a tie with the Raiders for the Western Division championship. Oakland easily defeated Kansas City, in the AFL Playoffs 41-6, to advance to the AFL Championship Game against the New York Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs opened the season with impressive wins over San Diego and Boston, but lost Dawson with a knee injury. The next week, backup Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle, leaving the team's most crucial position in the hands of two-year pro Mike Livingston, who engineered a seven-game win streak. Two months into the campaign, Dawson returned, helping the Chiefs to an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland, who was 12-1-1. In the first round of the playoffs, Kansas City rode its dominating defense en route to a 13-6 win over the Super Bowl champion New York Jets, while Oakland pounded Houston, 56-7.

1970 - On January 4, the Chiefs defeated the Raiders, 17-7, to capture the AFL crown. It was the final game in AFL history, as the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions. The biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs became World Champions by turning back the Minnesota Vikings, by a score of 23-7, in Super Bowl IV. The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League, and wore patches on their jerseys saying "AFL-10," which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The following season would see the AFL merge with the NFL. Oddsmakers established the Vikings as twotouchdown favorites, yet the Chiefs used three Stenerud field goals and a Garrett touchdown run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard touchdown pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory. Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Despite injuries to key players and the trade of Garrett to the Chargers, the Chiefs finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, but did not qualify for the playoffs.

1971 — Taylor led the NFL in receiving yards with 1,110 and Ed Podolak became the team's top rusher. The linebacking trio of Lanier, Bell and Lynch was the league's best. In the season's next-to-last game with the Raiders, a late field goal by Stenerud gave the Chiefs a 16-14 victory and a Western Division title. The team finished with a 10-3-1 mark, one-and-a-half games ahead of Oakland. Kansas City and Miami hooked up for one of pro football's most memorable games on Christmas Day in the first round of the playoffs. The Eastern Division champion Dolphins won a dramatic double-overtime thriller, 27-24, in the longest game in NFL history. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 yards on rushes, receptions and returns. It would be the last game played in Municipal Stadium.

1972 — Chiefs founder Lamar Hunt became the first AFL figure to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29 in Canton, Ohio. All-pro safety Johnny Robinson retired and Dawson ended speculation about his retirement by signing a two-year contract. The Chiefs opened play in Arrowhead Stadium, one of the most magnificent facilities in pro sports. The largest crowd in Chiefs history, 82,094, watched the home team defeat the Raiders, 27-14, on November 5. The Chiefs got off to a 5-3 start, then lost three straight, and ended the year with an 8-6 record and out of playoff contention.

1973 — The defense remained solid but the offense struggled as Dawson was hurt for much of the season. Livingston led the club into first place in late November, but a pair of losses and a tie, gave the team its second straight second-place finish.

1974 — The Chiefs age was beginning to show. Several of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, Tyrer was 35, Bell, Buchanan and Budde were 34, Hill was 33, and Taylor was 32. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was Emmitt Thomas' league-leading 12 interceptions. Bell, an eight-time all-pro, concluded his playing career.

1975 — Paul Wiggin, an assistant coach with the San Francisco 49ers, replaced Stram as the team's head coach and directed the Chiefs to four wins in his first five games. The high point of the season was a 34-31 upset of the Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football. Injuries crippled the team, leading to a second straight 5-9 finish. Dawson, the top passer in Chiefs history, announced his retirement after 14 memorable seasons with the franchise. After eight all-pro seasons, Buchanan also finished his last year of play.

1976 — After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starting quarterback. Even though he played well, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record.

1977 — The Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice. Tom Bettis replaced Wiggin at midseason as the team's head coach, but was able to win just once in seven tries. The heart and soul of the Chiefs defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, a pair of 11-year veterans, retired after the season's end.

1978 — Marv Levy, the former head coach of the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes, was named head coach. His first four draft picks were defensive players, including standout defensive end Art Still of Kentucky and linebacker Gary Spani of Kansas State. Levy installed the Wing-T as his offense. The Chiefs had the second-most productive ground game in the league and a record five different runners had 100-yard games, including Tony Reed, the team's first 1,000-yard back in 11 years. The team showed signs of improvement, and ended their first 16-game regular season with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — With the second overall pick in the draft, the team landed Colorado State defensive end Mike Bell, a pass rush specialist and perfect complement for Still. Clemson quarterback Steve Fuller was also chosen in the first round by the Chiefs, and by midseason, he had replaced Livingston. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs improved from a 1-3 start to finish 7-9.

1980 — In a then-controversial move, the Chiefs released Stenerud, the club's all-time leading scorer, in favor of journeyman Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. Despite injuries to key players, the Chiefs made steady improvement. The team came back from an 0-4 start to finish 8-8. The defense came of age with Still, Spani, safety Gary Barbaro and cornerback Gary Green playing major roles. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, little-known Bill Kenney took over and led the club to two victories in the final three weeks.

1981 — Kenney remained at quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers in Pittsburgh. The Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before dropping three straight games in December. A season-ending victory over the Vikings guaranteed the Chiefs their first winning record since 1973. Rookie running back Joe Delaney, a second-round pick from Northwest Louisiana rushed for a then club-record 1,121 yards.

1982 — The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before the players' strike began. The walkout would not be settled until mid-November, and the Chiefs dropped the first four games following the strike's end. Victories in two of the season's final three games left the club with a 3-6 record.

1983 — Tragedy struck the club on June 29, when Delaney, the team's young star running back, drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. A month later, linebacker Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. John Mackovic, in his first season as the club's head coach, had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney as the running game suffered. Kenney was coming of age, throwing for 4,348 yards, a Chiefs record and then the fourth-highest total in NFL history. His primary target was wide receiver Carlos Carson, who hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying offense, the final result was a 6-10 finish.

1984 — The Chiefs used their two first-round draft picks to bolster their lines, picking Pitt All-America nose tackle Bill Maas then lowa's huge offensive tackle John Alt. Maas had an immediate impact and was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Todd Blackledge, a first-round pick the previous season, opened the first six contests and had the club 3-3. Inconsistency marked the rest of the season which saw the team conclude the year with an 8-8 mark.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start, winning three of their first four games. One of the wins, a 28-7 drubbing of the Seattle Seahawks on September 29, saw free safety Deron Cherry tie an NFL record with four interceptions. That would be one of the few remaining bright spots in a 6-10 season.

1986 — Linebacker Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2. The pieces started coming together for Mackovic, who directed the club to a 7-3 record 10 weeks into the season. The club's defense and special teams were especially effective. Three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy, though. A 37-10 win over the Broncos at Arrowhead and the team's first-ever win at L.A. Memorial Coliseum, a 20-17 squeaker over the Raiders, put the 9-6 Chiefs in position to reach the playoffs. A December 21 date in Pittsburgh was all that stood in their way. Despite being outgained 515 yards to 171, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came from the special teams. That earned the club an AFC Wild Card berth, the club's first playoff appearance in 15 years. On December 28 at Giants Stadium, the Jets defeated the upstart Chiefs, 35-15.

1987 — Quarterback Len Dawson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8 in Canton, just a few miles from his hometown of Alliance, Ohio. Special teams coordinator Frank Gansz was promoted to head coach, and he quickly used the draft to solve the Chiefs running woes by selecting nimble Paul Palmer of Temple in the first round and powerful Enugu, Nigeria, native Christian Okoye from tiny Azusa Pacific in the season-opening win over the Chargers as Palmer returned a kickoff for a touchdown and Okoye dashed for 105 yards. The Chiefs suffered a setback at Seattle the following week, just before another players' strike took place. NFL teams put together "replacement" squads, mostly consisting of players cut in training camp. The Chiefs version lost all three games, and by the time the strike was finished, the team stood 1-4. Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game skid. Kansas City won three of its last five for a 4-11 mark.

1988 — Defensive end Neil Smith of Nebraska became the team's first-round pick after the club traded its second-round choice to the Detroit Lions in order to move one place up in the first round. For the second straight season, the Chiefs were able to win just four times. Twelve-year veteran Steve DeBerg, acquired in an offseason trade with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, became the club's starting quarterback. On December 19, one day after the season's end, Carl Peterson took over as the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer.

1989 — Marty Schottenheimer, who directed the Cleveland Browns to two AFC Championship Game appearances, became the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24. With the fourth overall pick in the draft, the team selected Butkus Award winner Derrick Thomas, Alabama's All-America linebacker. The team started slow, winning three of its first eight games. DeBerg, Ron Jaworski, and Steve Pelluer each took turns as the team's starting quarterback. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs one-half game shy of a playoff berth. The 8-7-1 record was good for second place in the division. Okoye set a club record and became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 - Defensive tackle Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 4. The Chiefs got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six games, before tearing up the league in the home stretch, winning six of its last seven outings. The team's 11-5 record was the club's best since the 1969 Super Bowl season and advanced the team to the playoffs for just the second time since 1971. Free agent running back Barry Word topped the team with 1,015 yards, but the unquestioned leader on offense was DeBerg, who tossed 23 touchdown passes with just four interceptions. Kansas City led the NFL with 60 sacks, including 20 by Thomas, the NFL's sack king. An NFL-record seven of Thomas' sacks came on November 11 against Seattle, a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second touchdown by future Chief Dave Krieg. That loss would bring on the furious stretch run.

1991 — On January 5 at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami, the Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss to the Dolphins in the AFC First Round Playoff tilt. On July 27, Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs enjoyed another strong 10-6 regular season. The home portion of the schedule was highlighted by a pair of prime-time Monday night affairs. On October 7, the Chiefs toppled the defending AFC Champion Bills, 33-6, in the club's first home Monday night game in eight years. Three weeks later, the Chiefs tallied a thrilling comefrom-behind win over the Raiders in front of a national audience. On December 28, the Chiefs played host to the Raiders in the first playoff game ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs posted their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 decision over the Raiders as Kansas City forced six Los Angeles turnovers.

1992 — On January 5, the Chiefs visited Buffalo for an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup. The Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs in a 37-14 setback that propelled Buffalo toward the Super Bowl. A melancholy summer awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22, and Hall of Famer Buck Buchanan on July 16. Six-time Pro Bowl safety Deron Cherry, owner of 50 career interceptions, announced his retirement in July. The Chiefs battled through an injury-riddled season, during which a playoff berth never seemed certain. On the regular season's final Sunday, the Chiefs faced the Broncos in a game that would send the winner into the playoffs. The Chiefs defense tallied three touchdowns and "Plan B" signee Dave Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as the Chiefs buried the Broncos, 42-20. First-round draft pick Dale Carter of Tennessee earned the Bert Bell trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year.

1993 — On January 2 in San Diego, the Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as the Chargers posted a 17-0 victory. The Chiefs spent the off-season retooling their offense. On April 20, the Chiefs traded for quarterback Joe Montana, who directed the San Francisco 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. The Chiefs swapped their first-round pick in the '93 draft to the 49ers in exchange for Montana, safety David Whitmore and San Francisco's third-round pick in '94. Kansas City wasn't done loading up the offense. On June 9 the club signed unrestricted free agent running back Marcus Allen, a certain Hall of Farmer and the MVP of Super Bowl XVIII. The additions paid off as the Chiefs went 11-5, won their first AFC West title since '71 and appeared in the AFC Championship Game.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the NFL's all-time leading passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a first-round playoff win over Pittsburgh on Jan. 8. The Chiefs trailed the Steelers, 17-10, entering the fourth quarter, and then, 24-17, as the two-minute warning sounded. On fourth-and-goal from the seven, Montana fired a gametying TD pass to wide receiver Tim Barnett. In overtime, kicker Nick Lowery booted a 32-yard field goal as Arrowhead erupted. On Jan. 16, the Chiefs traveled to Houston, where the Oilers sat poised for their 12th straight win. The heavily-favored Oilers opened up a 13-7, fourth-quarter lead, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind. First, he hit wide receiver J.J. Birden for an 11-yard TD, then he found wide receiver Willie Davis open in the end zone from 18 yards out. Allen nailed the game shut with a 21-yard TD dash and the Chiefs found themselves on the favorable side of a 28-20 decision. The Chiefs playoff journey ended in Buffalo on Jan. 23 as the Bills won their fourth straight AFC title game by a score of 30-13. The Chiefs added cornerback Mark Collins and linebacker George Jamison through free agency and quarterback Steve Bono and safety William White through trades. Also new at Arrowhead in '94 was a grass playing surface, the first ever at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs started the year with three straight wins, but found themselves 8-7 with their playoff hopes in jeopardy. In the do-or-die season finale at the L.A. Coliseum, Allen had his finest game as a Chief, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. On New Year's Eve, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs, dropping a 27-17 decision at Miami.

1995 — Quarterback Joe Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL, including the last two with the Chiefs, on April 18. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs. The team responded by posting an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and in games played at Arrowhead Stadium. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense scoring defense and turnover ratio, the three hallmarks of a solid football team. During the first six weeks of the season, the Chiefs were victorious in three overtime games. In an October 9 thriller on Monday Night Football, first-year wide receiver Tamarick Vanover returned a punt 86 yards for a touchdown in overtime to defeat the San Diego Chargers.

1996 — On a blustery, January 7 afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and wind chills at -9, the Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game to the Indianapolis Colts, 10-7, at Arrowhead Stadium. More Chiefs (seven) played in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl on February 4 than any other AFC team: fullback Kimble Anders, quarterback Steve Bono, cornerback Dale Carter, defensive tackle Dan Saleaumua, guard Will Shields, defensive end Neil Smith, and linebacker Derrick Thomas. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record and ended a six-year streak of playoff qualification. During the season, running back Marcus Allen set three NFL records: most career rushing touchdowns, most games played by a running back and most pass receptions by a running back.

1997 - After missing the playoffs in '96 for the first time since '89, Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97. The Chiefs line-up featured 11 new starters, headlined by free agent signees QB Elvis Grbac, WR Andre Rison and TE Ted Popson on offense. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft - S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards - emerged as starters, as well. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record and their second AFC West title in the past three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came on September 8 at Oakland when Grbac collaborated with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with seconds remaining to provide the Chiefs with a 28-27 win over the Raiders. After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune finally appeared to run out on November 3 vs. Pittsburgh when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, back-up QB Rich Gannon would come on to preserve a win in that contest and lead the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings. K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG to give Kansas City a 24-22 win over Denver on November 16. Grbac returned to the starting line-up for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans as the squad finished the regular season with an 8-0 tally at Arrowhead Stadium.

1998 - The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off for the third time when 12-4 Denver visited 13-3 Kansas City for an AFC Divisional Playoff contest on January 4. Despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foes. Six players represented Kansas City at the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, including CB James Hasty and WR Andre Rison who made their first appearances as members of the Chiefs. On April 9, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career, which included five stellar seasons in Kansas City. A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory over the Oakland Raiders. Starting quarterback Elvis Grbac was lost for a considerable amount of the season due to a shoulder on the final play of the game's first half, while all-pro left guard Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear in the second stanza of that same contest. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injury as the Chiefs went 7-9 to miss the playoffs for just the second time during the '90s, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons. The club was also hampered by crucial penalties, as the team set dubious NFL records for penalties (158), penalty yardage (1,304) and first downs allowed by penalty (58).

1999 — On January 11, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons of distinguished service with the club. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles, qualified for the playoffs seven times and made the team's first-ever appearance in the AFC Championship Game in '93.

Schottenheimer posted a 54-26 record (.675) against his AFC West opponents, including a 18-3 mark (.857) against the Raiders. A veteran of 17 NFL seasons as an assistant coach, Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. Over those four years, the Chiefs won two AFC West titles and posted a 23-9 (.719) record against the rest of the division. The club responded their new leader's high-energy style as Cunningham produced a 9-7 record in his initial season at the club's helm, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in the NFL in '99. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver on December 5. Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the '90s with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Perhaps two biggest factors in the Chiefs success during the decade were the takeaway/giveaway column and the running game. Under Cunningham, the team firmly regained their grips on both categories in '99. Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. Cunningham's "maul ball" running philosophy proved fruitful as the Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing with 130.1 yards per game. After a three-game mid-season losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string and needed a win in one of its last two contests to secure a postseason berth. A 23-14 loss at Seattle on December 26 would set up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. Oakland.

2000 - A win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead in the regular season finale on January 2 of the new century would seal the AFC West title for the Chiefs, while a loss would put the club out of the playoffs. Kansas City leaped out to a 17-0 lead vs. the Raiders, but a blocked punt would turn the momentum in one of the wildest contests in the storied Chiefs-Raiders series. The game was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in overtime, providing an ominous start to a year which would turn tragic for the team on January 23. Nine-time Pro Bowl linebacker Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11 was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lied in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15 at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19 Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in his hometown of Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award.

As the result of a 57-day players' strike, the 1982 NFL regular season schedule was reduced from 16 weeks to 9. At the conclusion of the regular season, the NFL conducted a 16-team postseason Super Boy Tournament. Eight teams from each conference were seeded 1-8 based on their records during the season.

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM 1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 15,771,256 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys and the facility still serves as the home of Southern Methodist University, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Today, the facility remains one of the finest sports stadiums in the world. Everything is still in top shape as the Truman Sports Complex prepares to celebrate its 29th distinguished season of service in 2000. Other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, but thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in 1972, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late 1960s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in 1967, which included plans for a revolutionary concept the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the 1972 season.

In 1984, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

ALL AT ARROWHEAD

A decade later, in 1994, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager, and CEO Carl Peterson. From 1994-96 other multi-million dollar projects have modernized and expanded the Arrowhead Club, the Chiefs team and office facilities, as well as the stadium's concession areas. In 1998 the club installed a pair of 23' x 42' Mitsubishi ArrowVision video screens in both end zones, and this year the Chiefs once again expanded their administrative offices at Arrowhead. In 1999 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats have been replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (76 consecutive sell-outs) have helped produce a distinct home-field advantage for the Chiefs. During the '90s, no NFL team had a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which produced a 65-15 (.813) record over from 1990-99. Over 30 years after the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's unique two stadium setup, other metropolitan areas are, only now, in the process of attempting to construct similar facilities.

Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During Arrowhead's Silver Anniversary season in 1996, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpavers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt pointed out that Kansas City's franchise and its fans have now enjoyed America's top football facility for 29 years and wished to extend on behalf of the entire the Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... # PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT) December 23, 1962 Jeppesen Stadium (37,981)

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's Texans/Chiefs.

Following second place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West championship in 1962. Dallas finished 11-3, a full four games in front, and was matched with the Houston Oilers, also 11-3, who had won the AFL title in 1960 and 1961 over the Los Angeles, then San Diego Chargers.

The Texans, paced by a pair of touchdowns from Abner Haynes, took a 17-0 halftime advantage. Haynes scored first on a 28-yard pass from Len Dawson and then on a two-yard run after Tommy Brooker had given Dallas a 3-0 first-quarter advantage with a 16-yard field goal.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda, then a "young" 35-year-old, passed 15 yards to Willard Dewveall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick to the clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, Dallas defensive end Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson then passed to Jack Spikes for 10 yards; Spikes, the game's most valuable player, then ran for 19 and the Texans were in field goal range. At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-vard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Miami Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in 1971.

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7 January 1, 1967 War Memorial Stadium (42,080)

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff, Jerrel Wilson recovered a Bills fumble on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, Len Dawson passed 29 yards to Fred Arbanas for the first touchdown and a 7-0 Kansas City lead.

Buffalo, though, tied the game near the end of the opening period when Jack Kemp hit Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play. Few thought it would be the Bills final score of the day.

The Chiefs defense stiffened and Dawson led the offense to 10 second-quarter points. Otis Taylor caught a 29-yard touchdown pass and Mike Mercer added a 32-yard field goal, aided by a 72-yard pass interception by Johnny Robinson.

Mike Garrett then applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs by scoring on runs of one and 18 yards. Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10 January 15, 1967 Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers.

Vince Lombardi's Packers, one of the great pro football teams of all time, won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring when Bart Starr passed 37 yards to Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for the touchdown. Len Dawson tied the game for the Chiefs when he passed to Curtis McClinton for a second period touchdown. The Packers then went back on top, 14-7 before Mike Mercer kicked a 31-yard field goal just before the half ended.

The Chiefs momentum carried over into the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play, one that doomed the underdog Chiefs, unfolded when Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where Elijah Pitts ran for a third Green Bay touchdown and an insurmountable 21-10 lead. The Packers would add two more scores en route to a 35-10 win.

1969 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 17, Raiders 7 January 4, 1970 Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,544)

On the day the American Football League played the final game of its 10-year history, the Kansas City Chiefs became the only three-time AFL champion. The Chiefs, through a curious playoff system, played their Western Division rivals, the Oakland Raiders, for the league's last title. Oakland, which had won the AFL West and held a pair of regular season wins over the Chiefs, went down to a 17-7 defeat.

The contest, unlike other Raiders-Chiefs matchups, was marked by turnovers. The two clubs managed one first-half touchdown apiece, Oakland's on a three-yard run by Charlie Smith, Kansas City responding with a one-yard plunge by Wendell Hayes after Len Dawson had hit on passes of 14 yards to Otis Taylor and 41 yards to Frank Pitts.

In the third quarter, George Blanda twice missed field goal attempts that would have moved Oakland in front. Midway through the period, Kansas City mounted a drive from its own two-yard line, the field position a result of a fumble which luckily was recovered before it bounded into the end zone. Dawson and Taylor pulled Kansas City out of the hole with a 35-yard pass and run play. Robert Holmes added

23 more on a flare pass in the left flat and then scored the go-ahead touchdown five plays

At this point the game became a defensive struggle. Led by defensive charges from the entire front four of Aaron Brown, Buck Buchanan, Curley Culp and Jerry Mays, the Chiefs continually harassed Raiders quarterback Daryle Lamonica. But the turnovers which would plague both teams were only beginning.

In the fourth quarter, turnovers gave Oakland the football three times in Kansas City territory. Three times the Chiefs responded with interceptions, one each by Jim Marsalis, Jim Kearney and Emmitt Thomas. Thomas' steal was his second of the day and covered 62 yards to the Oakland 18-yard line. Jan Stenerud's field goal provided a 17-7 lead and a return to the Super Bowl.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7 January 11, 1970 Tulane Stadium (80,562)

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the world championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the New York Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the outstanding team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in 1970, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession.

The Chiefs took an early lead when Jan Stenerud kicked a 48-yard first quarter field goal. Stenerud's kick remains in Super Bowl annuls as the second-longest field goal in the game's history. He then followed with field goals of 32 and 25 yards for a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when the Vikings Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Len Dawson handed off to Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for the touchdown. The Chiefs held a 16-0 halftime lead, stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Otis Taylor, who lived up to his bigplay reputation repeatedly through that season.

Dawson hit Taylor on a short hitch pattern, but when Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard touchdown. After three quarters, the Chiefs again held a 16-point lead.

As was so often the case in 1969, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. Middle linebacker Willie Lanier picked off a Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13 January 23, 1994 Rich Stadium (76,642)

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to win the game, and the 229 rushing yards the Bills put up was all the explanation needed in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback. The Chiefs were playing in their first-ever AFC title game, while the Bills were making it four straight.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, RB Thurman Thomas would start to get on track. His easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead, but a pair of field goals by K Nick Lowery, cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close. The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a threeyard TD run from Thomas and two Steve Christie field goals. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by QB Joe Montana slipped through the hands of RB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills led 20-6 at the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays in, Montana suffered a concussion and was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon. With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead down to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. Buffalo answered with an 18-yard TD run by, who else, Thurman Thomas.

The Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), but allowed Thomas to gain 186 of the team's 229 rushing yards. Before exiting, Montana was nine-of-23 for 125 yards and one INT, while QB Dave Krieg was 16-of-29 for 125 yards and one INT. TE Keith Cash was again the team's receiving leader with six catches for 87 yards. DE Neil Smith and S Kevin Ross each contributed 11 tackles.

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving leas in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill . . . the man with the giant heart and the guiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

The winner of the 1999 Mack Lee Hill Award was linebacker Mike Maslowski. This hard-hitting Wisconsinite took a circuitous path to the National Football League, but made the most of his long-awaited opportunity last season. After a stellar fouryear career at NCAA Division III University of Wisconsin - La Crosse, where he helped the Eagles win a national championship in '95, Maslowski began his pro career with San Diego as a rookie free agent in '97, but was released prior to the start of the regular season. In '98, he moved to the Arena Football League's San Jose Sabercats, where he earned that team's Ironman Award after playing fullback, linebacker and on special teams. After inking with the Chiefs in '99, he was off to NFL Europe, where he enjoyed a record-breaking season with the Barcelona Dragons. With 105 tackles in just 10 games, he broke the league's singleseason tackle record and also became the first linebacker in the history of NFL Europe to record three interceptions in a single game as he helped lead the Dragons to the World Bowl vs. the Frankfort Galaxy.

But Maslowski didn't have much time to rest as he readied for the Chiefs training camp in River Falls, just 90 miles west of his hometown - tiny Thorp, Wisconsin (pop. 1.657). Maslowski not only made the Kansas City roster, but became an immediate special teams sensation, racking up 23 special teams stops to rank second on the squad, the most by a firstyear Chief since '94. He also saw duty on the club's short yardage defense and even stepped in to take over the punt snapping duties in a contest vs. Denver. Nicknamed "Nagurski" by Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham, this tough, young linebacker saw duty in 19 regular and preseason games for Kansas City in '99, which combined with his 11 games in NFL Europe meant he saw duty in 30 football games last year. a truly amazing feat of durability.

Unquestionably, Mike Maslowski's unwavering determination to make it in the NFL paid off as he made a name for himself in the Chiefs Red and Gold in '99. No doubt, the late Mack Lee Hill would have enjoyed seeing Maslowski with the same passion for the game and "quiet way" Hill displayed over 30 years ago.

Running back Mack Lee Hill bursts forward for vardage against the Raiders during his memorable two-year pro career with the Chiefs.

DERRICK THOMAS AWARD

Chiefs President Carl Peterson presented fellow UCLA alum LB Marvcus Patton the Chiefs 1999 MVP Award. Patton hasn't missed a single game in his 10-year NFL career, a streak of 160 straight games.

Every year since 1979, the Chiefs players have selected the club's Most Valuable Player. That award was subsequently renamed in honor of the late Derrick Thomas following his tragic death in February of 2000. Along with the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, the Derrick Thomas Award is also especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers.

Fittingly, in the year in which the Chiefs MVP Award was renamed as a tribute to one of the finest linebackers ever to wear the Red and Gold, it was another linebacker who claimed this honor in its initial year as the Derrick Thomas Award.

There certainly wasn't much fanfare when linebacker Marvous Patton signed with the Chiefs as an unrestricted free agent last year. Perhaps there should have been. In 1999, Patton not only brought his chiseled physique to Kansas City, but also infused the club's locker room with his professionalism and commitment to being the very best. Patton, who hasn't missed a single game in his 10-year, 160-game NFL career, quickly assumed the club's starting post at middle linebacker, producing a career-high 6.5 sacks to go with his seventh straight 100tackle campaign. He also added three fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, an interception and three passes defensed.

After a stellar college career at UCLA. Patton began his NFL tenure as a seventh-round draft choice of Buffalo in '90, going to the Super Bowl each of his first four seasons in the league with the Bills. In '95, he signed as a free agent with Washington and proceeded to play in 4,417 of the club's 4,436 defensive snaps in his four years with that club, producing over 160 tackles each of his seasons with the Redskins.

In '99, Kansas City was searching for a player to restore the club's defensive prominence and it found the man for the job in Patton. While it was Chiefs head coach Gunther Cunningham who preached "Respect the Game", it was this battle-tested linebacker who carried out those marching orders in the trenches. Surely, General George S. Patton would have appreciated the way his namesake played the game. "All real Americans love the sting and clash of battle," bellowed the general, who was addressing the U.S. Third Army in June of 1944 on their march across Europe. "Americans play to win all of the time.

Certainly, the Chiefs Patton would have met the general's criteria for a true warrior. Whether it was his team-high 20 tackles for loss or career-best 14 quarterback pressures. Patton set the tone for the Kansas City defense in '99, playing to win every time he stepped on the field. "He doesn't say a word he just goes and hits people," added head coach Gunther Cunningham. "Marvcus Patton is what the game is all about." No doubt, General Patton would agree.

During his 11 years in a Chiefs uniform, Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Chiefs uniform. Unquestionably, Derrick Thomas' legacy will live on in Kansas City and across the National Football League.

ALL-TIME ROSTER CRITERIA

The Chiefs All-Time Roster and All-Time Numerical Roster include all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season of veteran status as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a 1963 preseason game. Jersey numbers referenced in both the All-Time Roster and the All-Time Numerical Rosters refer to uniforms worn during regular season and postseason play. Any additions or corrections will be made with appropriate documentation denoting the error.

FAST FACT 100-YARD DOUBLE-DOUBLES

Only two players in Chiefs history have produced 100 yards rushing and 100 yards receiving in a single game. Both Tony Reed and Joe Delaney provided Chiefs fans with a plethora of exciting plays during their brief tenures in Kansas City, including a pair of such stellar individual performances. Despite 106 rushing yards and 103 yards as a receiver from Reed, the Chiefs dropped a 21-17 decision to the N.Y. Giants on October 21, 1979. Delaney's 106-yard rushing, 104-yard receiving effort against Oakland on October 11, 1981 capped a 27-0 shutout of the Raiders. While Delaney's promising career was cut short by his tragic death in '83, ironically it was his arrival in Kansas City from Northwest Louisiana in the '81 draft which set the stage for Reed's trade to the Denver Broncos during that same draft.

FAST FACT 400-YARD PASSERS

Only twice in Chiefs history has a quarterback eclipsed the 400-yard passing mark in a single game. Pro Football Hall of Fame signal-caller Len Dawson owns the most prolific passing day in Kansas City history, producing club records with 435 yards and six touchdowns in a 49-39 shootout win over Denver on November 1, 1964. The only other Chief to top the 400-yard barrier was Bill Kenney who produced 411 yards and four touchdown passes in a 41-38 setback at San Diego on December 11, 1983.

IN MEMORIUM

DERRICK VINCENT

THOMAS

DRAFT (NO. 1 - 1989) NFL: 11 (11 WITH CHIEFS) BORN: JANUARY 1, 1967 MIAMI, FLORIDA DIED: FEBRUARY 8, 2000 MIAMI, FLORIDA

GP/GS: (169/158) PLAYOFFS: (10/10)

Thomas said after the '94 campaign. "When my career is over, I want people to look back and view me as the best, or one of the two best to ever play the position." . . . The individual Thomas viewed as the best to ever play the position was N.Y. Giants Hall of Famer, Lawrence Taylor, D.T. frequently hypothesized about how his career would stack up against that of the "other" linebacker who was known on an initials-only basis, L.T. And actually, Thomas' numbers compare quite favorably to Taylor's. In 13 seasons with the Giants from '81-93, L.T. played in 184 games, producing 132.5 sacks and 10 Pro Bowl berths. In 11 seasons with the Chiefs, Thomas played in 169 games, 126.5 sacks and nine Pro Bowl appearances. However, it was in the turnover department where D.T. truly overshadowed his counterpart, L.T. Thomas established Chiefs records with 45 forced fumbles, 19 fumble recoveries, four TDs and three safeties during his career, compared to 33 forced fumbles, 12 fumble recoveries, two TDs and no safeties for Taylor. Without doubt was the heart and soul of Kansas City's NFL franchise for his 11 seasons in the Red and Gold . . . After wearing #55 in college, he donned #58 for Kansas City, a number which would soon become synonymous with defensive excellence . . . Joined the Chiefs family as Kansas City's first-round selection (fourth overall) in the '89 NFL Draft, ushering in a new era in team history under Carl Peterson and Marty Schottenheimer . . . "This is a beginning for Marty, myself and the Chiefs," Peterson said upon selecting Thomas . . . It was not only the beginning of Thomas' NFL career, but it was also a rebirth for a Chiefs franchise which had made just one playoff appearance since '71, the last year the club won an AFC West division title . . . After Kansas City produced an 8-7-1 mark to come just a half game shy of the playoffs in his rookie season of '89, Thomas helped the Chiefs flex their collective muscles the next 10 years . . . During the '90s, Kansas City finished first or second in the AFC West nine times, made seven playoff appearances, won three AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history ... From '90-99, only San Francisco (113-47, .706) and Buffalo (103-57, .644) produced better regular season records than the Chiefs (102-58, .638) ... Thomas joined Tim Grunhard and Dave Szott as three of only 26 players in NFL history to be on a club's roster for all 10 years of a 100-win decade . . . During the '90s, no NFL player accumulated more sacks than Thomas, who racked up 116.5 QB takedowns from '90-99 . . . Was also a key reason Kansas City won the NFL's takeaway/giveaway triple crown during the most recent decade as the Chiefs had the league's best turnover ratio (+128), the most takeaways (365) and the fewest giveaways (237) in the '90s . . . The Chiefs led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 as the club recorded a positive takeaway/giveaway ratio every year in the '90s, joining Philadelphia ('86-95) as the only other NFL club since the AFL-NFL merger to go 10 straight years with more takes than gives . . . The Chiefs were also the only team to lead the NFL in turnover ratio more than once in the '90s, doing it four times, going +21 in '99, +12 in '95, +18 in '92 and a team-record +26 in '90 . . . Kansas City recorded a string of 10 straight years ('90-99) with a positive turnover ratio with Thomas on the field, the second-longest streak in team history ... Was one of the NFL's most dominant defensive players and could single-handedly influence the outcome of a game, forcing opponents to constantly account for him . . . "I think I can speak for both sides, as a head coach, as an assistant coach and as an opponent, how frightened we were to come to Arrowhead and have to block him," added Cunningham . . . Produced nine Pro Bowl appearances following the '89-97 seasons, the most of any player in the illustrious history of the Chiefs franchise . . . Faced constant double and triple teams throughout his career, but still managed to get to opposing quarterbacks with ferocious frequency ... Owns franchise career records for sacks (126.5), safeties (3), fumble recoveries (18) and forced fumbles (45) during his stellar career in the Red and Gold . . . His 20.0 sacks in '90 set a Chiefs single-season mark and were the most in the league, while his seven-sack game in '90 set an NFL single-game record . . . Came one sack shy of tying that mark with a six-sack effort in the '98 season-opener . . . Also owns a share of another team record with 10 playoff appearances along with John Alt, Grunhard and Szott . . . Ranks fifth alltime in Chiefs history with 728 career tackles, as well . . . Pounced on opposing quarterbacks a clubrecord 126.5 times, racking up a remarkable 948.5 yards in losses . . . Led the Chiefs in sacks seven of his 11 seasons with the club, getting 7.0 QB takedowns in '99 and 12.0 in '98 to pace the squad his final two years in Kansas City . . . Was the longest-tenured player on the Chiefs roster at the time of his death ... Became the only player in team history to play in three different decades for the Chiefs when he saw action in his final NFL game vs. the Oakland Raiders on January 2nd of 2000 . . . Served as the pillar around which Peterson rebuilt the Chiefs franchise, beginning in' 89 as Kansas City produced a remarkable 10 winning seasons in Thomas' 11 years with the club . . . Was named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player following the '91 and '94 seasons . . . In March of 2000, Peterson announced that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would subsequently be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Marvous Patton became the first player to receive that honor under its new designation, the only linebacker other than Thomas ever to be named the club's MVP . . . Has received the league's two most prestigious humanitarian awards ('93 NFL Man of the Year and '95 Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award) . . . Joined the illustrious 100-sack club in '97, one of only 17 players in league annals to reach that milestone . . . Thomas and current Chief Leslie O'Neal are the only two members of that fearsome 100-sack fraternity who have attained that plateau in less than 10 seasons, each did it in their ninth NFL campaign ...

Appropriately, his 100th sack came against John Elway in a two-sack performance vs. Denver (11/16/97). Thomas took down that future Hall of Famer 17 times, more than any other quarterback during his previous 10 NFL campaigns . . . Got his 50th career sack vs. Dallas (10/18/92), reaching that milestone in his 54th game, quicker than any linebacker ever did and faster than all but two players in league history (Reggie White - 40 games & Mark Gastineau - 43) ... Returned four of his club-record 19 fumble recoveries for touchdowns . . . His signature sack and strip move would become a Thomas trademark which others attempted to duplicate but could never master quite like Thomas ... Was truly accomplishing in separating the ball from opponents, as evidenced by his 45 career forced fumbles (4.1 per season) . . . Although forced fumbles were only compiled by the Chiefs since '82, Thomas' 45 are by far the most in team history, topping former teammate Neil Smith who is second with 29 ... Of Thomas' 45 forced fumbles, 34 came on quarterbacks, with 20 being recovered by Kansas City, including four that resulted in touchdowns . . . . Had at least 7.0 sacks in all 11 of his pro seasons and had 10.0 or more sacks seven times . . . Registered 27 multi-sacks games in his career, including four games with 4.0 or more and 10 with 3.0 or more. The Chiefs were 22-5 (.815) when Thomas recorded more than one QB takedown and an astounding 16-1 (.941) in Thomas' multi-sack outings since '92 . . . Established the NFL single-game sack record, getting 7.0 vs. Seattle (11/11/90) to break San Francisco's Fred Dean's old record of six (11/13/83) . . . His 20.0 sacks in '90 led the NFL and are the fifth-most ever in a season . . . Exactly 83.5 of his 126.5 sacks (66.0%) came at Arrowhead Stadium . . . Was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week a club-record eight times, topping Joe Montana who earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors six times and Tamarick Vanover who received AFC Player of the Week accolades six times on special teams . . . Durable performer missed just six of a possible 169 career games due to injury, sitting out just two games during his first eight pro campaigns . . . Played in all 16 games in seven of his 11 pro seasons . . . Started 158 of the 169 regular season contests he saw action in for the Chiefs, meaning there were only nine games he played in that he did not start . . . Finished his career with 728 tackles (558 solo), 126.5 sacks (-948.5 yards), 45 forced fumbles, 19 fumble recoveries, a blocked field goal, a blocked PAT, four touchdowns and three safeties ... Also produced 444 quarterback pressures and 34 passes defensed . . . Got his lone pro interception in his 11th and final NFL campaign, getting a 20vard return off San Diego's Jim Harbaugh in '99 . . . Registered 10 career playoff appearances (all starts), logging 37 tackles (36 solo), a Chiefs playoff record 7.5 sacks (-55.0 yards), to go along with four forced fumbles and four quarterback pressures. 1999: Started all 16 games at left outside linebacker, recording 77 tackles (56 solo), a team-leading 7.0 sacks (-65.0 yards), his lone pro INT, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, 32 QB pressures and five passes defensed . . . Led the club in sacks for the seventh time in his 11 seasons . . . Was one of seven defensive starters to open all 16 contests . . . Registered three tackles and two QB pressures at Chicago (9/12) . . . Tallied 10 tackles, two QB pressures, one pass defensed vs. Denver (9/19). Also registered his trademark tripleplay, getting a sack (-8.0 yards), strip and fumble recovery off Brian Griese . . . Collected five tackles, a QB pressure and a pass defensed vs. Detroit (9/26) . . . Posted four solo tackles at San Diego (10/3) ... Recorded three tackles vs. New England (10/10), plus a sack (-8.0 yards) and strip of Drew Bledsoe (-8.0 yards) . . . Tallied three solo tackles, three QB pressures and one pass defensed at Baltimore (10/21) ... Produced his first career INT off Jim Harbaugh vs. San Diego (10/31), registering a 20-yard runback to the Chargers seven-yard line. Also posted five solo tackles, a sack of Harbaugh (-8.0 yards), one QB pressure and a pass defensed in a 34-0 shutout of the Chargers ... Registered a sack of Peyton Manning (-6.0 yards), four tackles (three solo) and a team-high four QB pressures at Indianapolis (11/7) . . . Tallied four tackles and a QB pressure at Tampa Bay (11/14) ... Produced two solo tackles and one QB pressure vs. Seattle (11/21) ... Captained the defense and posted four solo tackles at Oakland (11/28) . . . Tallied seven tackles and two QB pressures at Denver (12/5) ... Captained the defense and recorded four solo tackles and five QB pressures vs. Minnesota (12/12). Also collected a sack and strip of Jeff George (-18.0 yards) and another sack of George (-9.0 yards) for his 27th career multi-sack game . . . Captained the defense and produced the final sack of his pro career, taking down Mike Tomczak (-8.0 yards) vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Also registered eight tackles and two QB pressures ... Captained the defense posting four tackles, four QB pressures and one pass defensed at Seattle (12/26) . . . Captained the defense along with James Hasty in the 169th and final game of his NFL career vs. Oakland (1/2/00). Produced seven tackles and two QB pressures in the 41-38 overtime loss, becoming the only player in Chiefs history to play a regular season game in three different decades, and one of just 18 NFL players to play a regular season game in the '80s, '90s and '00s. 1998: Competed at the club's "Falcon" post in 15 games with 10 starts . . . Registered a team-high 12.0 sacks (-79.0 yds.) and added 54 tackles (44 solo) to go along with two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles, a pass defensed and 26 QB pressures ... Took home AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after a monster game in the season-opener vs. Oakland (9/6), recording 6.0 sacks (-36.0 yards) of Jeff George. That sack tally tied him for the second-highest single-game total in league history, coming only one sack short of his own NFL record of 7.0 set vs. Seattle (11/11/90). One of those sacks of George came in the end zone for his clubrecord third career safety. Forced George to cough the ball up on one of those sacks, as well . . .

Recorded an 11-yard sack of Ryan Leaf, forced one fumble and recovered another vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Tallied eight tackles (six solo) at New England (10/11) ... Played, but did not start at the "Falcon" position vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1) and notched a sack of Vinny Testaverde (-7.0 yds.) . . . Tallied a season-high 10 tackles in a reserve role at Seattle (11/8), registering one sack of Warren Moon (-7.0 vds.) and four QB pressures . . . Served a one-game suspension at San Diego (11/22) . . . Returned to the starting line-up at Denver (12/6) . . . Recorded one sack of Troy Aikman (-3.0 yds.) in a reserve role vs. Dallas (12/13) . . . Started at Oakland (12/26), picking up two sacks (-15.0 yds.), taking down Wade Wilson and George one time apiece. Also scooped up a Donald Hollas fumble forced by Leslie O'Neal and rambled 44 yards for a score, his first TD since '93. The fumble recovery was the 18th of his career, giving him the Chiefs all-time record. 1997: Suffered an injury to his left triceps tendon during training camp and missed the most extensive action of his NFL career, sitting out four games, yet still managed to produce 9.5 sacks to earn his ninth straight Pro Bowl bid . . . Saw minimal action in the season's first two games and sat out the next four contests with that malady, but rebounded to produce another Pro Bowl campaign and a berth on the All-Madden Team ... Played in 12 games (10 starts), recording 55 tackles (34 solo), 9.5 sacks (-56.5 yards) . . . Did not record a fumble recovery for the first time in his career, but did have three forced fumbles, two passes defensed and 34 QB pressures . . . Suffered a strained left triceps tendon on July 25th when he was locked up against New Orleans Saints All-Pro tackle Willie Roaf in a workout in La Crosse, Wisconsin, and could only work on his aerobic conditioning for the remainder of training camp and the preseason . . . Along with a bulky arm brace, made his debut at the "Falcon" position in passing situations at Denver (8/31), recording one tackle and played a similar limited role the next week at Oakland (9/8), getting three stops ... With his injury not improving, the Chiefs opted to give it more time to heal, relegating Thomas to the inactive list for the next four contests vs. Buffalo (9/14), at Carolina (9/21), vs. Seattle (9/28) and at Miami (10/5) ... Returned to the line-up for his first start of the season vs. San Diego (10/16), nabbing four QB hurries and two tackles . . . Rediscovered his Pro Bowl form with his first sack of the year (-7.0 yards) on Tony Banks, along with two forced fumbles and six stops at St. Louis (10/26) ... Enjoyed a milestone game vs. Denver (11/23), becoming only the 15th player in NFL history to post 100 sacks, registering 2.0 sacks (-18.0 yards) of John Elway to go along with a seasonhigh 10 tackles . . . Had a monster day at San Diego (12/14), producing eight tackles, four QB pressures and a season-high 3.0 sacks (-9.0 yards), his 24th career multi-sack game and his ninth contest with three or more QB takedowns. Took down Todd Philcox in the end zone to record the second safety of his career to tie Bill Maas, Joe Phillips and Dan Saleuamua for the team record . . . Named AFC Defensive Player of the Month in December . . . Started the club's AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Denver (1/4/98), recording one tackle. 1996: Garnered his eighth straight Pro Bowl nod. extending his Chiefs record . . . Was a first team All-NFL pick by USA Today and a second team All-NFL choice by AP . . . Selected first team All-AFC by UPI and Football News . . . Recorded a teamleading 13 sacks, his most since '92 (14.5), tying for second in the AFC and fourth in NFL . . . Also contributed 58 tackles, three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, a blocked field goal, four passes defensed and 47 quarterback pressures in 16 games (15 starts) ... Had five two-sack outings: Houston (9/1), Oakland (9/8), Green Bay (11/10), Chicago (11/17) and Buffalo (12/22); Chiefs won all but the Bills game . . . In a 19-3 win over the Raiders (9/8), one sack forced a fumble which James Hasty returned 80 yards for a touchdown and another sack caused a fumble which resulted in a safety . . . In that game he also had seven tackles and a season-high 13 QB pressures en route to AFC Defensive Player of the Week accolades . . . Had at least four tackles in nine games and five or more in six contests. 1995: Earned his seventh straight Pro Bowl appearance, his first as a nonstarter . . . Was a second team All-AFC choice by UPI . . . Played "stack" linebacker position in '95 after playing the "base" spot over the tight end in '94 . . . Registered 71 tackles (sixth on team), eight sacks (second), two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, four passes defensed and 54 quarterback pressures (fourth) . . . Started 15 games, missing just the second game of his career (at Miami, 12/11) with a groin injury . . . Broke a string of 81 straight games played dating back to '90 . . . Had two sacks vs. N.Y. ## FAST FACT LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS JIM LYNCH, WILLIE LANIER, BOBBY BELL

Derrick Thomas unquestionably entrenched himself as the most recent in a long lineage of legendary linebackers to take the field for the Chiefs. When he becomes eligible for the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2005, Thomas could join fellow Chiefs LBs Bobby Bell (Chiefs Hall of Fame - '79, Pro Football Hall of Fame - '83) and Willie Lanier (Chiefs Hall of Fame - '84, Pro Football Hall of Fame - '86) in Canton. Along with Jim Lynch (Chiefs Hall of Fame - '89), Bell and Lanier defined Kansas City's dominating defenses of the late '60s and early '70s, Lynch and Lanier were roommates for 11 seasons with the Chiefs. The duo joined the club as second-round draft picks in '67 and retired together in '77. Bell came to the club as a seventh-round pick in '63 before retiring in '74.

DERRICK THOMAS TIMELINE

January 1, 1967 Born Derrick Vincent Thomas in Miami, Florida.

December 17, 1972 Derrick's father, Air Force Captain Robert Thomas, is shot down while it was returning from a mission in Vietnam on "Operation: Linebacker II".

November 1988 Received the Butkus Award, given to the nation's top collegiate linebacker and was tabbed as a unanimous first team All-America selection at the University of Alabama.

April 1989 Selected by Kansas City with their first round selection (fourth overall) in the '89 NFL Draft. Only Troy Aikman (Dallas), Tony Mandarich (Green Bay) and Barry Sanders (Detroit) were picked ahead of him.

December 1990 Became the first Kansas City rookie to lead the club in sacks since Chiefs

Hall of Famer Art Still in '78. His 10.0 sacks were just two shy of Leslie O'Neal's then-NFL rookie record of 12.0.

January 1990

Earned consensus Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and first Pro Bowl berth, becoming the first Kansas City rookie to make the Pro Bowl since RB Joe Delaney following the '81 season. Became the first Chiefs outside linebacker to earn a spot in that game since Pro Football Hall of Famer Bobby Bell in '73. Also named the Chiefs Mack Lee Hill Award Winner.

November 11, 1990 Set an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks vs. Seattle, breaking the previous record of 6.0 set by San Francisco's Fred Dean vs. New Orleans (11/13/83).

December 29, 1990 Established Chiefs single season record with 20.0 sacks, getting his 20th sack at Chicago, a win which clinched Kansas City's first playoff berth since '86. His 20 sacks were just two shy of Mark Gastineau's NFL single-season record of 22.0 set in '84.

January 5, 1991 Played in the first of 10 career postseason games with the Chiefs, a 17-16 loss at Miami. Those 10 playoff appearances gave Thomas a share of the franchise record along with John Alt, Tim Grunhard and Dave Szott.

February 1991 Played in his second Pro Bowl game.

Established the "Third and Long Foundation", an inner-city reading program in Kansas City. As part of the literacy program, Derrick read to children at local libraries each Saturday during the season before home games.

December 1991 Led the Chiefs in sacks for the third straight season with 13.5.

January 1992 Addressed the Missouri General Assembly and obtained public understanding and support for alternative programs for children at risk.

Named the Chiefs Most Valuable Player for the first time becoming the first linebacker to ever win that honor.

Started his third straight Pro Bowl.

February 1992 Started his third straight Pro Bowl.

Was awarded the first Distinguished Service to Education Award from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Education.

Mariam Williams, Thomas' middle school English teacher was selected as the NFL Teacher of the Year.

July 16, 1992 Was saluted by President George Bush as his 832nd Point of Light for exemplifying his beliefs that, "From now on in America, any definition of a successful life must include serving others." Derrick was the first (and only) NFL athlete to receive this award from President Bush.

Appeared in Hank Williams, Jr.'s, "Come on Over to Country" music video.

September 11, 1992 Met with President George Bush in Kansas City.

October 18, 1992 Recorded 50th sack of his career on Troy Aikman vs. Dallas.

December 1992 Tied with Neil Smith for the team lead with 14.5 sacks. February 1993 Started in the Pro Bowl for the fourth consecutive year.

January 1993 Received the NFL's most prestigious honor, receiving the 1993 Edge NFL Man of the Year Award, which recognizes both community service and wan of the Year Award, which recognizes both community service a on-field performance.

on-liela performance

May 1993 Delivered the keynote address at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial during Memorial Day ceremonies in Washington, D.C. Other speakers at that event have included Vice President Al Gore, General Colin Powell and former Pittsburgh Steeler Rocky Bleier.

Helped guide the Chiefs to their first AFC West title since '71 and lead January 1994 Kansas City to its first-ever appearance in the AEC Championship Game. February 1994 Played in the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year. Awarded the 1994 Genuine Heroes Award, presented by Trinity College in Chicago. December 1994 Named the Chiefs MVP for the second time and was selected to his sixth consecutive Pro Rowl June 1995 Selected the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award for service to team, community and country. December 1995 Helped lead Kansas City to a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record and the club's second AFC West title in three years. Earned his seventh straight Pro Bowl appearance in the process. December 1996 Garnered his eighth straight Pro Bowl nod, while leading the team for the fifth time in his career, this time with 13.0 sacks. November 16, 1997 Recorded the 100th sack of his NFL career, getting it against John Elway in a 24-22 win vs. Denver at Arrowhead. December 1997 Guided Kansas City to a franchise-best 13-3 record for the second time in three years as the Chiefs captured their third AFC West title in five seasons. Selected to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, the most of any player in Chiefs history. Recorded 9.5 sacks despite missing four games to a triceps tendon injury. Registered 6.0 sacks vs. Oakland in the season opener, just one shy of September 6, 1998 tying his own NFL record. Also pulls off a "called shot" in that contest, signaling a sack and then getting it on the next play vs. Raiders QB Jeff George. That safety was the third of his career, a Chiefs record. December 1998 Led the team with 12.0 sacks, the fifth time in his career he led the team. in that category. December 26, 1998 Registered the fourth and final touchdown of his NFL tenure, a 44-yard fumble return in a 31-24 win at Oakland, the final game of Marty Schottenheimer's 10-year tenure as Chiefs head coach. August 1999 Was selected to the Kansas City Chiefs 40th Anniversary Team as named by Lamar Hunt and Lamar Hunt, Jr., joining guard Will Shields as the only other active Chiefs player on that team. September 19, 1999 Presented Gunther Cunningham with the game ball after the Chiefs recorded their first regular season victory under their new head coach, a 26-10 win vs. Denver at Arrowhead. October 31, 1999 Recorded the first interception of his 11-year NFL career in a 34-0 shutout of the San Diego Chargers at Arrowhead. December 5, 1999 Became one of just 26 players in NFL history to be on a club's roster for all 10 years of a 100-win decade when the Chiefs recorded a 16-10 win at Denver. December 12, 1999 Registered the final sack of his NFL career on Pittsburgh's Mike Tomczak. giving him a Chiefs-record 126.5 for his career, the ninth-highest total in NFL history. During the decade of the '90s. Thomas recorded 116.5 sacks, the most of any player in the league during the decade. January 1, 2000 Celebrated his 33rd birthday. Became first player in Chiefs history to play a regular season game in January 2, 2000 three different decades ('80s, '90s and '00s) when Kansas City suffered a 41-38 overtime loss to the Oakland Raiders. It would be his 169th and final game as a Chief, his 158th regular season career start. January 23, 2000 Seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident on icy roads on Interstate 435 near Kansas City International Airport. Passed away at 10:10 AM (EST) at Jackson Memorial Hospital in February 8, 2000 Miami, Florida. May 13, 2000 Posthumously awarded bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice and Social Welfare from the University of Alabama. Chiefs President Carl Peterson announced that at the suggestion of Clark March 4, 2000 Hunt, the team's annual Most Valuable Player Award would be henceforth be known as the Derrick Thomas Award as Marvous Patton became the only Chiefs linebacker other than Thomas to receive that MVP honor.

DERRICK THOMAS "FOREVER A CHIEF"

DERRICK THOMAS"FOREVER A CHIEF"

- 1 Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunts presented Thomas with the '93 NFL Man of the Year Award, the league's most prestigious honor.
- 2 Thomas was voted the Chiefs Most Valuable Player by his teammates in '91 and '94, an honor which is now known as The Derrick Thomas Award.
- 3 A Pro Bowler his first nine NFL seasons, Thomas owns more Pro Bowl berths than any other player in team history.
- 4 The NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Year in '89 after recording 10.0 sacks, Thomas was also named the Chiefs Mack Lee Hill Award winner that year.
- 5 Forty-three different NFL quarterbacks became victims of a D.T. sack during their careers, including San Francisco's Steve Young. Thanks to 3.0 sacks from Thomas, the Chiefs prevailed 24-17 in QB Joe Montana's only head-to-head match-up against the 49ers in '94.
- 6 A master of the sack and strip, Thomas holds Chiefs records for fumble recoveries (18) and forced fumbles (45).
- 7 Thomas was honored as President George Bush's 832nd Point of Light in '92 and delivered the keynote speech at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial during '93 Memorial Day ceremonies in Washington, D.C.
- The memory of Thomas' late father, Air Force Captain Robert Thomas, always burned brightly for D.T. Ironically, the elder Thomas was shot down in Vietnam on December 17, 1972 on a mission dubbed "Operation: Linebacker Two."
- 9 Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson tabbed Thomas with the fourth overall selection in the first round of the '89 NFL Draft out of the University of Alabama.
- 10 Thomas' middle school English teacher, Mariam Williams, was named the NFL's inaugural "Teacher of the Year" in '92.
- 11 Thomas collected a team-record three safeties during his career, including this "called shot" in a 28-8 win vs. the Oakland Raiders in the '98 season-opener, a game in which he also tallied 6.0 sacks.
- D.T. sacked Denver QB John Elway more times (26.0) than any other QB during his 11-year career. Appropriately, Thomas got his 100th career sack off Elway in a thrilling 24-22 win vs. Denver at Arrowhead in '97.
- 13 Thomas' 126.5 sacks are a Chiefs all-time record and rank ninth in NFL history. D.T. set the NFL single-game sack record with 7.0 QB takedowns vs. Seattle on Veterans Day in '90.
- 14 Thomas led the NFL with a franchise-record 20.0 sacks in '90, the fifth-highest singleseason tally in league history. From '90-99, no other NFL player could top D.T.'s 116.5 sacks.
- 15 Thomas took a victory lap around Arrowhead after the Chiefs clinched homefield advantage for the '95 playoffs after posting a 13-3 record and winning the AFC West title.
- 16 D.T. registered the final sack of his career against Pittsburgh's Mike Tomczak in a 35-18 win vs. the Steelers on December 18, 1999. It would also mark his 110th and final regular season victory in a Chiefs uniform.
- 17 Thomas is the only player to make a regular season game appearance in three different decades ('80s, '90s and '00s) for the Chiefs, seeing action in his 169th and final NFL game vs. the Oakland Raiders on January 2, 2000, just one day after his 33rd birthday.
